Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

Effective August 8, 2001, the Registrant terminated HJ & Associates, LLC as the Registrant's independent accountants, as its auditor, within the meaning of (i) of Regulation S-K of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The decision to change accountants was approved by the Board of Directors of the registrant.

On May 14, 2001 the Registrant engaged HJ & Associates, LLC to serve as the Registrant's independent accountants and auditors within the meaning of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Subsequent to engaging HJ as the Registrant's independent accountants, the Registrant determined that it would be better served by a different independent accountant. On August 20, 2001 the Registrant selected Tanner + Co. as its independent accountants. The Registrant has placed no reliance on any reports issued by Tanner + Co. for all financial statements issued. During the period HJ served as independent accountants, HJ did not consult on any accounting issue, nor was there any dispute or disagreement that would have materially affected the Registrant's financial statements.

As required by applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, HJ that during the two most recent fiscal years, the Registrant was unaware of any disputes between the Registrant and HJ regarding principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or audit scope of principles or practices, if not resolved to the satisfaction of HJ, would have constituted the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its reports, other than that of the issue of a going concern.

The Registrant requested that HJ furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not it agrees with the Registrant's request, addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission, is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Form 8-K.

Also on August 20, 2001, the Registrant engaged Tanner + Co. as its independent auditors with respect to the Registrant's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001.

During the most recent fiscal year and through August 2001, Tanner + Co. regarding either: (i) the application of accounting principles to a specific financial statement, and neither a written report was provided to the Registrant, nor was either the subject of a disagreement, as that term is defined in Item 304 (a) (1) of Regulation S-K and the related instructions to Item 304 of Regulation S-K.
