Important Information Regarding an Investment Portfolio Reorganization

The Board of Trustees of ING Investors Trust and ING Variable Funds have approved a proposal to reorganize the ING Core Growth and Income Portfolio (“Disappearing Portfolio”), which is currently open to new investments, with and into the ING Growth and Income Portfolio (“Surviving Portfolio”). The reorganization is subject to shareholder approval. If shareholder approval is obtained, the reorganization is expected to be effective after the close of business on or about December 2, 2011, resulting in a shareholder of the Disappearing Portfolio becoming a shareholder of the Surviving Portfolio. Each shareholder will thereafter hold shares of the Surviving Portfolio having equal aggregate value as shares of the Disappearing Portfolio, and the Disappearing Portfolio will no longer be available under the contract.

Prior to the date of reorganization, you may reallocate your contract value in the Disappearing Portfolio to another investment portfolio currently available under the contract. This reallocation will neither count as a transfer for purposes of our Excessive Trading Policy nor be subject to a transfer charge under the contract. Contract value remaining in the Disappearing Portfolio on the date of reorganization will be placed in the Surviving Portfolio. You may provide alternative allocation instructions by calling our Customer Contact Center at the number above.

As of the date of reorganization, any references in the prospectus to the Disappearing Portfolio as being available under the contract are deleted.
