Item 1. Business

General

Mohawk Industries, Inc. ("Mohawk" or the "Company", a term which includes the Company and its subsidiaries, including its primary operating subsidiaries, Mohawk Carpet Corporation, Aladdin Manufacturing Corporation and Dal-Tile International Inc. ("Dal-Tile")) is the leading producer of floorcovering products for residential and commercial applications in the United States. The Company is the second largest carpet and rug manufacturer, and a leading manufacturer, marketer and distributor of ceramic tile and natural stone, in the United States. The Company had annual net sales in 2003 in excess of $5.0 billion.

The Company has two operating segments, the Mohawk segment and the Dal-Tile segment. The Mohawk segment sells and distributes its product lines, which include broadloom carpet, rugs, pad, ceramic tile, hardwood, vinyl and laminate through independent floor covering retailers, home centers, mass merchandisers, department stores, commercial dealers and commercial end users. The Dal-Tile segment product lines include ceramic tile, porcelain tile and stone products sold through company-operated sales service centers, independent distributors and home center retailers. Selected financial information for the Mohawk and Dal-Tile segments is set forth in Note 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Through the Company's Mohawk segment, the Company designs, manufactures and markets carpet and rugs in a broad range of colors, textures and patterns and is a leading producer of woven and tufted broadloom carpet and rugs for residential and commercial applications. The Company also markets and distributes hardwood, laminate, vinyl and ceramic tile under its hardsurface line. The Company positions its products in all price ranges and emphasizes quality, style, performance and service. The Company is widely recognized through its premier brand names, which include "Mohawk," "Aladdin," "Mohawk Home," "Bigelow," "Custom Weave," "Durkan," "Goodwin Weavers," "Helios," "Horizon," "Karastan," "Lees," "Newmark Rug," "World" and "WundaWeve." The Company markets and distributes its carpet and rug products through over 34,000 customers, which include primarily independent carpet retailers, home centers, mass merchandisers, department stores, commercial dealers and commercial end users. Some products are also marketed through private labeling programs. The Company's carpet and rug operations are vertically integrated from the extrusion of resin and post-consumer plastics into fiber, to the conversion of fiber into yarn and to the manufacture and shipment of finished carpet and rugs.

Through the Company's Dal-Tile segment, the Company designs, manufactures and markets a broad line of wall and floor tile products used in the residential and commercial markets for both new construction and remodeling. Most of the Company's ceramic tile products are marketed under the "Dal-Tile" and "American Olean" brand names. The Company's ceramic tile business is organized into three strategic business channels: company-operated sales service centers, independent distributors and home center retailers. The Company maintains over 240 sales service centers in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico. The Company's independent distributor unit distributes the American Olean brand through approximately 200 independent distributor locations serving a variety of residential and commercial customers. The Company's home center retailer unit supplies products to more than 2,000 home center retail outlets operating in the do-it-yourself and buy-it-yourself markets. Each business unit has a dedicated sales force supporting that unit.

On November 10, 2003, the Company acquired the assets and assumed certain liabilities of the commercial carpet division of Burlington Industries, Inc. known as Lees Carpet, from W.L. Ross & Company for approximately $350 million in cash. The results of operations of Lees Carpet have been included with the Mohawk segment results and in the Company's consolidated financial statements since that date. The primary reason for the acquisition was to expand the Company's presence in the commercial carpet market.

On March 20, 2002, the Company acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Dal-Tile, a leading manufacturer and distributor of ceramic tile in the United States for approximately $1,469 million, consisting of approximately 12.9 million shares of the Company's common stock, options to purchase approximately 2.1 million shares of the Company's common stock and $718 million in cash. The Company's common stock and options were valued at $751 million based on the measurement date stock price of $55.04 per share ($710.4

million) and the estimated fair value of options using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model ($40.3 million). The transaction has been accounted for using the purchase method of accounting and, accordingly, the results of operations of Dal-Tile have been included in the Company's consolidated financial statements from March 20, 2002. The purchase price was allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based upon estimated fair values at the date of acquisition. The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired of approximately $1,168.3 million was recorded as goodwill. The primary reason for the acquisition was to expand the Company's presence in the ceramic tile and stone markets.

Industry

The floorcovering industry has grown from $12.4 billion in sales in 1992 to $20.3 billion in 2002. In 2002, the primary categories of the United States floorcovering industry were carpet and rugs (65%), ceramic tile (12%), vinyl and rubber (10%), hardwood (9%) and laminate (4%). Each of these categories has been positively impacted by:

- U.S. population growth, requiring new and renovated housing and commercial space;
- increasing average house size; and
- growth in housing starts and housing resales.

Compound average growth rates for units sold (measured by square yards) for each of the floorcovering categories above for the period from 1992 through 2002, with the exception of the vinyl and rubber category, have met or exceeded the growth rate for both the gross domestic product of the United States and housing starts over the same period. During this period, the compound average growth rate was 3.6% for carpet and rugs, 10.3% for ceramic tile, 1.3% for vinyl and rubber and 8.0% for hardwood. Laminate, which is a relatively new product, experienced a compound average growth rate of 41.5% from 1996 through 2002.

According to the most recent figures available from the United States Department of Commerce, worldwide carpet and rug sales volume of American manufacturers and their domestic divisions was 1.9 billion square yards in 2002. This volume represents a market in excess of approximately $12 billion. The overall level of sales in the carpet industry is influenced by a number of factors, including consumer confidence, spending for durable goods, interest rates, turnover in housing, the condition of the residential and commercial construction industries and the overall strength of the economy.

Broadloom carpet, defined as carpet over six feet by nine feet in size, represented 73% of the amounts shipped by the industry in 2002. Tufted broadloom carpet, a category that refers to the manner of construction in addition to size, represented 86.0% of the broadloom industry volume shipped in 2002. The broadloom carpet industry has two primary markets, residential and commercial, with the residential market making up approximately 75% of industry amounts shipped in 2002 and the commercial market comprising approximately 25%. An estimated 50% of industry shipments are made in response to replacement demand, which usually involves exact yardage, or "cut order," shipments that typically provide higher profit margins than sales of carpet sold in full rolls. Because the replacement business generally involves higher quality carpet cut to order by the manufacturer, rather than the dealer, this business tends to be more profitable for manufacturers than the new construction business.

The United States ceramic tile industry shipped 2.6 billion square feet, or $2.3 billion, in 2002. The compound average growth rate of dollar shipments was 8.0% from 1992 through 2002 for ceramic tile. Sales in the ceramic tile industry are influenced by the same factors that influence the carpet industry, including consumer confidence, spending for durable goods, interest rates, turnover in housing, the condition of the residential and commercial construction industries and the overall strength of the economy.

The ceramic tile industry's two primary markets, residential applications and commercial applications, represent 62.0% and 36.0% of the industry total, respectively. Of the total residential market, 67% of the dollar shipments are for new construction.

Sales and Distribution

Mohawk Segment.

Through the Company's Mohawk segment, the Company designs, manufactures and markets hundreds of styles of carpet and rugs in a broad range of colors, textures and patterns. In addition, the Mohawk segment markets and distributes ceramic tile, laminate, hardwood and vinyl floor covering. The Mohawk segment positions its products in all price ranges and emphasizes quality, style, performance and service. The Company markets and distributes carpet and rugs through over 34,000 customers, which include independent floor covering retailers, home centers, mass merchandisers, department stores, commercial dealers, and commercial end users. Some products are also marketed through private labeling programs. Sales to residential customers represent a significant portion of the total industry and the majority of the Company's carpet and rug sales.

