PROPOSAL No. 2 - Ratification of Auditor

The Fund's audit committee has selected Ernst & Young LLP to serve as the Fund's independent registered public accountants for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2007. We traditionally ask our stockholders to ratify this selection even though your approval is not required. Further, even if you do not approve the selection of Ernst & Young, we will not replace them for this fiscal year due to the added expense and delay that would result from replacing them and selecting a new auditor. Instead, the audit committee will consider the negative vote as a direction to consider a different auditor next year.

Representatives of Ernst & Young are expected to be available during the Meeting. These representatives will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from the Fund's stockholders.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD: The Fund's board of directors recommends ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Fund's independent registered public accountants for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2007.

Audit Fees

The Fund estimates that the aggregate fees billed by its independent auditors for professional services rendered in connection with (i) the audit of the Fund's annual financial statements set forth in the Fund's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, and (ii) the review of the Fund's quarterly financial statements set forth in the Fund's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the three quarters ending on March 31, 2006, June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006, respectively, totaled approximately $135,000.

For the year ended December 31, 2005, these fees totaled approximately $140,300.

Tax Fees

The Fund paid approximately $16,000 for federal, state and local tax planning, accounting consultation, tax return preparation and related tax assistance during the year ended December 31, 2006, compared with approximately $17,400 for the year ended December 31, 2005.

All Other Fees

There were no other services rendered by the Fund's independent auditors for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005.

Financial Information, Systems Design and Implementation Fees

The Fund paid no fees in this category for the most recent fiscal year.

Approval of Independent Auditor Services and Fees

Our audit committee has reviewed and approved all fees charged by the Fund's independent auditors, and actively monitored the relationship between audit and non-audit services provided by Ernst & Young. The audit committee has concluded that the provision of services by Ernst & Young was consistent with the maintenance of the external auditors' independence in the conduct of its auditing functions. The Fund has adopted a policy that it would no longer engage its primary independent auditors for non-audit services other than "audit related services," as defined by the SEC, certain tax services, and other permissible non-audit services as specifically approved by the chairperson of the audit committee and presented to the full committee at its next regular meeting. The policy also includes limits on hiring partners of, and other professionals employed by, Ernst & Young to ensure that we satisfy the SEC's auditor independence rules.

Under the policy, the Fund's audit committee must pre-approve all services provided by the Fund's independent auditors and fees charged. The committee will consider annually the provision of audit services and, if appropriate, pre-approve certain defined audit fees, audit related fees, tax fees and other fees with specific dollar value limits for each category of service. During the year, the committee will periodically monitor the levels of fees charged by Ernst & Young and compare these fees to the amounts previously approved.

PROPOSAL No. 3 - Amendment and Restatement of the By-Laws of the Fund

The board of directors believes that the best interests of the Fund and its stockholders will be served by amending and restating the Fund's By-Laws. Approval of this Proposal No. 3 will constitute approval of the amended and restated by-laws attached as Exhibit A (the "Amended By-Laws").

The board of directors has approved the Amended By-Laws and recommends a vote for Proposal No. 3. The summary description of the proposed Amended By-Laws contained in this Proxy Statement is qualified by the full text of such proposed Amended By-Laws attached as Exhibit A. Unless otherwise specified, the proxy holders intend to vote FOR the adoption of the Amended By-Laws.

Reasons For and General Effect of Adoption of Amended By-Laws

Certain provisions of the current By-Laws of the Fund no longer are appropriate to the operations of the Fund. Initially, the Fund was operated to remain in compliance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), as amended, regarding a real estate investment trust ("REIT"). The acquisition of the capital stock of NTS/Lake Forest II Residential Corporation and NTS/Virginia Development Company caused the Fund to change its tax status to a "C" corporation under the Code as of January 1, 1997. The business of the Fund now consists of a single segment, the development and sale of residential subdivision lots. Many of the provisions in the By-Laws that related to preserving REIT status are, therefore, outdated and unnecessary.

The Amended By-Laws provide customary terms for a Delaware corporation, while retaining the requirement of a majority of Independent directors that exists in the current By-Laws.

Pursuant to our Certificate of Incorporation, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by stockholders present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting is required to adopt the Amended By-Laws.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD: The Fund's board of directors recommends approval of the Amended By-Laws.

