Performance Overview

Dear Shareholder:

This report provides an overview on the performance of the Goldman Sachs Internet Tollkeeper Fund during the six-month reporting period that ended June 30, 2003.

Performance Review

During the six-month period that ended June 30, 2003, the Fund's Class A, B, C, Institutional, and Service Shares generated cumulative total returns, without sales charges, of 22.08%, 21.79%, 21.84%, 22.43%, and 22.18%, respectively. Over the same time period the Fund's benchmarks, the Goldman Sachs Internet Index, Nasdaq Composite Index, and S&P 500 Index generated cumulative total returns of 65.70%, 21.51%, and 11.76%, respectively.

The U.S. markets remained volatile during the reporting period as investors continued to deal with a weak economic environment. During the first three months of the period, the equity markets languished in the face of geopolitical uncertainty. During the first quarter of 2003 the market was affected by factors such as the continued standoffs in Iraq and North Korea, rising oil prices, weak consumer confidence, and a difficult labor market. The uncertainty caused many businesses to delay spending on new investments. In March, coalition forces invaded Iraq, quickly toppling Saddam Hussein and his regime. Investors began taking a more positive view of the economy and its long-term prospects. In April, the U.S. markets rebounded sharply as consumer confidence reported its second largest monthly gain ever. In addition, the lowering of the terrorist threat level and falling oil prices contributed to the upbeat sentiment. Investors have been taking a more positive view of the economy and its prospects as corporate profits have been solid with many companies releasing better-than-expected earnings results.

Portfolio Positioning

The Fund invests primarily in established growth businesses within the media, telecommunications, technology, and Internet sectors.

Portfolio Highlights

Microsoft Corp. and QUALCOMM adversely impacted performance during the reporting period while EMC Corp., CheckFree Corp. and First Data Corp. contributed positively to the portfolio. EMC Corp., a leader in data storage continues to develop and possess premier storage products. The firm has reestablished its competitive lead in the industry through new product innovation. Despite this period of extremely low demand, EMC continues to execute well. CheckFree has a dominant market share position in EBPP (Electronic Bill Presentment and Payment) and could profit from more people using the Internet to pay their bills. First Data is the leader in money transfer, credit card processing, offline debit processing, check guarantee, check verification, and has the most number of merchants. The company recently announced it would acquire the transaction processing company Concord EFS, which should elevate First Data's position in online debit (the fastest growing payment sector) as well as giving it access to over 125 million checking accounts.

QUALCOMM, the innovator of CDMA technology, negatively impacted performance as it recently reported that it has several weeks of excess inventory. In addition, there remains some uncertainty regarding subscriber growth in China and India. Finally, chip pricing has been weaker than expected. Despite the negative news, we remain committed to QUALCOMM.

Several of the portfolio's media businesses were strong contributors to performance during the period including Liberty Media Corp., EchoStar Communications Corp. and Crown Castle International Corp. We believe EchoStar is an attractive growth investment due to its excellent management, subscriber growth, recurring revenue stream business model, and competitive positioning. In its most recent quarterly earnings statement, EchoStar reported subscriber growth that exceeded analysts' expectations. In addition, the company is on target to have robust free cash flow growth this year, which is important for a business that is looking to attain a consistently strong growth rate.

- Clear Channel Communications, Inc. — Clear Channel Communications is a diversified media company with three business segments: radio broadcasting, outdoor advertising, and live entertainment. The firm was one of the biggest beneficiaries of an FCC ruling that helped to secure its dominant position in the radio industry. In their June 2nd decision, the FCC maintained its limits on ownership of local radio but replaced its definition of a market from one based on signal contours to one based on Arbitron's geographic markets method. The new geographic market approach essentially tightens ownership limits in most markets and therefore restricts the potential combinations of radio stations going forward.
- Cendant Corporation — Cendant is a consumer and business services company primarily operating in two broad segments: travel services and real estate services. Travel and lodging related companies rebounded in recent months as geopolitical tensions and the fear of SARS eased. In the second quarter, travel volumes reached pre-war levels and Cendant Corp. rallied with the travel industry as a whole. Cendant owns dominant franchises within its business segments and virtually all of its businesses are the number one or number two players in their respective industries.
- Viacom, Inc. — Viacom benefited from strong advertising sales for its various networks. In our team's frequent conversations with media buyers, we are constantly reminded that Viacom's networks garner the most interest. In addition, fears that company President Mel Karmazin may depart are no longer weighing on the stock price as he recently agreed to stay with Viacom for the next three years.

We thank you for your investment and look forward to your continued confidence.

