Form 10-K
Filed March 30, 2011
File No. 000-16929

Dear Mr. Schaber:

We have reviewed your filing and have the following comments.

Please respond to this letter within ten business days by amending your filing or by advising us when you will provide the requested response. If you do not believe our comments apply to your facts and circumstances or do not believe an amendment is appropriate, please tell us why in your response.

After reviewing any amendment to your filing and the information you provide in response to these comments, we may have additional comments.

Form 10-K, filed March 30, 2011

Business, page 3

1. We note that your main source of revenue has been grant funding from the National Institute of Health ("NIH") and the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases ("NIAID"), a division of the NIH. Please revise your disclosure in your business section to disclose the material terms of these grants, including any conditions on funding, obligations under the grants, and the intellectual property rights of each party. Please file as exhibits any written agreements between the company and NIH or NIAID, as these appear to be material contracts within the meaning of Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K.

Commercialization and Market, page 6

2. Please revise your disclosure to include the duration and termination provisions of your collaboration and supply agreement with Sigma-Tau Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

BioDefense Overview, page 10

3. We note that in January 2011, you entered into a definitive license agreement with the University of Colorado. Please describe the material terms of this agreement, including, but not limited to any payment provisions, royalty rates, aggregate milestones, usage restrictions, exclusivity provisions, obligations/rights to defend, other rights obtained and material obligations that must be met to keep the agreement in place, duration and termination provisions. Also, please file the agreement as an exhibit pursuant to Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K.

orBec License Agreement, page 15

4. We note that in November 1998, you entered into an exclusive, worldwide, royalty bearing license agreement with Dr. George B. McDonald for the rights to the intellectual property and know-how relating to orBec. Please describe the material terms of this agreement, including, but not limited to, any payment provisions, royalty rates, aggregate milestones, obligations/rights to defend, other rights obtained and material obligations that must be met to keep the agreement in place, duration and termination provisions.
5. We note that you also executed an exclusive license to patent applications for "Use of Anti-Inflammatories to Treat Irritable Bowel Syndrome" from the University of Texas Medical Branch-Galveston. Please describe the material terms of these license agreements, including, but not limited to any payment provisions, royalty rates, aggregate milestones, usage restrictions, obligations/rights to defend, other rights obtained and material obligations that must be met to keep the agreements in place, duration and termination provisions. Also, please file the license agreements as exhibits pursuant to Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K.

RiVax Intellectual Property, page 15

6. We note that in June 2004, you entered into a license agreement with UTSW for the injectable rights to the ricin vaccine, and in October 2004, you negotiated the remaining oral rights to the ricin vaccine. Please describe the material terms of the license agreement, including, but not limited to royalty rates, aggregate milestones, usage restrictions, exclusivity provisions, obligations, rights to defend, other rights obtained and material obligations that must be met to keep the agreement in place, duration and termination provisions. Also, please file the license agreement as an exhibit pursuant to Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K.

We urge all persons who are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosure in the filing to be certain that the filing includes the information the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and all applicable Exchange Act rules require. Since the company and its management are in possession of all facts relating to a company's disclosure, they are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosures they have made.
