The purchaser of a security will acquire a senior unsecured debt security of HSBC USA Inc. linked to a single Reference Asset. Although the offering of securities relates to the Reference Asset identified on the cover page, you should not construe that fact as a recommendation as to the merits of acquiring an investment linked to the Reference Asset or any component security included in the Reference Asset or as to the suitability of an investment in the securities.

You should read this document together with the prospectus dated April 2, 2009, the prospectus supplement dated April 9, 2009 and the underlying supplement no. 3 dated October 22, 2010. If the terms of the securities offered hereby are inconsistent with those described in the accompanying prospectus supplement, prospectus or underlying supplement, the terms described in this pricing supplement shall control. You should carefully consider, among other things, the matters set forth in "Risk Factors" beginning on page PS-6 of this pricing supplement, page S-3 of the prospectus supplement and page US3-1 of underlying supplement no. 3, as the securities involve risks not associated with conventional debt securities. We urge you to consult your investment, legal, tax, accounting and other advisors before you invest in the securities. As used herein, references to the "Issuer", "HSBC", "we", "us" and "our" are to HSBC USA Inc.

PAYMENT AT MATURITY

On the Maturity Date, for each security you hold, we will pay you the Final Settlement Value, which is an amount in cash, as described below:

If a Trigger Event has not occurred and the Final Level is greater than the Initial Level, you will receive a cash payment on the Maturity Date, per $1,000 Principal Amount of securities, equal to the lesser of:

- (a) $$1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Reference Return})$; and
- (b) $$1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Maximum Upside Cap})$.

If a Trigger Event has not occurred and the Final Level is less than or equal to the Initial Level, you will receive a cash payment on the Maturity Date, per $1,000 Principal Amount of securities, calculated as follows:

$$$1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Absolute Reference Return}).$$

If a Trigger Event has occurred, you will receive a cash payment on the Maturity Date, per $1,000 Principal Amount of securities, equal to the lesser of:

- (a) $$1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Reference Return})$; and
- (b) $$1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Maximum Upside Cap})$.

Under these circumstances, if a Trigger Event has occurred, you will lose 1% of the Principal Amount of your securities for each percentage point that the Final Level has decreased from the Initial Level. For example, if a Trigger Event has occurred and the Reference Return is -25%, you will suffer a 25% loss and receive 75% of the Principal Amount. If a Trigger Event has occurred and the Final Level is less than the Initial Level, you may lose up to 100% of your investment.

Interest

The securities will not pay periodic interest.

Calculation Agent

We or one of our affiliates will act as calculation agent with respect to the securities.

Indenture and Trustee

Notwithstanding anything contained in the accompanying prospectus supplement to the contrary, the securities will be issued under the senior indenture dated March 31, 2009, between HSBC USA Inc., as Issuer, and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as trustee. Such indenture has substantially the same terms as the indenture described in the accompanying prospectus supplement.

Paying Agent

Notwithstanding anything contained in the accompanying prospectus supplement to the contrary, HSBC Bank USA, N.A. will act as paying agent with respect to the securities pursuant to a Paying Agent and Securities Registrar Agreement dated June 1, 2009, between HSBC USA Inc. and HSBC Bank USA, N.A.

Reference Sponsor

Standard and Poor's Financial Services LLC, a subsidiary of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc., is the reference sponsor.

INVESTOR SUITABILITY

The securities may be suitable for you if:

- ▶ You seek an investment with a return linked to the performance of the Reference Asset and you believe the level of the Reference Asset will increase over the term of the securities, but not by more than the Maximum Upside Cap, or will moderately decrease without a Trigger Event occurring.
- ▶ You are willing to invest in the securities based on the Maximum Upside Cap indicated herein, which may limit your return at maturity.
- ▶ You are willing to make an investment that is exposed to any negative Reference Return on a 1-to-1 basis if a Trigger Event occurs.
- ▶ You do not seek current income from your investment.
- ▶ You do not seek an investment for which there is an active secondary market.
- ▶ You are willing to hold the securities to maturity.
- ▶ You are comfortable with the creditworthiness of HSBC, as issuer of the securities.