The Company has positioned its premier residential carpet and rug brand names across all price ranges. "Mohawk," "Custom Weave," "WundaWeve," "Galaxy," "Horizon," "Helios" and "Karastan" are positioned to sell primarily in the medium-to-high retail price range in the residential broadloom market, and these lines are also sold under private labels. These lines have substantial brand name recognition among carpet dealers and retailers with the "Karastan," and "Mohawk" brands having the highest consumer recognition in the industry. "Karastan" is the leader in the exclusive high-end market. The "Aladdin" and "World" brand names compete primarily in the low-to-medium retail price range.

The Company offers marketing and advertising support through dealer programs like Karastan Gallery, ColorCenter and Floorscapes. These programs offer varying degrees of support to dealers in the form of sales and management training, merchandising systems, exclusive promotions and assistance in certain administrative functions such as consumer credit, advertising and insurance.

The Company's sales forces are generally organized based on product type and sales channels in order to best serve each type of customer. A hub-and-spoke distribution network accomplishes the product distribution on a regional level. In this system, the Company's trucks generally deliver product from manufacturing and central distribution sites to regional warehouses. From there, it is shipped to retailers or to local distribution warehouses, then to retailers.

The commercial customer base is divided into several channels: educational institutions, corporate office space, hospitality facilities, retail space and health care facilities. In addition, the Company produces and sells carpet for the export market, the federal government and other niche businesses. Different purchase decision makers and decision-making processes exist for each channel.

The Company's "Aladdin" commercial brand is sold primarily through retail dealers to customers in the retail space, corporate office and other channels. This sales channel is also commonly referred to as "Main Street." These customers are more price conscious in their purchase decisions. The "Bigelow Commercial" brand is sold primarily to commercial office and retail channels through commercial flooring contractors. The "Mohawk Commercial" brand is marketed to customers in the educational institutional and health care facility channels that are performance oriented. The "Lees" brand is positioned at the higher price points within each sales channel. The "Dura-Color" stain resistant technology and "Unibond" performance backing system enables the "Lees" brand to provide a differentiated product within each sales channel. Additionally, the Company markets its modular (carpet tile) product lines under the "Lees" brand. The "Karastan Contract" and "Durkan Commercial" brands are positioned primarily to service the medium to high-end fashion conscious customer in both the retail and corporate office channels. The "Durkan Hospitality" brand specializes in carpet sold through the hospitality channel to hotels, resorts and casinos.

The Company believes its ability to make woven carpet under the "Mohawk Commercial" and "Karastan Contract" brand names in large volume for commercial applications differentiates it from other manufacturers, most of which produce tufted carpet almost exclusively. Woven carpet, and specifically the Company's woven interlock products, provides unique characteristics that delivers a better value to the customer and the Company. The Company believes that it is one of the largest producers of woven carpet in the United States and that it has several carpet weaving machines and processes that no other manufacturer has, thereby allowing it to create carpet to meet specifications that its competitors cannot duplicate.

The Mohawk Home Division, markets its product lines under two major brand names, "Mohawk Home" and "Karastan." Mohawk Home's affordable price points strategy for the mainstream retailers and home centers is directed at the mid and lower retail price ranges, while the "Karastan" brand is directed at upscale retail and flooring stores. Product categories are diverse, including woven wool rugs, polypropylene woven and tufted rugs, printed and woven nylon rugs, doormats, washable bath rugs, decorative throws and pillows, woven bedspreads, textile wall hangings and blankets.

Dal-Tile Segment.

The Dal-Tile segment's ceramic tile and natural stone products are distributed through three separate distribution channels consisting of company-operated sales service centers, independent distributors and home centers. The business is organized to address the specific customer needs of each distribution channel. A dedicated sales force supports each channel.

The Company has four regional distribution centers strategically located in California, Maryland, Texas and Florida. These centers help the Company create high-quality customer service by focusing on shorter lead times, increased order fill rates and improved on-time deliveries to its customers. These distribution centers also enhance the Company's ability to plan and schedule production and manage inventory requirements.

The Company's network of over 240 sales service centers located in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico distributes primarily the Daltile brand product, serving customers in all 50 states and portions of Canada and Puerto Rico.

The Company serves as a "one-stop" source that provides customers with one of the ceramic tile industry's broadest product lines—a complete selection of glazed floor tile, glazed wall tile, glazed and unglazed ceramic mosaic tile, porcelain tile, quarry tile and stone products, as well as allied products. In addition to products manufactured by the Company's ceramic tile business, the Company carries a selection of products purchased from other manufacturers to provide customers with a broader product line.

The independent distributor channel offers a unique product line under the "American Olean" brand. Currently, the "American Olean" brand is distributed through approximately 200 independent distributor locations that service a variety of residential and commercial customers. The Company is focused on increasing its presence in the independent distributor channel, particularly in tile products that are most commonly used in flooring applications.

The Company believes its Dal-Tile segment is one of the U.S. ceramic tile industry's largest suppliers to the do-it-yourself and buy-it-yourself markets through home center retailers, such as The Home Depot and Lowe's. The home center channel is expected to continue presenting important growth opportunities.

The Company believes that it has two of the leading brand names in the U.S. ceramic tile industry—"Daltile" and "American Olean." The roots of the "Daltile" and "American Olean" brand names date back approximately fifty and seventy-five years, respectively.

The Company's sales service centers primarily distribute the "Daltile" brand, with a fully integrated marketing program, emphasizing a focus on quality and fashion. The broad product offering satisfies the needs of its residential, commercial and builder customers. The "American Olean" brand consists of a full product offering and is distributed primarily through independent distributors. Both these brands are supported by a fully integrated marketing program, including public relations efforts, displays, merchandising (sample boards, chip chests), literature/catalogs and an Internet website.

Advertising and Promotion

The Company promotes its brands through national advertising in both television and print media as well as in the form of cooperative advertising, point-of-sale displays and marketing literature provided to assist in marketing various carpet and ceramic tile styles. The Company also continues to rely on the substantial brand name recognition of its product lines. The cost of producing display samples, a significant promotional expense, is partially offset by sales of samples and support from suppliers in the carpet and rug business.

Manufacturing and Operations

Carpet and Rugs Business. The Company's manufacturing operations are vertically integrated and include the extrusion of resin and post-consumer plastics into polypropylene, polyester and nylon fiber, yarn processing, tufting, weaving, dyeing, coating and finishing. Capital expenditures are primarily focused on increasing capacity, improving productivity and reducing costs. Over the past three years, the Company has incurred capital expenditures that have helped increase manufacturing efficiency and capacity, and improve overall cost competitiveness.

Ceramic Tile Business. Over the past three years, the Dal-Tile segment has invested in capital expenditures, principally for new plants and state-of-the-art fast-fire equipment to increase manufacturing capacity, improve efficiency and develop new capabilities. In addition, the Company has added a porcelain tile manufacturing plant, which will significantly expand its production capacity in 2004.

The ceramic tile business commenced operations in Mexico at the Company's Monterrey facility in 1955 and currently manufactures products at this facility primarily for U.S. consumption. The Monterrey location produces ceramic tile, frit (ground glass) and refractories.

