Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, page F-2

Critical Accounting Policies, page F-5

Liabilities for Property and Casualty Claims and Claim Settlement Expenses, page F-5

1. We believe your disclosure in the Critical Accounting Estimates section of MD&A regarding the estimation of the reserve for loss and loss adjustment expenses could be improved to better explain the judgments and uncertainties surrounding this estimate and the potential impact on your financial statements. We believe in order to meet the principal objectives of MD&A this disclosure should enable the investor to understand 1) management's method for establishing the estimate; 2) whether and if so to what extent and why management has adjusted their assumptions used to determine the estimate from the assumptions used in the immediately preceding period and 3) the potential variability in the most recent estimate and the impact this variability may have on reported results, financial condition and liquidity. Please keep these points in mind in providing us your responses to comments listed below. Please provide us, in disclosure-type format, the following information for each material line of business and also consider providing any additional information, in disclosure-type format, to achieve this objective.

- a. Please expand your discussion regarding the methods you used to determine your reserve for loss and loss adjustment expense to include the following:
 1. Explain how the methods you use for your short-tail business differ from the methods you use for your long-tail business.
 2. Clarify which methods were used to record your reserves. Include why you selected each methodology over any of the other methodologies and whether the same methodology was used for all periods. Disclose the range of outcomes produced using these various methodologies.
 3. Describes the method you use to calculate the IBNR reserve for each material line of business. For example, we understand that some companies may calculate this reserve by estimating the ultimate unpaid liability first and then reducing that amount by cumulative paid claims and by case reserves, but there may be other methods as well.
- b. Describe management's policy, if any, for adjusting the liability for unpaid claims and claim adjustment expenses to an amount that is different than the amount determined by its actuaries.
 1. If such a policy exists, describe the method used by management to determine the adjustment and the extent to which it relies on objective versus subjective determinations. Such adjustments may include, but not be limited to, an incremental provision, a reduction in the liability, or a reversal of a previously recorded adjustment.
 2. If adjustments or reversals are made, include MD&A disclosure that identifies the amount of the adjustment or reversal, the method used by management to determine it, and the specific underlying reasons that explain why management believes the adjustment or reversal is necessary.
- c. It appears that you have significantly revised your provision for losses of insured events of prior years. Please provide the following to explain the reasons for your favorable development in 2005 and adverse development in 2003:

1. Identify and describe in reasonable specificity the nature and extent of a) new events that occurred or b) additional experience/information obtained since the last reporting date that led to the change in estimates.
 2. Ensure your disclosure clarifies the timing of the change in estimate such as why recognition occurred in the periods that it did and why recognition in earlier periods was not required.
- d. We note that you identify certain assumptions for the overall loss reserving process. Please identify and describe the key assumptions that materially affect the estimate of the reserve for loss and loss adjustment expenses for each line of business. In addition please disclose the following:
1. For each of your key assumptions quantify and explain what caused them to change from the assumptions used in the immediately preceding period. Please note that this discussion should supplement, rather than duplicate the disclosure provided responsive to Industry Guide 6.
 2. Explicitly identify and discuss key assumptions as of the latest balance sheet date that are premised on future emergence that are inconsistent with historical loss reserve development patterns and explain why these assumptions are now appropriate given the inconsistency identified.

Deferred Policy Acquisition Costs and Value of Acquired insurance in Force and Interest-Sensitive Life Products, page F-7

2. You provide some sensitivity analysis for targeted market performance. We note in your disclosure that other factors could also have a material impact on the amortization of these assets. Please provide to us in disclosure type format a revised discussion that includes the reasonably likely impact that each of the factors you discuss as critical in your disclosure would have. Please note that such sensitivity should be based on the reasonably likely differences not arbitrarily selected deviations. Please explain to us what the “valuations of annuity deferred policy acquisition costs” discussed on page F-18 are and how they affected this estimate.

Liquidity and Financial Resources

Contractual Obligations, page F-23

3. Please provide to us a revised table of contractual obligations that includes all of the obligations listed separately in the three tables on pages F-23, F-24, and F-25. For the information in the table on page F-25, please include this information on a gross basis instead of the current net presentation.

Financial Statements – December 31, 2005

Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows, page F-39

4. Please explain to us why you include “Net decrease in life policy account balances” within financing activities. Please provide us with the gross amounts and explain why it is appropriate to include this amount on a net basis instead of showing the gross increases and decreases separately.

Stock Based Compensation, page F-46

5. Please provide to us in disclosure type format a discussion of the reasons for accelerating the vesting of all outstanding options during the year ended December 31, 2004 as discussed in the last paragraph of this section.

Note 3 – Property and Casualty Unpaid Claims and Claim Expenses, page F-54

6. We note that your discussion here as well as in other portions of the documents makes references to the use an “independent actuarial consulting firm” in connection with your reserve balances. Please provide us with the name of the firm. Please confirm that if you reference an independent actuarial consulting firm in future filings that you will name the firm within the document.

Note 6 – Income Taxes, page F-63

7. Please provide to us in disclosure type format a more detailed discussion of the issues that were involved in the favorable resolution of the contingent tax liabilities discussed at the bottom of page F-64. Include specifically the circumstances that resulted in the original recording of the contingencies and the issues that were settled in the current year. Finally, please discuss whether any similar accruals exist related to other similar tax positions for periods that are still open with the IRS.

Note 14 – Unaudited Selected Quarterly Financial Data, page F-81

8. Please provide to us in disclosure type format an explanation for the significantly lower net income/loss in the third quarter of each year presented compared to the other quarters. Also include why the revenues for the third quarter of 2005 were lower than all other quarters presented.