The securities may not be suitable for you if:

- ▶ You believe the Official Closing Level of the Reference Asset will be negative by more than the Trigger Level during the Observation Period or that the Reference Return or Absolute Reference Return will not be sufficiently positive to provide you with your desired return.
- ▶ You are unwilling to invest in the securities based on the Maximum Upside Cap indicated herein, which may limit your return at maturity.
- ▶ You are unwilling to make an investment that is exposed to any negative Reference Return on a 1-to-1 basis if a Trigger Event occurs.
- ▶ You seek an investment that has a guaranteed return of principal.
- ▶ You prefer the lower risk, and therefore accept the potentially lower returns, of conventional debt securities with comparable maturities issued by HSBC or another issuer with a similar credit rating.
- ▶ You seek current income from your investment.
- ▶ You seek an investment for which there will be an active secondary market.
- ▶ You are unable or unwilling to hold the securities to maturity.
- ▶ You are not willing or are unable to assume the credit risk associated with HSBC, as issuer of the securities.

RISK FACTORS

We urge you to read the section “Risk Factors” on page S-3 in the accompanying prospectus supplement and on page US3-1 of underlying supplement no. 3. Investing in the securities is not equivalent to investing directly in any of the stocks comprising the Reference Asset. You should understand the risks of investing in the securities and should reach an investment decision only after careful consideration, with your advisors, of the suitability of the securities in light of your particular financial circumstances and the information set forth in this pricing supplement and the accompanying underlying supplement, prospectus supplement and prospectus.

In addition to the risks discussed below, you should review “Risk Factors” in the accompanying prospectus supplement and underlying supplement including the explanation of risks relating to the securities described in the following sections:

- ▶ “— Risks Relating to All Note Issuances” in the prospectus supplement; and
- ▶ “— Additional Risks Relating to Notes with an Equity Security or Equity Index as the Reference Asset” in the prospectus supplement.

You will be subject to significant risks not associated with conventional fixed-rate or floating-rate debt securities.

Your investment in the securities may result in a loss.

You will be exposed to the decline in the Reference Asset from the Pricing Date to the Final Valuation Date if a Trigger Event occurs and the Final Level is less than the Initial Level. Accordingly, if a Trigger Event has occurred and the Final Level is less than the Initial Level, your Payment at Maturity will be less than the Principal Amount of your securities. You may lose up to 100% of your investment at maturity if the Reference Return is negative.

The return on the securities is limited by the Maximum Upside Cap if the Reference Return is Positive and the Trigger Level if the Reference Return is Negative.

You will not participate in any appreciation in the level of the Reference Asset beyond the Maximum Upside Cap of 16.50%. If the Reference Return is positive, you will not receive a return on the securities greater than the Maximum Upside Cap. If the Reference Return is negative but a Trigger Event has not occurred, your return will be based on the Absolute Reference Return. However, because a Trigger Event occurs if the Official Closing Level on any scheduled trading day during the Observation Period is less than the Trigger Level, your return on the securities, if the Reference Return is negative and a Trigger Event does not occur, will never be greater than 40.00%.

If a Trigger Event occurs, you will lose the benefit of the Absolute Reference Return.

The Official Closing Level of the Reference Asset during the Observation Period may cause a Trigger Event to occur. If a Trigger Event occurs, your return will be based on the Reference Return and you will lose the benefit of the Absolute Reference Return. As a result, if a Trigger Event occurs, you could lose some or all of your initial investment if the Reference Return is negative, even if the Final Level of the Reference Asset is greater than the Trigger Level.

Credit risk of HSBC USA Inc.

The securities are senior unsecured debt obligations of the issuer, HSBC, and are not, either directly or indirectly, an obligation of any third party. As further described in the accompanying prospectus supplement and prospectus, the securities will rank on par with all of the other unsecured and unsubordinated debt obligations of HSBC, except such obligations as may be preferred by operation of law. Any payment to be made on the securities, including any contingent return of principal at maturity, depends on the ability of HSBC to satisfy its obligations as they come due. As a result, the actual and perceived creditworthiness of HSBC may affect the market value of the securities and, in the event HSBC were to default on its obligations, you may not receive the amounts owed to you under the terms of the securities.