The Company believes that its manufacturing organization offers competitive advantages due to its ability to manufacture a differentiated product line consisting of one of the industry's broadest product offerings of colors, textures and finishes, as well as the industry's largest offering of trim and angle pieces and its ability to utilize the industry's newest technology.

Raw Materials and Suppliers

Carpet and Rugs Business. The principal raw materials the carpet and rug business uses are nylon, polypropylene, polyester and wool, resins and fibers, synthetic backing materials, polyurethane latex and various dyes and chemicals. The Company obtains all of its major raw materials from independent sources and all of its externally purchased nylon fibers from three major suppliers: Koch Industries, Inc., Solutia, Inc., and Honeywell, Inc. The carpet and rug business has not experienced significant shortages of raw materials in recent years. The Company believes that there is an adequate supply of all grades of resin and fiber and that all are readily available from a number of independent sources.

Ceramic Tile Business. In the Company's ceramic tile business, the Company manufactures tile primarily from talc, clay and nepheline syenite. The Company has entered into a long-term supply agreement for most of its talc requirements with one supplier.

The Company owns long-term clay mining rights in Alabama, Kentucky and Mississippi that satisfy nearly all of its clay requirements for producing unglazed quarry tile. The Company purchases a number of different grades of clay for the manufacture of its non-quarry tile. The Company believes that there is an adequate supply of all grades of clay and that all are readily available from a number of independent sources.

The Company has a single source supplier for its nepheline syenite requirements. If this supplier were unable to satisfy the Company's requirements, the Company believes that alternative supply arrangements would be available.

Glazes are used on a significant percentage of the Company's manufactured tile. Glazes consist of frit (ground glass), zircon, stains and other materials, with frit being the largest ingredient. The Company manufactures approximately 57% of its frit requirements.

Competition

Carpet and Rugs Business. The carpet and rugs industry is highly competitive. Based on industry publications, the top 20 North American carpet and rug manufacturers (including their American and foreign divisions) in 2002 had worldwide sales in excess of $13.0 billion, and the top 20 manufacturers in 1990 had sales in excess of $6 billion. In 2002, the top five manufacturers had worldwide sales in excess of $10.2 billion. The Company believes it is the second largest producer of carpet and rugs (in terms of sales volume) in the world.

Ceramic Tile Business. The Company estimates that over 100 tile manufacturers, more than half of which are based outside the United States, compete for sales of ceramic tile to customers located in the United States. Although the U.S. ceramic tile industry is highly fragmented at both the manufacturing and distribution levels, the Company believes it is the largest manufacturer, distributor and marketer of ceramic tile in the United States and one of the largest in the world.

The principal methods of competition within the carpet and rugs and ceramic tile industries are price, style, quality and service. In each of the Company's markets, price competition and market coverage are particularly important because there is limited differentiation among competing product lines. The Company's recent investments in modernized, advanced manufacturing and data processing equipment, the extensive diversity of equipment in which the Company has invested, its marketing strategy and its distribution system contribute to its ability to compete primarily on the basis of performance, quality, style and service, rather than just price.

In each of the Company's carpet and rug and ceramic tile businesses, the Company faces competition from a large number of domestic and foreign manufacturers and independent distributors of floorcovering products. Some of the Company's existing and potential competitors may be larger and have greater resources and access to capital than the Company does. Maintaining the Company's competitive position may require it to make substantial investments in its product development efforts, manufacturing facilities, distribution network and sales and marketing activities. Competitive pressures may also result in decreased demand for the Company's products and in the loss of market share. In addition, the Company faces, and will continue to face, pressure on sales prices of its products from competitors, as well as from large customers. As a result of any of these factors, there could be a material adverse effect on the Company's sales and profitability.

Trademarks

The Company uses several trademarks that it considers important in the marketing of its products, including "Aladdin," "American Olean[®]," "Bigelow," "Custom Weave" "Dal-Tile[®]," "Durkan," "Galaxy," "Goodwin Weavers," "Helios[®]," "Home Source," "Horizon[®]," "Karastan[®]," "Lees[®]," "Mohawk[®]," "Mohawk Home," "Portico," "World[®]" and "WundaWeve[®]."

Sales Terms and Major Customers

The Company's sales terms are the same as those generally available throughout the industry. The Company generally permits its customers to return broadloom carpet and ceramic tile purchased from it within 30 days from the date of sale, if the customer is not satisfied with the quality of the product. This return policy is consistent with the Company's emphasis on quality, style and performance and promotes customer satisfaction without generating enough returns to affect materially its operating results or financial position.

During 2003, no single customer accounted for more than 10% of Mohawk's total net sales. The Company believes the loss of one or a few major customers would not have a material adverse effect on its business.

Employees

As of March 2, 2004, the Company employed approximately 33,300 persons, of which approximately 635 of its employees in the United States and approximately 3,100 of its employees in Mexico are members of unions. Other than with respect to these employees, the Company is not a party to any collective bargaining agreements. Additionally, the Company has not experienced any strikes or work stoppages for over 20 years. The Company believes that its relations with its employees are good.

Item 2. Properties

The Company owns a 47,500 square foot headquarters office in Calhoun, Georgia on an eight-acre site. The Company also owns a 2,089,000 square foot manufacturing facility located in Dalton, Georgia and a 1,464,597 square foot manufacturing facility located in Monterey, Mexico. The following table summarizes the Company's facilities both owned and leased for each segment in square feet:

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

The Company is involved in routine litigation from time to time in the regular course of its business. Except as noted below, there are no material legal proceedings pending or known to be contemplated to which the Company is a party or to which any of its property is subject.

Environmental Matters

The Company is subject to various federal, state, local and foreign environmental health and safety laws and regulations, including those governing air emissions, wastewater discharges, the use, storage, treatment and disposal of solid and hazardous materials, and the cleanup of contamination associated therewith. Because of the nature of the Company's business, the Company has incurred, and will continue to incur, costs relating to compliance with such laws and regulations. The Company is involved in various proceedings relating to environmental matters and is currently engaged in environmental investigation, remediation and post-closure care programs at certain sites. The Company has provided reserves for such activities that it has determined to be both probable and reasonably estimable. The Company does not expect that the ultimate liability with respect to such activities will have a material adverse effect on it.

Three sites near Mohawk's Dallas facility in its Dal-Tile segment are involved in environmental cleanup projects relating principally to the disposal or alleged disposal by Dal-Tile of waste materials containing lead compounds. Dal-Tile's approved closure plans have been implemented and each site is now undergoing post-closure care. Dal-Tile has been named as a potentially responsible party under the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act ("CERCLA") and similar state statutes for the disposal of certain hazardous substances at various other sites in the United States. The Company does not believe that any future costs for these sites will have a material adverse effect on it.

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Overview

The Company is the leading producer of floorcovering products for residential and commercial applications in the United States. The Company is the second largest carpet and rug manufacturer, and a leading manufacturer, marketer and distributor of ceramic tile and natural stone, in the United States. Annual floorcovering sales within the United States in 2002 were approximately $20.3 billion. The Company had annual net sales in 2003 in excess of $5.0 billion.