PERFORMANCE REVIEW

January 1, 2003– June 30, 2003	Fund Total Return (based on NAV) ¹	S&P 500 Index ²	NASDAQ Composite Index ²	Goldman Sachs Internet Index ²
Class A	22.08%	11.76%	21.51%	65.70%
Class B	21.79	11.76	21.51	65.70
Class C	21.84	11.76	21.51	65.70

Service	22.18	11.76	21.51	65.70

¹The net asset value (NAV) represents the net assets of the class of the Fund (ex-dividend) divided by the total number of shares of the class outstanding. The Fund's performance reflects the reinvestment of dividends and other distributions. The Fund's performance does not reflect the deduction of any applicable sales charges.

²The Indexes are unmanaged and do not reflect any fees or expenses. The S&P 500 and NASDAQ Composite Indexes reflect the reinvestment of dividends.

STANDARDIZED TOTAL RETURNS³

For the period ended 6/30/03	Class A	Class B	Class C	Institutional	Service
One Year	10.98%	11.80%	15.60%	18.06%	17.51%
Since Inception ³ (10/1/99)	-14.23	-14.27	-13.61	-12.58	-13.01

³The Standardized Total Returns are average annual total returns as of the most recent calendar quarter-end. They assume reinvestment of all distributions at net asset value. These returns reflect a maximum initial sales charge of 5.5% for Class A Shares and the assumed deferred sales charge for Class B Shares (5% maximum declining to 0% after six years) and the assumed deferred sales charge for Class C Shares (1% if redeemed within 12 months of purchase). Because Institutional and Service Shares do not involve a sales charge, such a charge is not applied to their Standardized Total Returns.

Total return figures in the above charts represent past performance and do not indicate future results, which will vary. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate and, therefore, an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Performance reflects expense limitations in effect. In their absence, performance would be reduced. Returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or the redemption of Fund shares.

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2002 (Unaudited)

1. ORGANIZATION

Goldman Sachs Trust (the “Trust”) is a Delaware statutory trust registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (as amended) as an open-end management investment company. The Trust includes the Goldman Sachs Internet Tollkeeper Fund (the “Fund”). The Fund is a diversified portfolio offering five classes of shares — Class A, Class B, Class C, Institutional and Service.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that may affect the reported amounts. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

A. Investment Valuation — Investments in securities traded on a U.S. or foreign securities exchange or the Nasdaq system are valued daily at their last sale price or official closing on the principal exchange or system on which they are traded. If no sale occurs, securities are valued at the closing bid price. Unlisted equity and debt securities for which market quotations are available are valued at the last sale price on valuation date, or if no sale occurs, at the last bid price. Short-term debt obligations maturing in sixty days or less are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value. Securities for which quotations are not readily available, are valued at fair value using methods approved by the Trust’s Board of Trustees.

B. Securities Transactions and Investment Income — Securities transactions are recorded as of the trade date. Realized gains and losses on sales of investments are calculated using the identified-cost basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, net of foreign withholding taxes and reclaims where applicable. Interest income is determined on the basis of interest accrued, premium amortized and discount accreted.

Net investment income (other than class specific expenses) and unrealized and realized gains or losses are allocated daily to each class of shares of the Fund based upon the relative proportion of net assets of each class.

C. Expenses — Expenses incurred by the Trust which do not specifically relate to an individual fund of the Trust are allocated to the funds on a straight-line or pro-rata basis depending upon the nature of the expense.

Class A, Class B and Class C shareholders of the Fund bear all expenses and fees relating to their respective Distribution and Service Plans. Each class of shares separately bears its respective class-specific Transfer Agency fees. Shareholders of Service Shares bear all expenses and fees relating to its Service and Shareholder Administration Plans.

D. Federal Taxes — It is the Fund’s policy to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute each year substantially all of its investment company taxable income and capital gains to its shareholders. Accordingly, no federal tax provision is required. Dividends and distributions to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Income and capital gain distributions, if any, are declared and paid annually.

The characterization of distributions to shareholders for financial reporting purposes is determined in accordance with income tax rules. Therefore, the source of the Fund’s distributions may be shown in the accompanying financial statements as from net investment income or net realized gain on investment transactions, or from paid-in-capital, depending on the type of book/tax differences that may exist.

E. Repurchase Agreements — Repurchase agreements involve the purchase of securities subject to the seller’s agreement to repurchase them at a mutually agreed upon date and price. During the term of a repurchase agreement, the value of the underlying securities held as collateral on behalf of the Fund, including accrued interest, is required to equal or exceed the value of the repurchase agreement, including accrued interest. The underlying securities for all repurchase agreements are held in safekeeping at the Fund’s custodian or designated subcustodian under triparty repurchase agreements.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

F. Segregation Transactions — The Fund may enter into certain derivative transactions to seek to increase total return. Forward foreign currency exchange contracts, futures contracts, written options, mortgage dollar rolls, when-issued securities and forward commitments represent examples of such transactions. As a result of entering into these transactions, the Fund is required to segregate liquid assets equal to or greater than the market value of the corresponding transactions.