The securities will not bear interest.

As a holder of the securities, you will not receive periodic interest payments.

Changes that affect the Reference Asset will affect the market value of the securities and the amount you will receive at maturity.

The policies of the reference sponsor of the Reference Asset concerning additions, deletions and substitutions of the constituents comprising the Reference Asset and the manner in which the reference sponsor takes account of certain changes affecting those constituents included in the Reference Asset may affect the level of the Reference Asset. The policies of the reference sponsor with respect to the calculation of the Reference Asset could also affect the level of the Reference Asset. The reference sponsor may discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of the Reference Asset. Any such actions could affect the value of the securities.

Please read and pay particular attention to the section “Additional Risks Relating to Notes with an Equity Security or Equity Index as the Reference Asset” in the accompanying prospectus supplement.

The securities are not insured by any governmental agency of the United States or any other jurisdiction.

The securities are not deposit liabilities or other obligations of a bank and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other governmental agency or program of the United States or any other jurisdiction. An investment in the securities is subject to the credit risk of HSBC, and in the event that HSBC is unable to pay its obligations as they become due, you may not receive the full Payment at Maturity of the securities.

Certain built-in costs are likely to adversely affect the value of the securities prior to maturity.

While the Payment at Maturity described in this pricing supplement is based on the full Principal Amount of your securities, the original issue price of the securities includes the placement agent's commission and the estimated cost of HSBC hedging its obligations under the securities. As a result, the price, if any, at which HSBC Securities (USA) Inc. will be willing to purchase securities from you in secondary market transactions, if at all, will likely be lower than the original issue price, and any sale prior to the Maturity Date could result in a substantial loss to you. The securities are not designed to be short-term trading instruments. Accordingly, you should be able and willing to hold your securities to maturity.

The securities lack liquidity.

The securities will not be listed on any securities exchange. HSBC Securities (USA) Inc. is not required to offer to purchase the securities in the secondary market, if any exists. Even if there is a secondary market, it may not provide enough liquidity to allow you to trade or sell the securities easily. Because other dealers are not likely to make a secondary market for the securities, the price at which you may be able to trade your securities is likely to depend on the price, if any, at which HSBC Securities (USA) Inc. is willing to buy the securities.

Potential conflicts.

HSBC and its affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of the securities, including acting as calculation agent and hedging our obligations under the securities. In performing these duties, the economic interests of the calculation agent and other affiliates of ours are potentially adverse to your interests as an investor in the securities. We will not have any obligation to consider your interests as a holder of the securities in taking any action that might affect the value of your securities.

Uncertain tax treatment.

For a discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of your investment in a security, please see the discussion under "U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations" herein and the discussion under "Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the accompanying prospectus supplement.

ILLUSTRATIVE EXAMPLES

The following table and examples are provided for illustrative purposes only and are hypothetical. They do not purport to be representative of every possible scenario concerning increases or decreases in the level of the Reference Asset relative to its Initial Level. We cannot predict the Official Closing Level of the Reference Asset at any time during the Observation Period or on the Final Valuation Date. The assumptions we have made in connection with the illustrations set forth below may not reflect actual events. You should not take this illustration or these examples as an indication or assurance of the expected performance of the Reference Asset or the return on your securities. With respect to the securities, the Final Settlement Value may be less than the amount that you would have received from a conventional debt security with the same stated maturity, including those issued by HSBC. The numbers appearing in the table below and following examples have been rounded for ease of analysis.