The primary categories of the floorcovering industry include carpet and rugs (65%), ceramic tile (12%), vinyl and rubber (10%), hardwood (9%) and laminate (4%). Compound average growth rates in units sold (measured in square yards) for all categories, except the vinyl and rubber category, for the period from 1992 through 2002 have met or exceeded the growth rate for both the gross domestic product of the United States and housing starts over the same period. During this period, the compound average growth rate was 3.6% for carpet and rugs, 10.3% for ceramic tile, 1.3% for vinyl and rubber and 8.0% for hardwood. Laminate, which is a relatively new product, experienced a compound average growth rate of 41.5% from 1996 through 2002. Although beginning from a smaller base, the growth rates for hard floorcoverings may indicate increasing consumer preference for these products for certain applications. In response to this increasing demand, the Company has increased its distribution of hard surface products, including ceramic tile, vinyl, hardwood and laminate. The acquisition of Dal-Tile provided a unique opportunity to help the Company achieve its strategic goal of becoming one of the world's leading floorcovering manufacturers and distributors.

The Company continues to experience growth both internally and through acquisitions.

On March 20, 2002, the Company acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Dal-Tile, a leading manufacturer and distributor of ceramic tile in the United States, for approximately $1,469 million in stock and cash. The transaction was accounted for using the purchase method of accounting and, accordingly, the results of operations of Dal-Tile have been included in the Company's consolidated financial statements from March 20, 2002. The primary reason for the acquisition was to expand the Company's presence in the ceramic tile and stone markets.

On November 10, 2003, the Company acquired the assets and assumed certain liabilities of the commercial carpet division of Burlington Industries, Inc., known as Lees Carpet, from W.L. Ross & Company for approximately $350 million in cash. The results of operations for Lees Carpet have been included with the Mohawk segment results and in the Company's consolidated financial statements since that date. The primary reason for the acquisition was to expand the Company's presence in the commercial carpet market.

The Company has two operating segments, the Mohawk segment and the Dal-Tile segment. The Mohawk segment sells and distributes its product lines, which include broadloom carpet, rugs, pad, ceramic tile, hardwood, vinyl and laminate through independent floor covering retailers, home centers, mass merchandisers, department stores, commercial dealers and commercial end users. The Dal-Tile segment product lines include ceramic tile, porcelain tile and stone products sold through company-operated sales service centers, independent distributors and home centers.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Company's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations are based on its consolidated financial statements that were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Company makes estimates and assumptions when preparing financial statements. These estimates and assumptions affect various matters, including:

- reported amounts of assets and liabilities in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets at the dates of the financial statements,
- disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the financial statements, and

- reported amounts of revenues and expenses in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Earnings during the reporting periods. These estimates involve judgments with respect to, among other things, future economic factors that are difficult to predict and are beyond management's control. As a result, actual amounts could differ from these estimates.

The SEC issued disclosure guidance for accounting policies that management believes are most "critical." The SEC defines these critical accounting policies as those that are both most important to the portrayal of a company's financial condition and results and require management's most difficult, subjective, or complex judgment, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain and may change in subsequent periods.

The Company believes the following accounting policies require it to use judgments and estimates in preparing its consolidated financial statements and could represent critical accounting policies as defined by the SEC. The Company discusses its significant accounting policies, including those that do not require management to make difficult, subjective, or complex judgments or estimates, in Note 1 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

- Accounts receivable and revenue recognition. Revenues are recognized when goods are shipped and legal title passes to the customer. The Company provides allowances for expected cash discounts, returns, claims and doubtful accounts based upon historical bad debt and claims experience and periodic evaluation of specific customer accounts and the aging of accounts receivable. If the financial condition of the Company's customers were to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional allowances may be required.
- Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market (net realizable value). Cost is determined using the last-in, first-out method (LIFO) predominantly within the Mohawk segment, which matches current costs with current revenues, and the first-in, first-out method (FIFO), which is used to value inventory within the Dal-Tile segment. Inventories on hand are compared against anticipated future usage, which is a function of historical usage and anticipated future selling price, in order to evaluate obsolescence, excessive quantities, and expected sales below cost. Actual results could differ from assumptions used to value obsolete, excessive inventory or inventory expected to be sold below cost and additional reserves may be required.
- Goodwill and indefinite life intangible assets are subject to annual impairment testing. The impairment tests are based on determining the fair value of the specified reporting units and indefinite life intangible assets based on management judgments and assumptions using estimated future cash flows. These judgments and assumptions could materially change the value of the specified reporting units and indefinite life intangible assets and, therefore, could materially impact the Company's consolidated financial statements.
- Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which the temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in the tax rates is recognized in earnings in the period that includes the enactment date. Additionally, taxing jurisdictions could retroactively disagree with the Company's tax treatment of certain items, and some historical transactions have income tax effects going forward. Accounting rules require these future effects to be evaluated using current laws, rules and regulations, each of which can change at any time and in an unpredictable manner.

During 2003, specifically the first half of 2003, the Company and industry performance as a whole was impacted negatively by the overall weak conditions in the U.S. economy and cautious consumer and commercial spending. The Company believes that the residential replacement business is recovering in response to improved economic conditions. The Company believes that the commercial business is also beginning to show signs of improvement at certain price points and anticipates the higher end business will improve later in 2004. The Company is implementing a price increase in both the Mohawk and Dal-Tile segment during the first quarter of 2004 to compensate for increased raw material prices resulting from higher oil and natural gas prices and higher import prices.

Net sales for the year ended December 31, 2003, were $5,005.1 million, reflecting an increase of $482.7 million, or approximately 10.7%, over the $4,522.3 million reported in the year ended December 31, 2002. The increased net sales were attributable to the acquisition of Dal-Tile and Lees Carpet and internal growth. The Mohawk segment recorded net sales of $3,736.5 million in 2003 compared to $3,624.2 million in 2002, representing an increase of $112.4 million or approximately 3.1%. The growth was attributable to the Lees Carpet acquisition and internal growth of product lines. The Dal-Tile segment recorded net sales of $1,268.5 million in 2003, reflecting an increase of $370.4 million or 41.2%, over the $898.2 million reported in the year ended December 31, 2002. The Dal-Tile results are not included in the Company's consolidated financial statements prior to the March 20, 2002, acquisition. However, when the Dal-Tile net sales for the year ended December 31, 2003, are compared to the Dal-Tile pro forma net sales of $1,134.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 (derived by combining Dal-Tile net sales of $236.0 million prior to the March 20, 2002, acquisition date, after reclassifications to conform to Mohawk's presentation, with reported Dal-Tile net sales of $898.2 million for the period ending December 31, 2002), an increase of approximately 11.8% for the period was realized. The growth was primarily attributable to growth within residential products. The Company believes this pro forma net sales information will be useful to investors because it allows investors to compare the results of the two periods.

Quarterly net sales and the percentage changes in net sales by quarter for 2003 versus 2002 were as follows (dollars in thousands):

	2003	2002	Change
First quarter	$ 1,084,715	866,710	25.2 %
Second quarter	1,247,181	1,227,747	1.6
Third quarter	1,303,166	1,224,403	6.4
Fourth quarter	1,369,991	1,203,476	13.8
Total year	$ 5,005,053	4,522,336	10.7 %

Gross profit was $1,359.4 million (27.2% of net sales) for 2003 and $1,240.1 million (27.4% of net sales) for 2002. The reduction in percentage was primarily attributable to a change in the selling mix, increased raw material prices resulting from higher oil and natural gas prices, higher import prices and start up costs related to the new Dal-Tile manufacturing facility.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for 2003 were $817.3 million (16.3% of net sales) compared to $718.0 million (15.9% of net sales) for 2002. The increased percentage was primarily attributable to the acquisition of Dal-Tile, which has higher selling, general and administrative expenses.

