DataJungle expands executive leadership team with appointment of Paul Gariboldi as Executive Vice President of Global Field Operations

OTTAWA – (MARKET WIRE) – August 22, 2007 – DataJungle Software Inc. (OTCBB:DJSW), a leading provider of next generation "on demand" business intelligence software, today announced that it has continued the expansion of its senior leadership team with the appointment of Paul Gariboldi as Executive Vice President of Global Field Operations. In collaboration with Robert Lendvai, the company's new Chief Marketing Officer, Gariboldi is tasked with the overall coordination, functional management and leadership of all sales activities of the Company.

Gariboldi brings DataJungle an extensive background in managing sales of information technology solutions, products and consulting services to Fortune 2000 accounts worldwide, with emphasis on leading edge e-commerce technologies. Prior to joining DataJungle, he served as Senior Vice President of Sales and Services at Informative, Inc. As Vice President of the Americas for atg (Art Technology Group), he directed and managed sales of the Dynamo e-commerce platform, helping to grow the Company from 13 employees to over 220 worldwide and increasing sales from $6 million to more than $164 million annually. Prior management posts have included General Manager of The Concorde Group, Ltd in Cambridge, Massachusetts; Director of Western Region of MITEM Corp.; and Regional Director of Oracle Corporation. After earning a BS in Accounting and a BA in Political Science from Rutgers University, Gariboldi began his career as a staff accountant with KPMG Peat Marwick.

Commenting on Gariboldi's appointment, David Morris, CEO of DataJungle, noted, "Paul has a very impressive track record of success in building and managing highly productive and efficient global sales teams that have delivered extraordinary sales growth in relatively short periods of time. Consequently, we feel very fortunate to have won him to the DataJungle management team and believe his sales leadership will be instrumental in assisting our Company to achieve rapid market penetration for our newly defined on-demand business intelligence platform."

"DataJungle is in the right place at the right time – at the leading edge of an explosive market opportunity. On-demand business intelligence represents an innovative and highly cost efficient approach to empowering enterprise customers with incomparable flexibility, unlimited scalability and on-demand access to vital data intelligence required to retain competitive and cost advantages in their businesses. I'm thrilled to be joining DataJungle at this important inflexion point in its history and expect that few obstacles will stand in the way of the Company's future success," stated Gariboldi.

About DataJungle Software Inc.

DataJungle Software has developed a proprietary, on-demand, enterprise business intelligence front-end application for leading business intelligence infrastructures, including the Microsoft and Cognos platforms. Its flagship product, Matrix, is the most robust and comprehensive BI dashboard software solution available for these platforms, which are the most widely deployed BI infrastructures in the world. Built on Web 2.0, Matrix integrates with Microsoft SQL Server, Analysis Services, Reporting Services, the KPI Framework, Virtual Earth, and SharePoint. Through its ASP platform, DataJungle offers enterprise companies – on a per seat subscriber basis - turn-key, web-enabled access to customized, mission critical data intelligence wherever and whenever they need it.

Matrix encompasses the full range of capabilities required by the broadest range of user classes in an organization – these include: dashboarding, OLAP analysis, Web reporting, collaboration, annotation, scorecarding, location intelligence and wireless alerting. Matrix provides unmatched flexibility, end-user customizability, and impact, and was designed to require minimal training for end users and administrators. Some of the world's leading companies use DataJungle software, including General Motors, Hewlett-Packard, Raytheon, Flextronics, BEA Systems, and Emerson Electric. DataJungle is a Microsoft Gold Certified Partner and a Cognos Technology Partner. For more information, please visit www.datajungle.com.
