1. Basis of Presentation

The condensed consolidated financial statements of AnnTaylor, Inc. (the "Company") are unaudited but, in the opinion of management, contain all adjustments (which are of a normal recurring nature) necessary to present fairly the financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

The results of operations for the 2000 interim period shown in this report are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected for the fiscal year.

Certain Fiscal 1999 amounts have been reclassified to conform to the Fiscal 2000 presentation.

Detailed footnote information is not included for the quarters ended October 28, 2000 and October 30, 1999. 3. Enterprise-wide Operating Information

The Company, through a subsidiary, is a specialty retailer of women's apparel, shoes, and accessories. Given the economic characteristics of the store formats, the similar nature of the products sold, the type of customer and method of distribution, the operations of the Company are aggregated into one reportable segment. The Company believes that its customer base consists primarily of relatively affluent, fashion-conscious women from the ages of 25 to 55, and that the majority of its customers are working women with limited time to shop.

Nine Months ended October 28, 2000 Compared to Nine Months ended October 30, 1999

The Company's net sales in the first nine months of 2000 increased to $889,196,000 from $787,436,000 in the first nine months of 1999, an increase of $101,760,000, or 12.9%. The increase is attributable to the opening of new stores, the expansion of existing stores and an increase in comparable store sales of 1.0%.

Gross profit as a percentage of net sales increased to 52.0% in the first nine months of 2000 from 51.7% in the first nine months of 1999.

Selling, general and administrative expenses, excluding certain nonrecurring expenses described below, were 40.1% of net sales in the first nine months of 2000, compared to 38.6% of net sales in the first nine months of 1999. Selling, general and administrative expenses for the first nine months of 2000 included approximately $5,700,000 of expenses relating to the development of an Internet e-commerce web site (an Online Store). Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales also reflected increases in tenancy expenses, and increases in Ann Taylor Loft store operations expenses, offset in part by leverage achieved on certain other expenses as a result of increased sales. The Company incurred a pre-tax nonrecurring charge of approximately $8,500,000 during the first quarter of fiscal 2000, in connection with an extensive review conducted with the Company's financial and legal advisors of various strategic approaches to enhance shareholder value.

As a result of the foregoing, the Company had operating income, after taking into account the nonrecurring charge, of $89,254,000, or 10.0% of net sales, in the first nine months of 2000, compared to operating income of $94,774,000, or 12.0% of net sales, in the first nine months of 1999. Amortization of goodwill was $8,280,000 in each of the first nine months of 2000 and 1999. Operating income, without giving effect to goodwill amortization, was $97,534,000, or 11.0% of net sales, in the 2000 period and $103,054,000, or 13.1% of net sales, in the 1999 period.

Interest income was $1,718,000 in the first nine months of Fiscal 2000 compared to $3,236,000 in the first nine months of Fiscal 1999. The decrease was primarily attributable to lower cash on hand as a result of a dividend to the Company's parent AnnTaylor Stores Corporation ("ATSC") to facilitate the repurchase by ATSC of shares of its common stock during the third and fourth quarters of Fiscal 1999.

Interest expense was $5,509,000 in the first nine months of Fiscal 2000 and $9,686,000 in the first nine months of Fiscal 1999. The decrease in interest expense was attributable to the net reduction in the Company's outstanding long term debt and other obligations and a decrease in the interest rate borne by the Company's remaining outstanding long term debt. During the second quarter of 1999, the intercompany note issued by the Company to ATSC in August 1998 was forgiven, and the Company's 8¾% Notes were redeemed. These transactions were completed using, in part, the proceeds from the issuance in June 1999 of the Note Payable to ATSC, which bears interest at a rate of 3.75% per annum.

The income tax provision was $36,878,000, or 43.2% of income before income taxes, in the 2000 period, compared to $38,570,000, or 43.8% of income before income taxes and extraordinary loss in the 1999 period. The effective income tax rate for both periods differed from the statutory rate primarily because of non-deductible goodwill amortization.

The redemption of the outstanding 8¾% Notes in the second quarter of Fiscal 1999 resulted in an extraordinary charge to earnings in the first nine months of Fiscal 1999 of $962,000.

As a result of the foregoing factors, the Company had net income of $48,585,000, or 5.5% of net sales, for the first nine months of 2000, compared to net income of $48,614,000, or 6.2% of net sales, for the first nine months of 1999.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

As previously disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 29, 2000 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 18, 2000, ATSC, the Company, certain current and former officers and directors of ATSC and the Company, and Merrill Lynch & Co. ("Merrill Lynch") and certain of its affiliates, are defendants in a purported class action lawsuit, originally filed on April 26, 1996, by certain alleged stockholders of ATSC in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. (Novak v. Kasaks, et al., No. 96 CIV 3073 (S.D.N.Y. 1996)). On November 9, 1998, the District Court issued an order granting the defendants' motion to dismiss with prejudice the amended complaint in this action, which was filed in April 1998, for its failure to plead fraud with particularity. On June 21, 2000, the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit vacated the dismissal of the amended complaint. The amended complaint relates to the period from February 3, 1994 through May 4, 1995 and asserts causes of action under Section 10(b) and Section 20(a) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder. The Court of Appeals held that the allegations of the amended complaint are sufficient to satisfy the standard for pleading intent under the federal securities laws, but expressed no view as to whether the allegations are sufficiently particularized. The Court of Appeals remanded the case to the District Court with instructions to allow plaintiffs to replead their complaint, and to reconsider whether plaintiffs' allegations are pled with sufficient particularity to satisfy the pleading standards of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The decision of the Court of Appeals applies only to plaintiffs' claims against ATSC, the Company and their former directors and officers. Merrill Lynch and its affiliates entered into a settlement with the plaintiffs, and plaintiffs withdrew their appeal of the dismissal of the amended complaint with respect to those defendants.

On or about September 19, 2000, ATSC and the Company and their former directors and officers filed a petition for a writ of certiorari in the United States Supreme Court seeking review and reversal of the decision of the Court of Appeals. This petition was denied on or about November 27, 2000.

Following the decision of the Court of Appeals, plaintiffs elected not to replead their amended complaint. On or about September 29, 2000, ATSC, the Company and their former directors and officers again moved to dismiss the amended complaint, arguing that it fails to plead fraud with sufficient particularity under the standards set forth by the Court of Appeals in its June 21, 2000 decision. The motion has been fully briefed and is pending before the District Court.

The Company continues to believe that the allegations in the amended complaint are without merit, and intends to continue to defend this action vigorously.