Operating income for 2003 was $542.0 million (10.9% of net sales) compared to $522.1 million (11.5% of net sales) in 2002. Operating income attributable to the Mohawk segment was $364.0 million (9.7% of segment net sales) in 2003 compared to $390.9 million (10.8% of segment net sales) in 2002. The percentage decrease in operating income was attributable to the higher costs associated with oil and natural gas prices and a change in the selling mix. Operating income attributable to the Dal-Tile segment was $187.2 million (14.8% of segment net sales) in 2003, compared to $139.9 million (15.6% of segment net sales) in 2002. The decrease in operating income as a percentage of net sales is primarily attributable to a change in product mix, higher import prices and start up costs of a new manufacturing facility. On a pro forma combined basis, the Dal-Tile segment operating income was $171.7 million (15.1% of pro forma segment net sales) for 2002 (derived by combining Dal-Tile operating income of $31.8 million prior to the March 20, 2002 acquisition, after reclassifications to conform to Mohawk's presentation, with reported Dal-Tile operating income of $139.9 million for the period ended December 31, 2002). The Company believes that presentation of this pro forma combined operating income information will be useful to investors because it allows investors to compare the results between the two periods.

Interest expense for 2003 was $55.6 million compared to $69.0 million in 2002. The decrease in interest expense was attributable to lower average debt levels during 2003 when compared to 2002, offset by an increase in the average borrowing rate due to a change in the mix of fixed and variable rate debt in 2003 when compared to 2002. Additionally, interest expense for 2002 included $10.7 million related to the write-off of an interest rate swap previously accounted for as a cash flow hedge.

Income tax expense was $178.3 million, or 36.5% of earnings before income taxes for 2003 compared to $159.1 million, or 35.9% of earnings before income taxes for 2002. The change in tax rate resulted from the use of fewer available tax credits in 2003 when compared to 2002.

Net sales for the year ended December 31, 2002, were $4,522.3 million, reflecting an increase of $1,076.4 million, or approximately 31.2%, over the $3,445.9 million reported in the year ended December 31, 2001. The increased net sales were attributable to the Dal-Tile acquisition and internal growth of the Mohawk segment product lines. The Mohawk segment recorded net sales of $3,624.2 million in 2002 compared to $3,445.9 million in 2001, representing an increase of $178.2 million or approximately 5.2%. The growth was attributable to all segment product lines. Since the completion of the Dal-Tile acquisition, the Dal-Tile segment recorded net sales of $898.2 million in 2002. On a pro forma combined basis, the Dal-Tile segment net sales were $1,134.2 million (derived by combining Dal-Tile net sales of $236.0 million prior to the March 20, 2002 acquisition date, after reclassifications to conform to Mohawk's presentation, with reported Dal-Tile net sales of $898.2 million for the period ending December 31, 2002) for 2002. This compares to Dal-Tile net sales of $1,036.8 million (derived from net sales prior to the March 20, 2002 acquisition) for 2001, resulting in an increase of approximately 9.4% for the period. The growth was primarily attributable to growth within residential products. The Company believes this pro forma net sales information will be useful to investors because it allows investors to compare the results of the two periods.

Quarterly net sales and the percentage changes in net sales by quarter for 2002 versus 2001 were as follows (dollars in thousands):

	2002	2001	Change
First quarter	$ 866,710	777,339	11.5 %
Second quarter	1,227,747	864,958	41.9
Third quarter	1,224,403	907,850	34.9
Fourth quarter	1,203,476	895,798	34.3
Total year	$ 4,522,336	3,445,945	31.2 %

Gross profit was $1,240.1 million (27.4% of net sales) for 2002 and $832.9 million (24.2% of net sales) for 2001. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales in 2002 was favorably impacted when compared to 2001 by Dal-Tile's higher gross profit percentage and improved manufacturing efficiencies within the Mohawk segment.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for 2002 were $718.0 million (15.9% of net sales) compared to $505.7 million (14.7% of net sales) for 2001. The increased percentage was attributable to the Dal-Tile segment which has higher selling, general and administrative expenses but also has higher gross profit as a percentage of net sales. The Mohawk and Dal-Tile (including selling, general and administrative costs prior to the acquisition of Dal-Tile) segments selling, general and administrative expenses reflected improvements over 2001, when compared to 2002. The improvements were due to better control of operating costs as net sales increased.

Operating income for 2002 was $522.1 million (11.5% of net sales) compared to $327.2 million (9.5% of net sales) in 2001. Operating income attributable to the Mohawk segment was $390.9 million (10.8% of segment net sales) in 2002 compared to $336.7 million (9.8% of segment net sales) in 2001. Operating income attributable to the Dal-Tile segment was $139.9 million (15.6% of segment net sales) in 2002. On a pro forma combined basis, the Dal-Tile segment operating income was $171.7 million (15.1% of pro forma segment net sales) for 2002 (derived by combining Dal-Tile operating income of $31.8 million prior to the March 20, 2002 acquisition, after reclassifications to conform to Mohawk's presentation, with reported Dal-Tile operating income of $139.9 million for the period ended December 31, 2002). This compares to Dal-Tile operating income of $154.6 million (14.9% of Dal-Tile net sales) for 2001. The Company believes that presentation of this pro forma combined operating income information will be useful to investors because it allows investors to compare the results between the two periods.

Interest expense for 2002 was $69.0 million compared to $29.8 million in 2001. The increase in interest expense was attributable to additional debt incurred in March 2002 to finance the acquisition of Dal-Tile, the write-off of approximately $10.7 million relating to an interest rate swap previously accounted for as a cash flow hedge and an increase in the average borrowing rate due to a change in the mix of fixed rate and variable rate debt, when compared to 2001.

Income tax expense was $159.1 million, or 35.9% of earnings before income taxes for 2002 compared to $102.8 million, or 35.3% of earnings before income taxes for 2001.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's primary capital requirements are for working capital, capital expenditures and acquisitions. The Company's capital needs are met primarily through a combination of internally generated funds, bank credit lines, term and senior notes, the sale of receivables and credit terms from suppliers.

The level of accounts receivable increased from $501.1 million at the beginning of 2003 to $573.5 million at December 31, 2003. The $72.4 million increase was primarily attributable to the acquisition of Lees Carpet and internal sales growth. Inventories increased from $678.0 million at the beginning of 2003 to $832.4 million at December 31, 2003, due primarily to building inventory for hard surface product categories within the Mohawk and Dal-Tile segments and the acquisition of Lees Carpet.

The outstanding checks in excess of cash represent trade payables checks that have not yet cleared the bank. When the checks clear the bank, they are funded by the revolving credit facility. This policy does not impact any liquid assets on the consolidated balance sheets.

Excluding acquisitions, capital expenditures totaled $114.6 million during 2003. The capital expenditures made during 2003 were incurred primarily to modernize and expand manufacturing facilities and equipment. The Company's capital projects are primarily focused on increasing capacity, improving productivity and reducing costs. Capital expenditures, including $1,101.8 million for acquisitions, have totaled $1,381.2 million over the past three years. The Company's capital spending during 2004, excluding acquisitions, is expected to range from $140 million to $160 million, and will be used primarily to purchase equipment to increase production capacity and productivity.