In 1997, the Fund entered into a property management agreement relating to the two development projects it fully owns, Fawn Lake, Virginia, and Lake Forest II, Kentucky, and the Lake Forest, Orlando project, which is 50% owned by the Fund. Under this agreement, which expires on December 31, 2008, NTS Residential Management Company (“Residential Management”), an affiliate of NTS Corporation, manages the development, marketing and day-to-day operations of the properties. Residential Management is to be reimbursed for the actual cost of such operations and will receive an overhead recovery fee of 3.75% of the net cash flow of the properties. The Management Agreement also provides the opportunity for Residential Management to receive an incentive payment. If and when the cash flow becomes sufficient to bring distributions to stockholders, including those previously made, equal to the amount of the original investment, Residential Management will receive an incentive fee of 10% of the Net Cash Flow of the projects.

The original investment by the Fund’s stockholders was approximately $63,690,000. As of December 31, 2006, the Fund has made distributions of approximately $23,141,000.

Advances from Affiliates

As of December 31, 2006, accounts payable – affiliates of approximately $4,900,000 is owed to NTS Development Company and Residential Management for salary and overhead reimbursements. NTS Development Company and Residential Management have agreed to defer amounts owed to them by the Fund as of December 31, 2006, and those amounts will accrue during fiscal year 2007 through the period ending March 31, 2008, other than as permitted by the Fund’s cash flows. Management believes that NTS Development Company and Residential Management have the financial ability to defer amounts owed them by the Fund. There can be no assurances that this level of support will continue past March 31, 2008.

Stockholder Proposals

We have not received proposals from any of the Fund’s stockholders for inclusion in this year’s Proxy Statement. Stockholder proposals for the 2008 Annual Meeting of the Stockholders will not be included in the Fund’s Proxy Statement for that meeting unless received by the Fund at its executive office in Louisville, Kentucky, on or before December 29, 2007. These proposals must also meet the other requirements of the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission relating to stockholder proposals.

OTHER MATTERS

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the foregoing is the only business known to the Fund's management to be acted upon at the Meeting. However, if other matters not known to the Fund's management should properly come before the Meeting, the persons appointed by the signed proxy intend to vote in accordance with their best judgment.

The address of the corporation's registered office in the State of Delaware is 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, County of New Castle, 19801. The name of the corporation's registered agent at such address is The Corporation Trust Company. The corporation reserves the power to change its registered agent and registered office at any time.

Section 1.2 Principal Office. The principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation shall be located in Louisville, Kentucky. The board of directors is hereby granted full power and authority to change said principal office to another location, within or without the State of Delaware.

Section 1.3 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Delaware as the board of directors may from time to time determine or as the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II
STOCKHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held not less than thirty (30) days after delivery of the annual report, but within six (6) months after the end of each fiscal year unless extended due to the inability to hold the meeting within such time, in which case it shall be held as soon as practicable thereafter, for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. Stockholders must provide the corporation 90 days prior notice from the date of the annual meeting of any proposal to be presented at the meeting based upon the date set at the preceding meeting, or such later date, as announced. Directors shall continue in office for one year or until the election and qualification of their successors.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the stockholders may be called either by the chairman of the board upon his or her own motion, by the president, and by the chairman of the board at the request of: (a) a majority of the board of directors; (b) a majority of the Independent Directors; or (3) upon written request of stockholders who hold not less than ten percent (10%) of the outstanding shares of common stock for the purpose or purposes stated in the call of the meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders for the election of directors shall be held at the offices of the corporation, unless the board of directors shall by resolution, designate any other place of such meeting. Meetings of stockholders for any other purpose may be held at such place, within or without the State of Delaware, and at such time as shall be determined pursuant to Section 2.2 of this Article II, and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof. The board of directors may, in its sole discretion, determine that the meeting shall not be held at any place, but may instead be held solely by means of remote communication.

Section 2.4 Notice of Meetings. A written notice of each meeting of stockholders, stating the place if any, date and hour of the meeting, the means of remote communication, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting. Unless otherwise provided by the General Corporation Law of Delaware ("Delaware Law"), the notice shall be given not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, and, if mailed, shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, both directed to the stockholder at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation. No notice need be given to any person with whom communication is unlawful, nor shall there be any duty to apply for any permit or license to give notice to any such person. Notice given by electronic transmission and returned as undeliverable, shall not be deemed proper notice for purposes of this section.