The table below illustrates the total payment on the securities on a $1,000 investment in the securities for a hypothetical range of performance for the Reference Return from -100% to +100%. The following results are based solely on the assumptions outlined below. You should consider carefully whether the securities are suitable to your investment goals. The following table and examples reflect the following:

- ▶ Principal Amount: $1,000
- ▶ Trigger Level: 60% of the Initial Level
- ▶ Maximum Upside Cap: 16.50%

Hypothetical Examples of the Final Settlement Value

The four examples below set forth a sampling of hypothetical Final Settlement Values based on the following:

- ▶ Principal Amount: $1,000
- ▶ Hypothetical Trigger Level: 720, which is 60% of the Hypothetical Initial Level (The actual Trigger Level is 744.78)
- ▶ Maximum Upside Cap: 16.50%
- ▶ Hypothetical Initial Level: 1,200 (The actual Initial Level is 1,241.30)

The examples provided herein are for illustration purposes only. The actual Final Settlement Value, if any, will depend on whether a Trigger Event occurs and the Reference Return of the Reference Asset. You should not take these examples as an indication of potential payments. It is not possible to predict whether a Trigger Event will occur and, if so, whether the Reference Return will be less than zero, or to what extent the Reference Return will be less than zero.

Example 1: A Trigger Event does not occur, and the Final Level is greater than the Initial Level.

Initial Level	Lowest Official Closing Level of the Reference Asset during the Observation Period	Final Level on Final Valuation Date
1,200	1,020 (85% of Initial Level)	1,380 (115% of Initial Level)

Since the Official Closing Level is never below the Trigger Level during the Observation Period, a Trigger Event does not occur.

Because the Initial Level is 1,200 and the Final Level is 1,380, the Reference Return is 15.00%, calculated as follows:

$$(1,380 - 1,200) / 1,200 = 15.00\%$$

Because the Reference Return is positive, and such Reference Return is less than the Maximum Upside Cap, the Final Settlement Value would be $1,150.00 per $1,000 Principal Amount of securities, calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} & $1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Reference Return}) \\ &= $1,000 + ($1,000 \times 15.00\%) \\ &= $1,150.00 \end{aligned}$$

Example 2: A Trigger Event occurs, and the Final Level is greater than the Initial Level.

Initial Level	Lowest Official Closing Level of the Reference Asset during the Observation Period	Final Level on Final Valuation Date
1,200	600 (50% of Initial Level)	1,560 (130% of Initial Level)

Since the Official Closing Level is below the Trigger Level during the Observation Period, a Trigger Event occurs.

Because the Initial Level is 1,200 and the Final Level is 1,560, the Reference Return is 30.00%, calculated as follows:

$$(1,560 - 1,200) / 1,200 = 30.00\%$$

Because the Reference Return is positive, and such Reference Return is greater than the Maximum Upside Cap, the Final Settlement Value would be $1,165.00 per $1,000 Principal Amount of securities, calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} & $1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Maximum Upside Cap}) \\ &= $1,000 + ($1,000 \times 16.50\%) \\ &= $1,165.00 \end{aligned}$$

Example 3: A Trigger Event does not occur, and the Final Level is less than the Initial Level.

Initial Level	Lowest Official Closing Level of the Reference Asset during the Observation Period	Final Level on Final Valuation Date
1,200	840 (70% of Initial Level)	900 (75% of Initial Level)

Since the Official Closing Level was not below the Trigger Level during the Observation Period, a Trigger Event does not occur.

Because the Initial Level is 1,200 and the Final Level is 900, the Reference Return is -25.00%, calculated as follows:

$$(900 - 1,200) / 1,200 = -25.00\%$$

Because the Reference Return is less than zero, the Final Settlement Value would be $1,250.00 per $1,000 Principal Amount of securities, calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} & $1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Absolute Reference Return}) \\ &= $1,000 + ($1,000 \times 25.00\%) \\ &= $1,250.00 \end{aligned}$$

Example 4: A Trigger Event occurs, and the Final Level is less than the Initial Level.

Initial Level	Lowest Official Closing Level of the Reference Asset during the Observation Period	Final Level on Final Valuation Date
1,200	660 (55% of Initial Level)	840 (70% of Initial Level)

Since the Official Closing Level was below the Trigger Level during the Observation Period, a Trigger Event occurs.