On September 30, 2003, the Company entered into a new revolving line of credit agreement providing up to $300 million with interest rates of either (i) LIBOR plus 0.4% to 1.5%, depending upon the Company's performance measured against certain financial ratios, or (ii) the base rate plus 0-0.6% depending upon the Company's performance measured against certain financial ratios. The new facility replaces a $450 million facility that was due to expire in January 2004. The facility is comprised of two tranches, a $200 million tranche expiring in September 2008 and a $100 million tranche expiring in September 2004. The $100 million tranche of the facility is renewable annually. The credit agreement contains customary financial and other covenants. The Company must pay an annual facility fee ranging from .15% to .50% of the total credit commitment, depending upon the Company's performance measured against specific coverage ratios, under the revolving credit line. Additionally, at December 31, 2003, the Company had credit facilities of $300 million under its revolving credit facility and $50 million under various short-term uncommitted credit lines. At December 31, 2003, a total of $237.3 million was unused under the combined revolving credit facility and uncommitted credit lines. The revolving credit facility and uncommitted lines of credit are unsecured.

In connection with the Dal-Tile acquisition during 2002, the Company entered into a 364-day term loan facility (the "Bridge Facility") to finance a portion of the acquisition. On April 2, 2002, the Company sold $300 million of its 6.50% senior notes due 2007, Series A and $400 million of its 7.20% senior notes due 2012, Series B through institutional private placements and used the proceeds to repay outstanding indebtedness of approximately $601 million under the Bridge Facility and approximately $90 million under the Company's revolving credit facility. On June 13, 2002, the Company exchanged $295 million of its registered 6.50% senior notes due 2007, Series C for an equal amount of its Series A senior notes and $397.8 million of its registered 7.20% senior notes due 2012, Series D for an equal amount of its Series B senior notes. Interest on each series is payable semiannually.

On August 4, 2003, the Company entered into an on-balance sheet trade accounts receivable securitization agreement ("Securitization Facility") replacing two previous facilities that were due to expire in October 2003. The Securitization Facility allows the Company to borrow up to $350 million based on available accounts receivable. The Company sells, on a non-recourse revolving basis, its accounts receivable to a special purpose entity, which in turn obtains loan advances that are secured by the receivable pool from a third-party commercial paper conduit sponsored by financial institutions. The Securitization Facility is subject to annual renewal. At December 31, 2003, the Company had approximately $182 million outstanding secured by approximately $649.0 million of trade receivables.

The Company's Board of Directors has authorized the repurchase of up to 15 million shares of its outstanding common stock. For the year ended December 31, 2003, a total of approximately 593,000 shares of the Company's common stock were purchased at an aggregate cost of approximately $27.8 million. Since the inception of the program, a total of approximately 11 million shares have been repurchased at an aggregate cost of approximately $293.1 million. All of these repurchases have been financed through the Company's operations and banking arrangements.

The Company believes that the combined total of the revolving credit facility, short-term uncommitted credit lines and the Securitization Facility of $700 million is adequate to support its capital and working capital requirements.

The following is a summary of the Company's future minimum payments under contractual obligations as of December 31, 2003 (in thousands):

(1) Includes commitments for natural gas and foreign currency and fiber purchases.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued FASB Interpretation No. 46 ("FIN 46"), "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, an Interpretation of ARB No. 51," which addresses consolidation by business enterprises of variable interest entities ("VIEs") either: (1) that do not have sufficient equity investment at risk to permit the entity to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support, or (2) in which the equity investors lack an essential characteristic of a controlling financial interest. In December 2003, the FASB issued modifications to FIN 46 ("Revised Interpretations") resulting in multiple effective dates based on the nature as well as the creation date of the VIE. VIEs created after January 31, 2003, but prior to January 1, 2004, may be accounted for either based on the original interpretation or the Revised Interpretations. However, the Revised Interpretations must be applied no later than the first quarter of 2004. VIEs created after January 1, 2004 must be accounted for under the Revised Interpretations. Non-Special Purpose Entities created prior to February 1, 2003, should be accounted for under the revised interpretation's provisions no later than the first quarter of fiscal 2004. The Company has adopted FIN 46, which did not have, and the Company does not expect the Revised Interpretations to have, a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Impact of Inflation

Inflation affects the Company's manufacturing costs and operating expenses. The carpet and tile industry has experienced inflation in the prices of raw materials and fuel-related costs. In the past, the Company has generally passed along these price increases to its customers and has been able to enhance productivity to offset increases in costs resulting from inflation in both the United States and Mexico.

Seasonality

The Company is a calendar year-end company and its results of operations for the first quarter tend to be the weakest. The second, third and fourth quarters typically produce higher net sales and operating income. These results are primarily due to consumer residential spending patterns for floorcovering, which historically have decreased during the first two months of each year following the holiday season.

Certain Factors affecting the Company's Performance

In addition to the other information provided in this Annual Report on Form 10-K, the following risk factors should be considered when evaluating an investment in shares of Common Stock.

If any of the events described in these risks were to occur, it could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The floorcovering industry is cyclical and prolonged declines in residential or commercial construction activity could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business.

The U.S. floorcovering industry is highly dependent on residential and commercial construction activity, including new construction as well as remodeling which are cyclical in nature. A prolonged decline in residential or commercial construction activity could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business.

The U.S. construction industry has experienced significant downturns in the past, which have adversely affected suppliers to the industry. The industry could experience similar downturns in the future, which could have a negative impact on the Company's business.

The Company faces intense competition in its industry, which could decrease demand for its products and could have a material adverse effect on its profitability.

The industry is highly competitive. The Company faces competition from a large number of manufacturers and independent distributors. Some of its competitors may be larger and have greater resources and access to capital. Maintaining the Company's competitive position may require: substantial investments in its product development efforts, manufacturing facilities, distribution network and sales and marketing activities. Competitive pressures may also result in decreased demand for its products. Any of these factors could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

A failure to identify suitable acquisition candidates, to complete acquisitions and to integrate successfully the acquired operations could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business.

As part of its business strategy, the Company intends to pursue acquisitions of complementary businesses. Although it regularly evaluates acquisition opportunities, it may not be able to successfully identify suitable acquisition candidates; obtain sufficient financing on acceptable terms to fund acquisitions; complete acquisitions; or profitably manage acquired businesses.

Acquired operations may not achieve expected performance levels and may involve a number of special risks, including among others an inability to successfully integrate acquired operations and the diversion of management resources.

The Company may be unable to obtain raw materials on a timely basis, which could have a material adverse effect on its business.

The principal raw materials used in the Company's manufacturing operations include: nylon fiber and polypropylene resin, which are used exclusively in its carpet and rug business; talc, clay, nepheline syenite and various glazes, including frit (ground glass), zircon and stains, which are used exclusively in its ceramic tile business and other materials. The Company has a single source supplier for all of its nepheline syenite requirements. An extended interruption in the supply of these or other raw materials used in the Company's business or in the supply of suitable substitute materials would disrupt the Company's operations, which could have a material adverse effect on its business.

The Company may be unable to pass on to its customers increases in the costs of raw materials and energy, which could have a material adverse effect on its profitability.

