Investment Description

- Linked to the iShares® MSCI Emerging Markets ETF
- Unlike ordinary debt securities, the securities do not pay interest or repay a fixed amount of principal at maturity. Instead, the securities provide for a Payment at Maturity that may be greater than, equal to or less than the Principal Amount, depending on the performance of the Reference Asset from its Initial Price to its Final Price.

The Payment at Maturity will be calculated as follows:

o If the price of the Reference Asset increases from the Initial Price to the Final Price:

You will receive the Principal Amount plus 150% participation in the upside performance of the Reference Asset, subject to a Maximum Cap of 47%

o If the price of the Reference Asset does not change, or decreases but the decrease is not more than 15%, from the Initial Price to the Final Price:

You will be repaid the Principal Amount (zero return)

o If the price of the Reference Asset decreases by more than 15% from the Initial Price to the Final Price:

You will receive less than the Principal Amount and will have 1-to-1 downside exposure to the decrease in the price of the Reference Asset in excess of 15%

- Investors may lose up to 85% of the Principal Amount
- All payments on the securities are subject to the credit risk of HSBC, and you will have no ability to pursue the issuers of shares of the Reference Asset or any securities held by the Reference Asset for payment; if HSBC defaults on its obligations, you could lose some or all of your investment
- No periodic interest payments or dividends
- No exchange listing; designed to be held to maturity

The Estimated Initial Value of the securities on the Pricing Date is $932 per security, which is less than the price to public. The market value of the securities at any time will reflect many factors and cannot be predicted with accuracy. The Estimated Initial Value does not represent a minimum price at which we or any of our affiliates would be willing to purchase your securities in the secondary market, if any, at any time. See "Risk Factors — The Estimated Initial Value of the securities, which was determined by us on the Pricing Date, is less than the price to public and may differ from the market value of the securities in the secondary market, if any" in the accompanying pricing supplement.

You should carefully consider, among other things, the matters set forth in "Risk Factors" in this term sheet, beginning on page PS-8 of the pricing supplement, page S-1 of the prospectus supplement and page S-1 of the ETF Underlying Supplement, as the securities involve risks not associated with conventional debt securities.

Investors should carefully review the accompanying pricing supplement, ETF Underlying Supplement, prospectus supplement and prospectus. Terms used herein without definition will have the meanings ascribed to them in the accompanying pricing supplement.

How the Payment at Maturity Is Calculated

On the Maturity Date, for each security you hold, we will pay you the Payment at Maturity, which is an amount in cash, calculated as follows:

- If the Reference Return is greater than zero, you will receive a cash payment on the Maturity Date, per $1,000 Principal Amount, equal to the lesser of:
 - (i) $$1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Reference Return} \times \text{Upside Participation Rate})$; and
 - (ii) $$1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Maximum Cap})$
- If the Reference Return is less than or equal to zero but greater than or equal to the Buffer Value, you will receive $1,000 per $1,000 Principal Amount (zero return)
- If the Reference Return is less than the Buffer Value, you will receive a cash payment on the Maturity Date, per $1,000 Principal Amount, calculated as follows:

$$$1,000 + [$1,000 \times (\text{Reference Return} + 15\%)]$$

If the Reference Return is less than the Buffer Value, you will lose some or a significant portion (up to 85%) of the Principal Amount.