3. AGREEMENTS

Goldman Sachs Funds Management, L.P. (“GSFM”), a subsidiary of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc., was renamed at the end of April 2003, Goldman Sachs Asset Management, L.P. (“GSAM”), and assumed Goldman, Sachs & Co.’s (“Goldman Sachs”) investment advisory responsibilities under its Investment Management Agreement (the “Agreement”) with the Trust on behalf of the Fund. The fees payable under the Agreement, and the personnel who manage the Fund, did not change as a result of GSAM’s assumption of responsibilities. Under the Agreement GSAM manages the fund’s portfolio, subject to the general supervision of the Trust’s Board of Trustees. As compensation for the services rendered pursuant to the Agreement, the assumption of the expenses related thereto and administering the Fund’s business affairs, including providing facilities, GSAM is entitled to a fee, calculated daily and payable monthly, at an annual rate equal to 1.00% of the average daily net assets of the Fund.

GSAM has voluntarily agreed to limit “Other Expenses” for the Fund (excluding Management fees, Service Share fees, Distribution and Service fees, Transfer Agent fees and expenses, litigation and indemnification costs, taxes, interest, brokerage commissions, shareholder meeting and other extraordinary expenses) to the extent such expenses exceed 0.06% (rounded) of the average daily net assets of the Fund. For the six months ended June 30, 2003, the adviser reimbursed approximately $136,200. In addition, the Fund has entered into certain expense offset arrangements with the custodian resulting in a reduction in the Fund’s expenses. For the six months ended June 30, 2003, the custody fees were reduced by approximately $200 under such arrangements.

Goldman Sachs serves as the Distributor of shares of the Fund pursuant to a Distribution Agreement. Goldman Sachs may receive a portion of the Class A sales load and Class B and Class C contingent deferred sales charges. During the six months ended June 30, 2003, Goldman Sachs has advised the Fund that it retained approximately $12,000, $1,000 and $200, respectively, for Class A, Class B and Class C Shares.

The Trust, on behalf of the Fund has adopted Distribution and Service Plans. Under the Plans, Goldman Sachs and/or Authorized Dealers are entitled to a monthly fee for distribution services equal, on an annual basis, to 0.25%, 0.75% and 0.75% of the average daily net assets attributable to Class A, Class B and Class C Shares, respectively. Additionally, Goldman Sachs and/or Authorized Dealers are entitled to receive, under the Plans, a separate fee for personal and account maintenance services equal to, on an annual basis, 0.25% of the Fund’s average daily net assets attributable to Class B or Class C Shares.

The Trust, on behalf of the Fund, has adopted a Service Plan and Shareholder Administration Plan. These Plans allow for Service Shares to compensate service organizations for providing varying levels of personal and account administration and shareholder administration services to their customers who are beneficial owners of such shares. The Service Plan and Shareholder Administration Plan provide for compensation to the service organizations in an amount up to 0.25% and 0.25%, respectively (on an annualized basis), of the average daily net asset value of the Service Shares.

Goldman Sachs also serves as the Transfer Agent of the Fund for a fee. Fees charged for such Transfer Agency services are calculated daily and payable monthly at an annual rate as follows: 0.19% of the average daily net assets for Class A, Class B and Class C Shares and 0.04% of the average daily net assets for Institutional and Service Shares.

At June 30, 2003, the amounts the Fund owed to affiliates were approximately $370,000, $251,000 and $67,000 for Management, Distribution and Service and Transfer Agent fees, respectively.

June 30, 2002 (Unaudited)

4. PORTFOLIO SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS

The cost of purchases and proceeds of sales and maturities of securities (excluding short-term investments) for the six months ended June 30, 2003, were $56,949,025 and $97,649,688, respectively.

5. SECURITIES LENDING

Pursuant to exemptive relief granted by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the terms and conditions contained therein, the Fund may lend its securities through its securities lending agent, Boston Global Advisers (BGA) — a wholly owned subsidiary of Goldman Sachs, to certain qualified borrowers including Goldman Sachs. The loans are collateralized at all times with cash and/or securities with a market value at least equal to the securities on loan. As with the other extensions of credit, the Fund bears the risk of delay on recovery or loss of rights in the collateral should the borrower of the securities fail financially.

Both the Fund and BGA receive compensation relating to the lending of the Fund's securities. The amount earned by the Fund for the six months ended June 30, 2003 is reported parenthetically on the Statement of Operations. A portion of this amount, $10,730, represents compensation earned by the Fund from lending its securities to Goldman Sachs. For the six months ended June 30, 2003, BGA earned fees of approximately $4,000 as securities lending agent for the Fund. At June 30, 2003, the Fund loaned securities having a market value of $39,222,952 collateralized by cash in the amount of $41,375,600, which was invested in the Enhanced Portfolio of Boston Global Investment Trust, a Delaware Statutory Trust. The Enhanced Portfolio is exempt from registration under Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and is managed by GSAM. The Enhanced Portfolio invests in high quality money market instruments. The Fund bears the risk of incurring a loss from the investment of cash collateral due to either credit or market factors. At June 30, 2003, the amount payable to Goldman Sachs upon return of securities loaned is $20,494,400.

