NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2020

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Roosevelt & Cross, Incorporated ("the Company"), founded in 1948, is registered as a broker dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), formerly the National Association of Security Dealers, Inc. The Company is a leading senior manager of both negotiated and competitively sold bond issues in New York State, New Jersey, and the New England States.

The Company specializes in the origination, structuring, underwriting, trading and sale of tax-exempt issues sold in the Northeast. The Company's principal office is in New York City, with branch offices in Buffalo, NY, East Hartford, CT, Warren, NJ, Providence, RI and Boston, MA.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which involve the application of accrual accounting; accordingly, the financial statements reflect all material receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are defined as highly liquid investments, consisting of money market fund investments and time deposits with original maturities of three months or less when acquired.

Securities Owned, State and Municipal Government Obligations

Investments in marketable debt securities owned and securities sold, not yet purchased, are carried at fair value, with unrealized gains and/or losses recognized in the current earnings.

Fair Value

Investments are reported at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 5 for discussion of fair value measurements.

ROOSEVELT & CROSS, INCORPORATED
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2020

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Due to/from Clearing Broker

The Company clears all of its brokerage transactions through a broker-dealer on a fully disclosed basis. Due to broker and Due from broker relates to obligations to the Company's clearing broker from a compilation of all securities activities.

Property and Equipment, Net

Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and amortization. The costs of additions and improvements are capitalized and expenditures for repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred. Fully depreciated assets are retained in property and depreciation accounts until they are removed from service. When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, their costs and related accumulated depreciation and amortization are removed from the accounts and the resulting gains or losses are included in operations. Depreciation of property and equipment is accounted for on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Amortization of leasehold improvements is calculated by the straight-line method over the shorter of the term of the related lease or the useful lives of the improvements.

Clearing Deposits

As of December 31, 2020, the Company had two security deposits. One is for $500,000 which is maintained by the clearing broker. The other is $50,118 for a security deposit for the Company's New York office lease.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

In accordance with FASB Accounting Standard Codification ("ASC") 360, long-lived assets, including property and equipment and intangible assets subject to amortization, are reviewed for impairment and written down to fair value whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying amount may not be recoverable through future undiscounted cash flows. An impairment loss is measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of a long-lived asset exceeds its fair value.

Redemption of the Company's Common Stock

The Company issues and redeems its shares of common stock to its employees at their book value, which approximates fair value determined in accordance with the Stockholder Agreement. The sales proceeds of shares redeemed to an employee by the Company is applied first to its par value, next to additional paid-in capital equal to the amount credited earlier on issuance to the employee based on a first-in first out basis, and the balance of the redemption amount if any, to retained earnings.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2020

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The guidance requires an entity to follow a five-step model to (a) identify the contracts(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligation in the contract, (c) determine the transactions price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies the performance obligation. In determining the transaction price, an entity may include variable consideration only to the extent that it is probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognized would not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is resolved.

Significant Judgments

Revenue from contracts with customers includes instances where the Company acts as an underwriter for business and government entities. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time, how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified, when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company's progress under the contract and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

ROOSEVELT & CROSS, INCORPORATED
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2020

Underwriting Income

The Company underwrites securities for business entities and governmental entities that want to raise funds through a sale of securities. This includes management placement fees associated with certain underwritings. Underwriting income is earned from the sale of the securities from the underwriting. Underwriting fees and income are both built into the underwriting and are recorded once all the bonds are sold. The transactions represent the performance obligation, which is the sale of the bonds. The Company recognizes its share of the revenue when all the securities are sold. The Company believes that this date is the appropriate point in time to recognize the revenue for securities underwriting transactions as there are no significant actions which the Company needs to take subsequent to this date.

Underwriting costs that are deferred under the guidance in FASB ASC 940-340-25-3 are recognized in expense at the time the related revenues are recorded.

Management Placement Fees Income

The fee income is related to certain underwritings where the Company is the lead underwriter. The fee is built into the underwriting at the time the underwriting is negotiated with the issuer. The fee is recorded when the underwriting is settled, after all the bonds are sold. The Company believes the performance obligation for providing management placement services is satisfied when the bonds are sold because the customer is receiving and consuming the benefits at that point.

Receivables and Contract Balances

Receivables arise when the company has an unconditional right to receive payment under a contract with a customer and are recognized when the cash is received. As of January 1, 2020, the receivables balance was $0.00. At December 31, 2020, there were receivables of $0.00 reported in the statement of Financial Condition.