The prices of raw materials and natural gas vary with market conditions. Although the Company generally attempts to pass on increases in the costs of raw materials and natural gas to its customers, the Company's ability to do so is, dependent upon the rate and magnitude of any increase, competitive pressures and market conditions for its products. There have been in the past, and may be in the future, periods of time during which increases in these costs cannot be recovered. During such periods of time, there could be a material adverse effect on the Company's profitability.

The Company has been, and in the future may be subject to claims and liabilities under environmental, health and safety laws and regulations, which could be significant.

The Company's operations are subject to various environmental, health and safety laws and regulations, including those governing air emissions, wastewater discharges, and the use, storage, treatment and disposal of hazardous materials. The applicable requirements under these laws are subject to amendment, to the imposition of new or additional requirements and to changing interpretations of agencies or courts. The Company could incur material expenditures to comply with new or existing regulations, including fines and penalties.

The nature of the Company's operations, including the potential discovery of presently unknown environmental conditions, exposes the Company to the risk of claims under environmental, health and safety laws and regulations. The Company could incur material costs or liabilities in connection with such claims.

Changes in international trade laws and in the business, political and regulatory environment in Mexico could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business.

The Company's Monterrey, Mexico manufacturing facility represents a significant portion of the Company's total manufacturing capacity for ceramic tile. Accordingly, an event that has a material adverse impact on the Company's Mexican operations could have a material adverse effect on the tile operations as a whole. The business, regulatory and political environments in Mexico differ from those in the United States, and the Company's Mexican operations are exposed to legal, currency, tax, political, and economic risks, specific to Mexico.

The Company could face increased competition as a result of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade ("GATT") and the North American Free Trade Agreement ("NAFTA").

The Company is uncertain what effect reduced import duties under GATT may have on its operations, although these reduced rates may stimulate additional competition from manufacturers that export ceramic tile to the United States.

Although NAFTA lowers the tariffs imposed on the Company's ceramic tile manufactured in Mexico and sold in the United States and will eliminate such tariffs entirely on January 1, 2008, it may also stimulate competition in the United States and Canada from manufacturers located in Mexico.

Forward-Looking Information

Certain of the statements in this Annual Report on Form 10-K, particularly anticipating of future performance, business prospects, growth and operating strategies, proposed acquisitions, and similar matters, and those that include the words "believes," "anticipates," "forecast," "estimates" or similar expressions constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. For those statements, Mohawk claims the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. There can be no assurance that the forward-looking statements will be accurate because they are based on many assumptions, which involve risks and uncertainties. The following important factors could cause future results to differ: changes in industry conditions; competition; raw material prices; timing and level of capital expenditures; integration of acquisitions; introduction of new products; rationalization of operations; and other risks identified in Mohawk's SEC reports and public announcements.

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Financial exposures are managed as an integral part of the Company's risk management program, which seeks to reduce the potentially adverse effect that the volatility of the interest rate, exchange rate and natural gas markets may have on its operating results. The Company does not regularly engage in speculative transactions, nor does it regularly hold or issue financial instruments for trading purposes.

Natural Gas Risk Management

The Company uses a combination of natural gas futures contracts and long-term supply agreements to manage unanticipated changes in natural gas prices. The contracts are based on forecasted usage of natural gas measured in Million British Thermal Units ("MMBTU").

The Company has designated the natural gas futures contracts as cash flow hedges. The outstanding contracts are valued at market with the offset going to other comprehensive income, net of applicable income taxes and any hedge ineffectiveness. Any gain or loss is recognized in cost of goods sold in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings. At December 31, 2003, the Company had natural gas contracts that mature from January 2004 to December 2004 with an aggregate notional amount of approximately 3.9 million MMBTU's. The fair value of these contracts was an asset of $3.6 million. At December 31, 2002, the Company had natural gas contracts outstanding with a notional amount of approximately 1.4 million MMBTU's. The fair value of these contracts was an asset of $1.9 million. The offset to these assets is recorded in other comprehensive income, net of applicable income taxes.

The Company's natural gas long-term supply agreements are accounted for under the normal purchases provision within SFAS No. 133 and its amendments. At December 31, 2003, the Company has normal purchase commitments of approximately 3.1 million MMBTU's for periods maturing from January 2004 through September 2005. The contracted value of these commitments was approximately $13.8 million and the fair value of these commitments was approximately $17.0 million, at December 31, 2003. At December 31, 2002, the Company had normal purchase commitments of approximately 4.6 million MMBTU's. The contracted value of these commitments was approximately $17.4 million and the fair value of these commitments was approximately $19.7 million.

Foreign Currency Rate Management

The Company enters into foreign exchange forward contracts to hedge costs associated with its operations in Mexico. The objective of these transactions is to reduce volatility of exchange rates where these operations are located by fixing a portion of their costs in U.S. currency. Gains and losses are recognized in cost of goods sold in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings. Accordingly, these contracts have been designated as cash flow hedges. The Company had forward contracts to purchase approximately 145.3 million and 357.5 million Mexican pesos at December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The aggregate U.S. Dollar value of these contracts at December 31, 2003 and 2002 was approximately $12.7 million and $34,581, respectively. The contracts are marked to market in other current liabilities with the offset to other comprehensive income, net of applicable income taxes. Unrealized losses at December 31, 2003 and 2002 respectively, were not significant.

Interest Rate Management

In 2002, the Company determined that its $100 million interest rate swap was ineffective. Consequently, the $10.7 million unrealized loss associated with the swap was recorded as a realized loss in interest expense during the fourth quarter of 2002. The Company continues to carry the liability on its consolidated balance sheets and the interest rate swap is marked to market at the end of each reporting period. The change in fair value for the year ended December 31, 2003 was not significant.

MOHAWK INDUSTRIES, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001

(In thousands, except per share data)

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Mohawk Industries, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Company" or "Mohawk"). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(b) Accounts Receivable and Revenue Recognition

The Company is principally a broadloom carpet, rug and ceramic tile manufacturer and sells carpet, rugs, ceramic tile and other floorcovering materials throughout the United States principally for residential and commercial use. The Company grants credit to customers, most of whom are retail-flooring dealers and commercial end users, under credit terms that are customary in the industry.

Revenues are recognized when goods are shipped, which is when the legal title passes to the customer. The Company provides allowances for expected cash discounts, returns, claims and doubtful accounts based upon historical bad debt and claims experience and periodic evaluations of specific customer accounts and the aging of the accounts receivable.

(c) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market (net realizable value). Cost is determined using the last-in, first-out (LIFO) method, which matches current costs with current revenues, for substantially all inventories within the Mohawk segment and the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method for the Dal-Tile segment inventories.

(d) Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, including capitalized interest. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated remaining useful lives, which are 35 years for buildings and improvements, 15 years for extrusion equipment, 10 years for tufting equipment, the shorter of the estimated useful life or life of the lease for leasehold improvements, five years for vehicles and seven years for other equipment and furniture and fixtures.

(e) Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

In accordance with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" the Company tests goodwill and other intangible assets with indefinite lives for impairment on an annual basis (or on an interim basis if an event occurs that might reduce the fair value of the reporting unit below its carrying value). The Company conducts testing for impairment during the fourth quarter of its fiscal year. Intangible assets that do not have indefinite lives are amortized based on weighted average lives.