Section 2.5 Waiver of Notice. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, with respect to any stockholder meeting, any stockholder who in person or by proxy shall have waived in written notice or any waiver by electronic transmission of the meeting, either before or after such meeting, or who shall attend the meeting in person or by proxy, shall be deemed to have waived notice of such meeting unless he attends for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 2.6 Quorum; Manner of Acting and Order of Business. Subject to the provisions of these by-laws, the Certificate of Incorporation and Delaware Law as to the vote that is required for a specified action, the presence in person, by proxy, or by electronic transmission of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of the corporation's stock entitled to vote, present in person, represented by proxy, or by electronic transmission, shall be binding on all stockholders of the corporation, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by law or the Certificate of Incorporation or these by-laws. The stockholders present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to do business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough stockholders to leave less than a quorum.

In the absence of a quorum, stockholders holding a majority of the shares present in person, by proxy, or by electronic transmission are entitled to vote, regardless of whether or not they constitute a quorum, or if no stockholders are present, any officer entitled to preside at or act as secretary of the meeting, may adjourn the meeting to another time and place. Any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting may be transacted at any adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present. No notice of an adjourned meeting need be given if the time, place, if any, thereof, and the means of remote communications, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such adjourned meeting, are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken except that, if adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days or if, after the adjournment, a new record date is fixed for the meeting, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given pursuant to Section 2.4 of this Article II.

Meetings of the stockholders shall be presided over by the chairman of the board, or in his absence by the president, or in his absence by a vice president, or in the absence of the foregoing persons by a chairman designated by the board of directors, or in the absence of such designation by a chairman chosen at the meeting. The secretary shall act as secretary of the meeting, but in his absence the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting. The order of business at all meetings of the stockholders shall be determined by the chairman. The order of business so determined, however, may be changed by vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present at the meeting in person or represented by proxy.

Section 2.7 Voting; Proxies. Each stockholder of record on the record date, as determined pursuant to Section 6.6 of Article VI, shall be entitled to one vote for every share registered in his name. However, all elections of directors shall be by written ballot, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation; if authorized by the board of directors, such requirement of a written ballot shall be satisfied by a ballot submitted by electronic transmission, provided that any such electronic transmission must either set forth or be submitted with information from which it can be determined that the electronic transmission was authorized by the stockholder or proxy holder. Each stockholder entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders or to express consent to or dissent from corporate action in writing or by electronic transmission without a meeting may authorize another person to act for him by proxy. No proxy shall be valid after three years from its date of execution, unless the proxy provides for a longer period.

Section 2.8 Inspectors of Election.

(a) In advance of any meeting of stockholders, the board of directors may appoint inspectors of election to act at each meeting of stockholders and any adjournment thereof. If inspectors of election are not so appointed, the chairman of the meeting may, and upon the request of any stockholder or his proxy shall, appoint inspectors of election at the meeting. The number of inspectors shall be either one or three. If appointed at the meeting upon the request of one or more stockholders or proxies, the vote of the holders of a majority of shares present shall determine whether one or three inspectors are appointed. In any case any person appointed as an inspector fails to appear or fails or refuses to act, the vacancy may be filled by appointment made by the directors in advance of the convening of the meeting or at the meeting by the person acting as chairman.

(b) The inspectors of election shall determine the outstanding stock of the corporation, the stock represented at the meeting and the existence of a quorum, shall receive votes, ballots, or consents, shall count and tabulate all votes and shall determine the result; and in connection therewith, the inspector shall determine the authority, validity and effect of proxies, hear and determine all challenges and questions, and do such other ministerial acts as may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all stockholders. If there are three inspectors of election, the decision, act or certificate of a majority is effective in all respects as the decision, act or certificate of all. If no inspectors of election are appointed, the secretary shall pass upon all questions and shall have all other duties specified in this Section.

(c) Upon request of the chairman of the meeting or any stockholder or his proxy, the inspector(s) of election shall make a report in writing of any challenge or question or other matter determined by him and shall execute a certificate of any fact found in connection therewith. Any such report or certificate shall be filed with the record of the meeting.