Contract assets arise when the revenue associated with the contract is recognized prior to the Company's unconditional right to receive payment under a contract with a customer (i.e. unbilled receivables) and are derecognized when either it becomes a receivable or the cash is received.

Contract liabilities arise when customers remit contractual cash payments in advance of the Company satisfying its performance obligations under the contract and are derecognized when the revenue associated with the contract is recognized when the performance obligation is satisfied.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2020

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

As of January 1, 2020 and during the year, the Company had no contract asset or contract liabilities. As of December 31, 2020, the Company had no contract assets or contract liabilities.

RECEIVABLES FROM CLEARING ORGANIZATIONS

Effective January 1, 2020, the Company adopted ASC Topic 326, Financial Instruments- Credit Losses ("ASC 326"). ASC 326 impacts the impairment model for certain financial assets by requiring a current expected credit loss ("CECL") methodology to estimate expected credit losses over the entire life of the financial asset. Under the accounting update, the Company could determine there are no expected credit losses in certain circumstances (e.g., based on the credit quality of the client).

ASC 326 specifies that the Company adopt the new guidance prospectively by means of a cumulative- effect adjustment to the opening member's equity as of January 1, 2020. The Company recognized no adjustment upon adoption.

The Company's receivables from clearing organizations include amounts receivables from unsettled trades, accrued interest receivables and cash deposits. All of the Company's trades are cleared through National Financial Services LLC (NFS) and settled daily between NFS and the Company. Because of this daily settlement, the amount of unsettled credit exposures is limited to the amount owed to the Company for a very short period of time. The Company continually reviews the credit quality of its counter parties.

Reimbursement Expenses

Reimbursement expenses are expenses related to an underwriting when the Company is the lead underwriter. When the underwriting is settled, the underwriting expenses are recorded as income. The Company is a principal to these transactions because the Company obtains control of these services and combines them as part of delivering on its performance obligation.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to have its income taxed under Section 1362 (Sub-chapter S) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and applicable state statutes, which provide that in lieu of corporate income taxes, the stockholders include their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income or loss on their individual income tax returns. Accordingly, no provision for federal or regular state income taxes is reflected in the financial statement. However, the Company is subject to New York City General Corporation Tax and various minimum state filing fees for which provision has been made.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Income Taxes (Continued)

The stockholders and members of the Company have concluded that the Company is a pass-through entity and there are no uncertain tax positions that would require recognition in the financial statements. If the Company was to incur an income tax liability in the future, interest on any income tax liability would be reported as interest expense and penalties on any income tax liability would be reported as income taxes. The stockholders' conclusion regarding uncertain tax positions may be subject to review and adjustment at a later date based upon ongoing analyses of tax laws, regulations and interpretations thereof as well as other factors. Generally, federal and state authorities may examine the Company's tax returns for three years from the date of filing; consequently, the respective tax returns for years prior to 2016 are no longer subject to examination by tax authorities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Leases

The Company recognizes and measures its leases in accordance with FASB ASC 842, Leases. The Company is a lessee in several noncancellable operating leases for office space, computers and other office equipment. The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, at inception of a contract and when the terms of the existing contract are changed. The Company recognizes a lease liability and a right of use (ROL) asset at the commencement date of the lease. The lease liability is initially and subsequently recognized based on the present value of its future lease payments. Variable payments are included in the future lease payments when those variable payments depend on an index or a rate. The discount rate is the implicit rates if it is readily determinable or otherwise the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate. The implicit rates of our leases are not readily determinable and accordingly, we use our incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at the commencement date for all leases. The Company's incremental borrowing rate for a lease is the rate of interest it would have to pay on a collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms and in a similar economic environment. The ROU asset is subsequently measured throughout the lease term at the amount of the remeasured lease liability (i.e., present value of the remaining lease payments), plus unamortized initial direct costs, plus (minus) any prepaid (accrued) lease payments, less the unamortized balance of lease incentives received, and any impairment recognized. Lease cost for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

ROOSEVELT & CROSS, INCORPORATED
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 2- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

The Company has elected for all underlying assets to not recognize ROU assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease commencement, and do not include an option to purchase the underlying asset that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. We recognize lease cost associated with our short-term assets on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Other information related to leases as of December 31, 2020 is as follows:

Weighted average remaining operating lease term	5.18 Years
Weighted average discount rate of operating leases	7.0%

The components for lease costs for the year ended December 31, 2020 are as follows:

Total Operating lease cost	2,788,915

CARE LOAN PAYABLE

On April 20, 2020, the Company was granted a loan (the "Loan") from TD Bank, N.A. in the aggregated amount of $1,007,315, pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program (the "PPP") under Division A, Title 1 of the CARES Act and administered by the U.S. Small Business Administration ("SBA"), which was enacted March 27, 2020. The PPP loan is guaranteed by the SBA. The loan, which was in the form of a Note dated April 20, 2020 issued by the Company, matures on April 20, 2022 and bears interest at the rate of 1% per annum, payable monthly commencing on April 20, 2022. The Note may be prepaid by the Company at any time prior to maturity with no repayment penalties. Funds from the loan may be used for payroll costs, costs used to continue group healthcare benefits, mortgage payments, rent, utilities, and interest on other debt obligations incurred after February 15, 2020. The Company used a substantial portion of the Loan amount for qualifying expenses. Under the terms of the PPP, certain amounts of the Loan may be forgiven if they are used for qualifying expenses as described in the CARES Act (within the defined 8 or 24-week period after the loan was disbursed, or the "Covered Period"), the Company was eligible for the PPP loan at the time of application, and otherwise satisfied PPP requirements. The Company currently believes that $893,083 of the loan will be forgiven with $114,232 being repaid by the Company.

ECONOMIC RISKS

On January 30, 2020, the World Health Organization had declared COVID-19 to constitute a "Public Health of Emergency of International Concern". This pandemic has disrupted economic markets and the economic impact, duration and continued spread of the COVID-19 virus is uncertain at this time. The financial performance of the Company is subject to future developments related to the COVID-19 outbreak and possible government advisories and restrictions placed on the financial markets and business activities. The impact on financial markets and overall economy, all of which are highly uncertain, cannot be predicted. If the financial markets and/or overall economy are impacted for an extended period, the Company's financial results may be materially affected. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

NOTE 3- RECEIVABLES FROM JOINT ACCOUNTS

The Company acts as either the managing or co-managing underwriter of various underwriting issuances and subsequent sales of State and Municipal Obligations. The Company, as managing underwriter, enters the bid for the joint account and if awarded the bonds, maintains the records of the underwriting group. As managing underwriter, the Company purchases bonds from the issuer and in turn uses the bonds as collateral with its clearing broker for providing the funds. The securities held in the joint accounts are measured at fair value. See Note 5 for discussion of fair value measurements. At December 31, 2020, the amount advanced on behalf of joint account participants was $26,983.

NOTE 5 - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The Company accounts for marketable debt securities in accordance with FASB ASC 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures". FASB ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted observable quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC 820 are described below:

Basis of Fair Value Measurement

- |         |  |
|---------|--|
| Level 1 | Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities;  |
| Level 2 | Quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active, and model-based valuation techniques for which all significant assumptions are observable in the market. |
| Level 3 | Prices or valuations that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable.   |

A financial instrument's level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

The following table presents by level, within the fair value hierarchy the Company's investment assets at fair value, as of December 31, 2020. As required by FASB ASC 820, investment assets are classified in their entirety based upon the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Level 2 investment values are determined by supply and demand and the demand is driven by a myriad of factors some of which are credit rating, maturity, call or put features, sources of interest and principal payments and geopolitical risk. The values used by the Company for financial reporting purposes are based on management review of matrix pricing data which reflect the prices of bonds with similar interest rates, maturity and credit rating, and then make judgments based on that data along with assessment of the other factors above, not captured in matrix pricing, that affect the likely price that would be obtained upon sale.

In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. NOTE 9 - CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK (Continued)

NOTE 11 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

Operating Leases

The Company is obligated under various leases for office space located in Boston, MA, Providence, RI, Warren, NJ, Buffalo, NY and New York, NY. The leases range from one to seven years in duration.

These leases generally contain renewal options for periods ranging from two to five years. Because the Company is not reasonably certain to exercise some of these renewal options, the optional periods are not included in determining the lease term, and associated payments under these renewal options are excluded from lease payments. The Company's leases do not include termination options for either party to the lease or restrictive financial or other covenants. Payments due under the lease contracts include fixed payments plus, for many of the Company's leases, variable payments. The Company's office space leases require it to make variable payments for the Company's proportionate share of the buildings property taxes, insurance and common area maintenance. These variable lease payments are not included in lease payments used to determine lease liability and are recognized as variable costs when incurred.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Roosevelt & Cross, Incorporated

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Rule 15c3-3 Exemption Report pursuant to SEC Rule 17a-5, in which (1) Roosevelt & Cross, Incorporated (the "Company") identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3: (1) (2)(ii) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) the Company stated that it met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination or a review, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion or conclusion, respectively, on the Company's compliance with the applicable instructions of the Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2020. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion or conclusion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.