6. LINE OF CREDIT FACILITY

The Fund participates in a $350,000,000 committed, unsecured revolving line of credit facility. Under the most restrictive arrangement, the Fund must own securities having a market value in excess of 400% of the total bank borrowings. This facility is to be used solely for temporary or emergency purposes. The interest rate on borrowings is based on the federal funds rate. This facility also requires a fee to be paid by the Fund based on the amount of the commitment which has not been utilized. During the six months ended June 30, 2003, the Fund did not have any borrowings under this facility.

7. JOINT REPURCHASE AGREEMENT ACCOUNT

The Fund, together with other registered investment companies having management agreements with GSAM or its affiliates, transfers uninvested cash into joint accounts, the daily aggregate balance of which is invested in one or more repurchase agreements.

7. JOINT REPURCHASE AGREEMENT ACCOUNT (continued)

At June 30, 2003, the Fund had an undivided interest in the following Joint Repurchase Agreement Account II which equaled $6,400,000 in principal amount. At June 30, 2003, the following repurchase agreements held in this joint account were fully collateralized by Federal Agency obligations.

8. ADDITIONAL TAX INFORMATION

As of the most recent fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, the Funds' capital loss carryforward and certain timing differences on a tax basis were as follows:

Timing differences (post October losses)	(17,099,229)
Capital loss carryforward	(1,289,165,036)
Capital loss carryforward years of expiration	2009-2010

At June 30, 2003, the Fund's aggregate security unrealized gains and losses based on a cost for U.S. federal income tax purposes was as follows (using prior year tax information):

Tax Cost	$ 616,223,665
Gross unrealized gain	48,930,749
Gross unrealized loss	(222,465,821)
Net unrealized security gain (loss)	$ (173,535,072)

The difference between book-basis and tax-basis unrealized gains (losses) is primarily attributable to wash sales and the timing of recognizing gains on appreciated stock for tax purposes pursuant to the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997.

(a) Assumes investment at the net asset value at the beginning of the period, reinvestment of all dividends and distributions, a complete redemption of the investment at the net asset value at the end of the period and no sales or redemption charges. Total return would be reduced if a sales or redemption charge were taken into account. Total returns for periods less than one full year are not annualized. Returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or the redemption of Fund shares.

(b) Annualized.

The reports concerning the Fund included in this shareholder report may contain certain forward-looking statements about the factors that may affect the performance of the Fund in the future. These statements are based on Fund management's predictions and expectations concerning certain future events and their expected impact on the Fund, such as performance of the economy as a whole and of specific industry sectors, changes in the levels of interest rates, the impact of developing world events, and other factors that may influence the future performance of the Fund. Management believes these forward-looking statements to be reasonable, although they are inherently uncertain and difficult to predict. Actual events may cause adjustments in portfolio management strategies from those currently expected to be employed.

This material is not authorized for distribution to prospective investors unless preceded or accompanied by a current Prospectus. Investors should read the Prospectus carefully before investing or sending money.

Holdings are as of June 30, 2003 and are subject to change in the future. Fund holdings of stocks or bonds should not be relied on in making investment decisions and should not be construed as research or investment advice regarding particular securities.

Emerging markets securities are volatile. They are subject to substantial currency fluctuations and sudden economic and political developments. At times, the Fund may be unable to sell certain of its portfolio securities without a substantial drop in price, if at all.

The Fund's participation in the initial public offering (IPO) market during its initial start-up phase may have had a magnified impact on the Fund's performance because of its relatively small asset base at start-up. As the Fund's assets grow, it is probable that the effect of IPO investments on the Fund's performance will not be as significant.

The Fund is subject to greater risk of loss as a result of adverse economic business or other developments than if its investments were diversified across different industry sectors. Securities of issuers held by the Fund may lack sufficient market liquidity to enable the Fund to sell the securities at an advantageous time or without a substantial drop in price.

The Fund invests in "Internet Tollkeeper" companies, and its net asset value may fluctuate substantially over time. Because the Fund concentrates its investments in Internet Tollkeeper companies, the Fund's performance may be substantially different from the returns of the broader stock market and of "pure" Internet funds. Past performance is not an indication of future returns and, depending on the timing of your investment, you may lose money even if the Fund's past returns have been positive.

Goldman, Sachs & Co. is the distributor of the Fund.

Goldman Sachs Internet Tollkeeper Fund is a service mark of Goldman, Sachs & Co.