Section 2.9 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing or by electronic transmission, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in the State of Delaware, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded. Delivery made to the corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each stockholder who signs the consent and no written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within sixty (60) days of the earliest dated consent, delivered to the corporation in the manner required by this Section 2.9, Article II, written consents signed by a sufficient number of stockholders to take action are delivered to the corporation in such manner. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing.

(a) The action to elect directors by consent can satisfy the annual meeting requirement if either (i) the stockholder consent is unanimous or (ii) all directorships corresponding to those to which directors could have been elected if an annual meeting had been held are filled by the action by consent and only if all such directorships are vacant. Replacement of incumbent directors by less than unanimous stockholder consent will require their removal or resignation prior to the effectiveness of the consent action that substitutes for the election at the annual meeting.

(b) Telegram, cablegram or other electronic transmission consenting to an action to be taken and transmitted by a stockholder or proxy holder, or by a person or persons authorized to act for a stockholder or proxy holder, shall be deemed to be written, signed and dated for the purposes of this section, provided the transmission is delivered with information form which the corporation can determine (i) it was transmitted by the stockholder or proxy holder or by a person authorized to act for the holder and (ii) the date on which such stockholder or proxy holder or person authorized to act transmitted such telegram, cablegram, or electronic transmission. The date on which the electronic transmission is transmitted shall be deemed to be the date on which such consent was signed.

Section 2.10 Revocation of Consent. Any stockholder giving a written consent, or the stockholder's proxy holders, or a transferee of the shares or a personal representative of the stockholder or its respective proxy holder, may revoke the consent by writing or electronic transmission or transmissions received by the corporation prior to the time that written consents of the number of shares required to authorize the proposed action have been filed with the secretary of the corporation, but may not do so thereafter. Such revocation is effective upon its receipt by the secretary of the corporation.

Section 2.11 Electronic Notice. Any notice to stockholders given by the corporation under the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws shall be effective if given by a form of electronic transmission consented to by the stockholder to whom the notice is given. Any such consent shall be revocable by the stockholder by written notice to the corporation. Any such consent shall be deemed revoked if (1) the corporation is unable to deliver by electronic transmission two consecutive notices given by the corporation in accordance with such consent and (2) such inability becomes known to the secretary or an assistant secretary of the corporation or to the transfer agent, or other person responsible for the giving of notice; provided, however, the inadvertent failure to treat such inability as a revocation shall not invalidate any meeting or other action.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Number, Tenure and Qualifications.

(a) The number of directors of the corporation shall be not less than three (3) members and not more than nine (9) members, subject to increase as provided in Section 3.9 below. At least a majority of the directors shall at all times be Independent Directors (as defined below in Section 3.1(b)), except during the 60 day period following a vacancy in the board of directors during which period the board of directors may continue to conduct business on behalf of the corporation. Each director elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders or until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation or removal. The range in the authorized number of directors may be changed by majority vote of the stockholders, and the exact number of directors shall be fixed within the limits herein specified in these By-Laws. Directors need not be residents of the State of Delaware, or stockholders of the corporation. Each director shall hold office for a term of one year or until the election and qualification of his or her successor. Each director may be re-elected by the stockholders.

(b) “Independent Directors” shall mean the directors who meet the standards promulgated from time to time by the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) and set forth in the NYSE Listed Company Manual.

(c) “Advisor” shall mean NTS Advisory Corporation, a Delaware corporation, which shall serve as the investment advisor and administrator of the corporation, or any successor advisor selected by the directors or any person or entity to which the advisor subcontracts substantially all of its administrative functions.

(d) “Affiliated Directors” shall mean those directors who are not Independent Directors.

Section 3.2 Resignations. Any director may resign at any time by notice given in writing or by electronic transmission to the chairman of the board or to the president.

Section 3.3 Meetings. Meetings of the board of directors may be called by or at the request of the chairman of the board, the president or a majority of the directors. The person or persons authorized to call meetings of the board of directors may fix any place as the place for holding any meeting of the board of directors called by them. Meetings of the board of directors may be held within or outside the State of Delaware.