Because the Initial Level is 1,200 and the Final Level is 840, the Reference Return is -30.00%, calculated as follows:

$$(840 - 1,200) / 1,200 = -30.00\%$$

Because the Reference Return is less than zero, the Final Settlement Value would be $700.00 per $1,000 Principal Amount of securities, calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} & $1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Reference Return}) \\ &= $1,000 + ($1,000 \times -30.00\%) \\ &= $700.00 \end{aligned}$$

The historical levels of the SPX should not be taken as an indication of future performance, and no assurance can be given as to the Official Closing Level of the SPX on the Final Valuation Date or during the Observation Period.

VALUATION DATES

The first paragraph of the section "Valuation Dates" in the accompanying underlying supplement no. 3 will be replaced with the following paragraph:

If any date on which the valuation of an equity index is to be determined (a "valuation date") is not a scheduled trading day, then such valuation date will be the next succeeding day that is a scheduled trading day. If a market disruption event (as defined in the accompanying underlying supplement no. 3) exists on a valuation date, then such valuation date will be the next scheduled trading day for which there is no market disruption event. If such market disruption event continues for five consecutive scheduled trading days, then the fifth of such consecutive scheduled trading days will nonetheless be the valuation date and the calculation agent will determine, in its discretion, the index ending level on that date by means of the formula for, and method of calculating of, the index which applied just prior to the market disruption event, using the relevant exchange's traded or quoted price of each stock or other security in the index (or if an event giving rise to a market disruption event has occurred with respect to a stock or other security in the index and is continuing on that fifth scheduled trading day, the calculation agent's good faith estimate of the value for that stock or other security). If the Final Valuation Date is postponed, then the Maturity Date will also be postponed by the same number of business days and no interest will be paid in respect of such postponement.

U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

There is no direct legal authority as to the proper tax treatment of the securities, and therefore significant aspects of the tax treatment of the securities are uncertain as to both the timing and character of any inclusion in income in respect of the securities. Under one approach, a security should be treated as a pre-paid forward or other executory contract with respect to the Reference Asset. We intend to treat the securities consistent with this approach. Pursuant to the terms of the securities, you agree to treat the securities under this approach for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. Notwithstanding any disclosure in the accompanying prospectus supplement to the contrary, our special U.S. tax counsel in this transaction is Sidley Austin LLP. Subject to the limitations described therein, and based on certain factual representations received from us, in the opinion of our special U.S. tax counsel, Sidley Austin LLP, it is reasonable to treat a security as a pre-paid forward or other executory contract with respect to the Reference Asset. Pursuant to this approach, we do not intend to report any income or gain with respect to the securities prior to their maturity or an earlier sale or exchange and we intend to treat any gain or loss upon maturity or an earlier sale or exchange as long-term capital gain or loss, provided that you have held the security for more than one year at such time for U.S. federal income tax purposes. For a discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of your investment in a security, please see the discussion under "Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the accompanying prospectus supplement.

VALIDITY OF THE NOTES

In the opinion of Sidley Austin LLP, as counsel to the Issuer, when the notes offered by this pricing supplement have been executed and issued by the Issuer and authenticated by the trustee pursuant to the senior indenture referred in this pricing supplement, and delivered against payment as contemplated herein, such notes will be valid and binding obligations of the Issuer, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally, concepts of reasonableness and equitable principles of general applicability (including, without limitation, concepts of good faith, fair dealing and the lack of bad faith), provided that such counsel expresses no opinion as to the effect of fraudulent conveyance, fraudulent transfer or similar provision of applicable law on the conclusions expressed above. This opinion is given as of the date hereof and is limited to the Federal laws of the United States, the laws of the State of New York and the Maryland General Corporation Law as in effect on the date hereof. In addition, this opinion is subject to customary assumptions about the trustee's authorization, execution and delivery of the senior indenture and the genuineness of signatures and certain factual matters, all as stated in the letter of such counsel dated December 14, 2011, which has been filed as an exhibit to a Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the Issuer on December 14, 2011.
