1. A credit rating reflects the creditworthiness of HSBC USA Inc. and is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities, and it may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organization. The notes themselves have not been independently rated. Each rating should be evaluated independently of any other rating.

Notes Description

The notes provide the investor with a 200% Upside Participation Rate on the positive performance of the S&P 500® Index subject to the Maximum Cap. The notes are not principal protected but offer protection for the first 10% decline in the level of the Index. Accordingly, if the Reference Return is negative, the investor may lose up to 90% of their initial investment in the notes.

This note is applicable for those investors who have a moderately bullish view on the performance of the S&P 500® Index and desire enhanced upside participation subject to the Maximum Cap. Because the note provides first loss protection of 10%, the investor should be willing and able to sustain up to a 90% loss of their initial investment. Due to the Buffer Value, an investor would sustain a 90% loss of their initial investment if the Final Level declines to zero. The terms and conditions of the notes apply only if the notes are held to maturity. Any payment on the notes is subject to the creditworthiness of the Issuer.

Highlights

- Enhanced Growth Potential: The potential for 200% upside participation in the underlying subject to a Maximum Cap that will be between 10.00% and 15.00% (to be determined on the Pricing Date) at maturity.
- Buffer Protection: At maturity, investors will not experience any loss associated with the first 10% of decline in the level of the Index.

INVESTOR SUITABILITY

The notes may be suitable for you if:

- You seek an investment with an enhanced return linked to the potential positive performance of the Index and you believe the level of the Index will increase over the term of the notes.
- You are willing to invest in the notes based on the Maximum Cap indicated herein (the actual Maximum Cap will be determined on the Pricing Date) which may limit your return at maturity.
- You are willing to make an investment that is exposed to the negative Reference Return on a 1 to 1 basis for each percentage point that the Reference Return is less than -10%.
- You are willing to forego dividends or other distributions paid to holders of stocks comprising the Index.
- You do not seek current income from this investment.
- You do not seek an investment for which there is an active secondary market.
- You are willing to hold the notes to maturity.
- You seek an investment whose return is linked to the Index, which is an index that represents companies in a variety of market sectors.
- You are comfortable with the creditworthiness of HSBC, as issuer of the notes.

The notes may not be suitable for you if:

- You believe the Reference Return will be negative on the final valuation date or that the Reference Return will not be sufficiently positive to provide you with your desired return.
- You believe the level of the Index will decrease over the term of the notes.
- You are unwilling to make an investment that is exposed to the negative Reference Return on a 1 to 1 basis for each percentage point that the Reference Return is below -10%.
- You seek an investment that is 100% principal protected.
- You prefer the lower risk, and therefore accept the potentially lower returns, of fixed income investments with comparable maturities issued by HSBC or another issuer with a similar credit rating.
- You prefer to receive the dividends or other distributions paid on any stocks included in the Index.
- You seek current income from your investment.
- You seek an investment for which there will be an active secondary market.
- You are unable or unwilling to hold the notes to maturity.
- You do not seek an investment whose return is linked to the Index, which is an index that represents companies in a variety of market sectors.
- You are not willing or are unable to assume the credit risk associated with HSBC, as issuer of the notes.

CERTAIN RISKS AND CONSIDERATIONS

Purchasing the notes involves a number of risks. It is suggested that prospective investors reach a purchase decision only after careful consideration with their financial, legal, accounting, tax and other advisors regarding the suitability of the notes in light of their particular circumstances. See "Risk Factors" in the accompanying Free Writing Prospectus and Prospectus Supplement for a discussion of risks, which include:

- The notes are not fully principal protected and you may lose up to 90% of your initial investment.
- Your gain on the notes at maturity, if any, may not reflect the full performance of the Index.
- There may not be an active secondary trading market in the notes and notes should be viewed as long term instruments.
- Return on the notes is linked to the performance of common stocks traded on the U.S. securities markets and may be positive or negative.
- Movements in the level of the Index may affect whether or not you receive your full principal back.
- Your yield may be less than that of a standard debt security of comparable maturity.
- You will not receive any periodic interest payments on the notes.
- The notes will not be listed or displayed on any securities exchange.
- The notes are subject to significant risks not associated with conventional fixed rate or floating rate debt securities.
- These notes are not bank deposits and are not insured by the FDIC or any other U.S. federal or state government agency.

This Free Writing Prospectus relates to one note offering linked to the Index identified on the cover page. We reserve the right to withdraw, cancel or modify any offering and to reject orders in whole or in part. Although the note offering relates only to the Index identified on the cover page, you should not construe that fact as a recommendation of the merits of acquiring an investment linked to the Index or as to the suitability of an investment in the notes.

You should read this document together with the Prospectus dated April 2, 2009, the Prospectus Supplement dated April 9, 2009, the Product Supplement dated April 9, 2009 and the Free Writing Prospectus dated August 1, 2009. You should carefully consider, among other things, the matters set forth in "Risk Factors" beginning on page S-3 of the Prospectus Supplement, as the notes involve risks not associated with conventional debt securities. We urge you to consult your investment, legal, tax, accounting and other advisers before you invest in the notes. As used herein, references to "HSBC", "we", "us" and "our" are to HSBC USA Inc.