Section 3.4 Business of Meetings. Except as otherwise expressly provided in these by-laws, any and all business may be transacted at any meeting of the board of directors.

Section 3.5 Notice of Meetings. Notice of any meeting shall be given at least one (1) day previous thereto by prior written notice to each director at his principal place of business.

Section 3.6 Attendance by Telephone. Directors may participate in meetings of the board of directors by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all directors participating in the meeting can hear one another, and such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Section 3.7 Quorum and Manner of Acting; Adjournment. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board of directors and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board.

Section 3.8 Action Without a Meeting. Any action which could be taken at a meeting of the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if all of the director’s consent to the action in writing or by electronic transmission and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the board.

Section 3.9 Filling of Vacancies. A vacancy or vacancies in the board of directors shall exist when any previously authorized position of director is not then filled by a duly elected director, whether caused by death, resignation or removal, change in the authorized number of directors, or otherwise.

Vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled as follows: vacancies among the Independent Directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining Independent Directors, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Independent Director. Vacancies occurring among the Affiliated Directors shall be filled by the remaining Affiliated Directors, or by a sole remaining Affiliated Director, or by the Independent Directors if no Affiliated Directors remain. If at any time there shall be no Independent or Affiliated Directors in office, successor directors shall be elected by the stockholders. The directors so chosen shall hold office until the next annual election and until their successors are duly elected and qualified, unless sooner displaced. Until vacancies are filled, the remaining director or directors may exercise the powers of the directors hereunder.

In order that a majority of the directors shall at all times be Independent Directors, if, at any time, by reason of one or more vacancies, there shall not be such a majority, then within 60 days after such vacancy occurs, the continuing Independent Director or Directors then in office shall appoint a sufficient number of other persons who are Independent Directors, so that there shall be such a majority.

If at any time, by reason of death or resignation or other cause, the corporation should have no directors in office, then any officer or any stockholder or an executor, administrator, trustee or guardian of a stockholder, or other fiduciary entrusted with like responsibility for the person or estate of a stockholder, may call a special meeting of stockholders in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation or the by-laws, or may apply to the Court of Chancery for a decree summarily ordering an election as provided in Section 211 of Delaware Law.

The board of directors may designate one (1) or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee.

Section 3.13 Election. All elections of directors shall be by written ballot, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation; if authorized by the board of directors, such requirement of a written ballot shall be satisfied by a ballot submitted by electronic transmission, provided that any such electronic transmission must either set forth or be submitted with information from which it can be determined that the electronic transmission was authorized by the stockholder or proxy holder.

Section 3.14 Removal. Any director or the entire board of directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors, unless otherwise provided under Delaware Law or the Certificate of Incorporation.

To the extent permitted by Delaware Law and subject to any restrictions contained in the Certificate of Incorporation, the directors may declare and pay dividends upon the shares of its capital stock in the manner and upon the terms and conditions provided by Delaware Law and the Certificate of Incorporation.

Section 6.6 Record Dates. In order that the corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders, or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of shares or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of any meeting of stockholders, and not more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action.

A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the board of directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

In order that the corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing or by electronic transmission without a meeting, the board of directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors, and which date shall not be more than ten (10) days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors. In such case, those stockholders, and only those stockholders, who are stockholders of record on the date fixed by the board of directors shall, notwithstanding any subsequent transfer of shares on the books of the corporation, be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting of stockholders, or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to such corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of such dividend or other distribution or allotment of rights, or entitled to exercise rights in respect of any such change, conversion or exchange of shares or to participate in any such other lawful action.

Section 6.7 Transfers of Shares. Shares of the corporation may be transferred by delivery of the certificates therefore, accompanied either by an assignment in writing on the back of the certificates, or by written power of attorney to sell, assign and transfer the same, signed by the record holder thereof; but no transfer shall affect the right of the corporation to pay any distribution upon the shares to the holder of record thereof, or to treat the holder of record as the holder in fact thereof for all purposes, and no transfer shall be valid, except between the parties thereto, until such transfer shall have been made upon the books of the corporation.

Section 6.8 Repurchase of Shares on Open Market. The corporation may purchase its shares on the open market and invest its assets in its own shares, provided that in each case the consent of the board of directors, including a majority of the Independent Directors, shall have been obtained.

