IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING THE COMPANY

Information about the ING USA Annuity and Life Insurance Company found in your prospectus and/or Statement of Additional Information is deleted and replaced with the following:

ING USA Annuity and Life Insurance Company (“ING USA”) is an Iowa stock life insurance company, which was originally incorporated in Minnesota on January 2, 1973. Until May 7, 2013, ING USA was a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of ING Groep N.V. (“ING”), a global financial services holding company based in The Netherlands. ING USA is authorized to sell insurance and annuities in all states, except New York and the District of Columbia. The obligations under the Contract are solely the responsibility of ING USA Annuity and Life Insurance Company.

Pursuant to an agreement with the European Commission (“EC”), ING has agreed to divest itself of ING U.S., Inc. and its subsidiaries, including ING USA (collectively “ING U.S.”), which constitutes ING’s U.S.-based retirement, investment management and insurance operations. To effect this divestment, on May 7, 2013 ING completed an initial public offering (“IPO”) of the common stock of ING U.S. While ING is currently the majority shareholder of the common stock of ING U.S., pursuant to the agreement with the EC mentioned above ING is required to divest itself of at least 25% of ING U.S. by the end of 2013, more than 50% by the end of 2014 and 100% by the end of 2016.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING THE INVESTMENT PORTFOLIOS

Fund Name Change
Former Fund Name	New Fund Name
ING Invesco Van Kampen Equity and Income Portfolio	ING Invesco Equity and Income Portfolio

Open Investment Portfolios

During the accumulation phase, you may allocate your premium payments and contract value to any of the investment portfolios available under this Contract. You bear the entire investment risk for amounts you allocate to any investment portfolio, and you may lose your principal. There is no assurance that any of the funds will achieve their respective investment objectives. Shares of the funds will rise and fall in value and you could lose money by investing in the funds. Shares of the funds are not bank deposits and are not guaranteed, endorsed or insured by any financial institution, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Except as noted, all funds are diversified, as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

The following table reflects the investment portfolios that are, effective May 1, 2013, open and available to new premiums and transfers under your Contract along with each portfolio’s investment adviser/subadviser and investment objective. Please refer to the funds prospectuses for more detailed information. Fund prospectuses may be obtained free of charge from our Customer Service Center at P.O. Box 9271, Des Moines, Iowa 50306-9271 or call (800) 366-0066, or access the SEC’s website (<http://www.sec.gov>), or by contacting the SEC Public Reference Room at (202) 942-8090 or call (800)

SEC-0330. You may obtain copies of reports and other information about the separate account and the funds, after paying a duplicating fee, by sending an email request to publicinfo@sec.gov or by writing to the SEC Public Reference Room, 100 F Street, N.E., Room 1580, Washington, D.C. 20549-0102.