ARTICLE VII
INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

Section 7.1 Definitions. For the purposes of this Article VII the following definitions shall apply:

“Agent” means any person who: (i) is or was an employee or other agent of the corporation as determined from time to time by the board of directors; or (ii) is or was serving at the request of the corporation as an employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (“enterprise”); or (iii) was an employee or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation.

“Director” means any such person as defined by Article III of these by-laws.

“Officer” means any such person as defined by Article IV of these by-laws.

“Predecessor corporation” shall include any constituent corporations (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers and agents, so that any person who is or was an officer, director or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as an officer, director or agent of another enterprise, shall stand in the same position under and subject to the provisions of this Article VII (including, without limitation, the provisions of Section 5 of this Article VII) with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as he would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

“Proceeding” means any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether internal or external to the corporation.

“Expenses” includes, without limitation, attorneys’ fees and any expenses of establishing a right to indemnification under this Article VII.

“Losses” mean the total amount which the agent becomes legally obligated to pay in connection with any proceeding, including judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and expenses.

Section 7.2 Actions Giving Rise to Indemnification. The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to, or otherwise becomes involved in, any Proceeding by reason of the fact that he is or was an Officer or Director of the corporation and may at the discretion of the board of directors indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to, or otherwise becomes involved in, any Proceeding by reason of the fact that he is or was an Agent of the corporation against Losses paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such Proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any Proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in such a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 7.3 Successful Defense. To the extent that an Officer or Director of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any Proceeding referred to in Sections 7.2 of this Article VII, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith. To the extent that an Agent of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any Proceeding referred to in Sections 7.2 of this Article VII, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he may, at the discretion of the board of directors, be indemnified against Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

Section 7.4 Determination of Conduct. Any indemnification under Sections 7.2 of this Article VII, (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Officer, Director or Agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 7.2 of this Article VII. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of directors.

Section 7.5 Payment of Expenses in Advance. Expenses incurred by an Officer or Director in connection with a Proceeding shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Officer or Director to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this Article VII. Expenses incurred by an Agent in connection with a Proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Agent to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this Article VII.

Section 7.6 Indemnity Not Exclusive. The indemnification and advancement of Expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other provisions of this Article VII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of Expenses may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

Section 7.7 Insurance Indemnification. The corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was an Officer Director or Agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VII.

Section 7.8 Heirs, Executors and Administrators. The indemnification and advancement of Expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be an Officer or Director and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person. The indemnification and advancement of Expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VII may, at the discretion of the board of directors, continue as to a person who has ceased to be an Agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 7.9 Further Amendment. Notwithstanding any provision in this Article VII to the contrary, in the event the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware is either amended to provide, or interpreted by judicial or other binding legal decision to provide, broader indemnification rights than those contained herein, such broader indemnification rights shall be provided to any and all persons entitled to be indemnified pursuant to the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the intent of this provision being to permit the corporation to indemnify, to the full extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, persons whom it may indemnify thereunder.

ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENTS

Section 8.1 By the Stockholders. These By-Laws may be amended or repealed by the stockholders at a meeting called for that purpose upon the vote, or written consent, of a majority of outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, and in any manner not inconsistent with any provision of law or of the Certificate of Incorporation, except that any amendment which would change any rights with respect to any class of securities of the corporation, by reducing the amount payable thereon upon liquidation of the corporation, or by diminishing or eliminating any voting rights pertaining thereto, may only be made upon the vote or written consent of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding securities of such class, except as provided in Section 8.2.

Section 8.2 By the Directors. A majority of the directors (including a majority of the Independent Directors), without the vote or consent of stockholders, may at any time amend these By-Laws to the extent deemed by the directors in good faith to be necessary to clarify any ambiguities or correct any inconsistencies.

ARTICLE IX RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The corporation shall not engage in a transaction with a related party or its affiliates, except to the extent that such transaction has, after disclosure of such affiliation, been approved or ratified by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Independent Directors after a determination by the Independent Directors that:

- (i) the transaction is fair and reasonable to the corporation and its stockholders; and
- (ii) the terms of such transaction are at least as favorable as the terms of any comparable transactions made on an arm's-length basis.