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and operating loss and tax credit carry-forwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

(g) Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist primarily of receivables, accounts payable, accrued expenses and long-term debt. The carrying amount of receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximates their fair value because of the short-term maturity of such instruments. Interest rates that are currently available to the Company for issuance of long-term debt with similar terms and remaining maturities are used to estimate the fair value of the Company's long-term debt. The estimated fair value of the Company's long-term debt at December 31, 2003 and 2002 was $1,095,590 and $894,462, compared to a carrying amount of $1,012,413 and $820,427, respectively.

(h) Derivative Instruments

Effective January 1, 2001, the Company adopted SFAS No. 133 "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" ("SFAS No. 133") and its amendments which require the Company to recognize all derivatives on the consolidated balance sheet at fair value. Derivatives that are not hedges must be adjusted to fair value through earnings. If the derivative is a hedge, depending on the nature of the hedge, changes in its fair value are either offset against the change in fair value of assets, liabilities, or firm commitments through earnings or recognized in other comprehensive income until the hedged item is recognized in earnings. The Company engages in activities that expose it to market risks, including the effects of changes in interest rates, exchange rates and changes in natural gas prices. Financial exposures are managed as an integral part of the Company's risk management program, which seeks to reduce the potentially adverse effect that the volatility of the interest rate, exchange rate and natural gas markets may have on operating results. The Company does not regularly engage in speculative transactions, nor does it regularly hold or issue financial instruments for trading purposes. There was no impact on the consolidated financial statements upon adoption of SFAS No. 133.

The Company formally documents all hedging instruments and hedging items, as well as its risk management objective and strategy for undertaking hedged items. This process includes linking all derivatives that are designated as fair value and cash flow hedges to specific assets or liabilities on the consolidated balance sheet or to forecasted transactions. The Company also formally assesses, both at inception and on an ongoing basis, whether the derivatives that are used in hedging transactions are highly effective in offsetting changes in fair value or cash flows of hedged items. When it is determined that a derivative is not highly effective, the derivative expires, or is sold, terminated, or exercised, or the derivative is discontinued because it is unlikely that a forecasted transaction will occur, the Company discontinues hedge accounting for that specific hedge instrument.

(i) Shipping and Handling

Costs related to shipping and handling are included in cost of sales for all periods presented.

(j) Advertising Costs and Vendor Consideration

Advertising and promotion expenses are charged to earnings during the period in which they are incurred. Advertising and promotion expenses included in selling, administrative and general expenses were $26,990 in 2003, $31,829 in 2002 and $28,845 in 2001.

In 2001, the EITF reached consensus on Issue No. 01-09 "Accounting for Consideration Given by a Vendor to a Customer" ("EITF 01-09"). This issuance provides guidance primarily on income statement classification of consideration from a vendor to a purchaser of the vendor's products. Generally, cash consideration is to be classified as a reduction of net sales, unless specific criteria are met regarding goods or services that the vendor may receive in return for this consideration. The Company makes various payments to customers, including slotting fees, advertising allowances, buy-downs and co-op advertising. All of these payments reduce gross sales with the exception of co-op advertising. Co-op advertising is classified as a selling, general and administrative expense. Co-op advertising expenses, a component of advertising and promotion expenses, were $9,355 in 2003, $14,090 in 2002 and $11,803 in 2001.

(k) Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

In 2002, the Company adopted SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets." The adoption of SFAS No. 144 did not affect the Company's financial statements. SFAS No. 144 replaced SFAS No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long Lived Assets to be disposed of." SFAS No. 144 establishes a single accounting model for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets including discontinued operations. In accordance with SFAS No. 144, long-lived assets and intangibles subject to amortization are reviewed for impairment when changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable. If the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the expected undiscounted cash flows of the asset, an impairment charge is recognized equal to the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the expected undiscounted cash flows. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less estimated costs of disposal and are no longer depreciated.

(l) Foreign Currency Translation

The Company's subsidiaries that operate outside the United States use their local currency as the functional currency, with the exception of operations carried out in Mexico, in which case the functional currency is the U.S. dollar. Other than Mexico, the functional currency is translated into U.S. dollars for balance sheet accounts using the month end rates in effect as of the balance sheet date and average exchange rate for revenue and expense accounts for each respective period. The translation adjustments are deferred as a separate component of shareholders' equity, within other comprehensive income. Gains or losses resulting from transactions denominated in foreign currencies are included in other income or expense, within the consolidated statements of earnings. The assets and liabilities of the Company's Mexico operations are re-measured using a month end rate, except for non-monetary assets and liabilities, which are re-measured using the historical exchange rate. Income and expense accounts are re-measured using an average monthly rate for the period, except for expenses related to those balance sheet accounts that are re-measured using historical exchange rates. The resulting re-measurement adjustment is reported in the consolidated statements of operations when incurred.

(m) Earnings per Share ("EPS")

The Company applies the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") SFAS No. 128, Earnings per Share, which requires companies to present basic EPS and diluted EPS. Basic EPS excludes dilution and is computed by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock that then shared in the earnings of the Company.

Dilutive common stock options are included in the diluted EPS calculation using the treasury stock method. Common stock options that were not included in the diluted EPS computation because the options' exercise price was greater than the average market price of the common shares for the periods presented are not significant.

Computations of basic and diluted earnings per share are presented in the following table:

(n) Stock Based Compensation

Effective January 1, 2003, the Company adopted the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure." This statement amends SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based compensation and requires prominent disclosure in both the annual and interim financial statements of the method of accounting used and the financial impact of stock-based compensation. As permitted by SFAS No. 123, the Company accounts for stock options granted as prescribed under Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," which recognizes compensation cost based upon the intrinsic value of the award.

If the Company had elected to recognize compensation expense based upon the fair value at the grant dates for awards under its plans, the Company's net earnings per share would have been reduced as follows:

(o) Effect of New Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2003, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 46 ("FIN 46"), "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, an Interpretation of ARB No. 51," which addresses consolidation by business enterprises of variable interest entities ("VIEs") either: (1) that do not have sufficient equity investment at risk to permit the entity to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support, or (2) in which the equity investors lack an essential characteristic of a controlling financial interest. In December 2003, the FASB issued modifications to FIN 46 ("Revised Interpretations") resulting in multiple effective dates based on the nature as well as the creation date of the VIE. VIEs created after January 31, 2003, but prior to January 1, 2004, may be accounted for either based on the original interpretation or the Revised Interpretations. However, the Revised Interpretations must be applied no later than the first quarter of 2004. VIEs created after January 1, 2004 must be accounted for under the Revised Interpretations. Non-Special Purpose Entities created prior to February 1, 2003, should be accounted for under the revised interpretation's provisions no later than the first quarter of fiscal 2004. The Company has adopted FIN 46, which did not have, and the Company does not expect the Revised Interpretations to have, a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In April 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 149, "Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities." This standard amends and clarifies financial accounting and reporting for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts (collectively referred to as derivatives) and for hedging activities under SFAS No. 133. The standard is effective for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003. The Company has adopted SFAS No. 133 and it did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity." SFAS 150 establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity, and imposes certain additional disclosure requirements. The provisions of SFAS No. 150 are generally effective for all financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. The Company has adopted SFAS No. 150 and it did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

(p) Fiscal Year

The Company ends its fiscal year on December 31. Each of the first three quarters in the fiscal year ends on the Saturday nearest the calendar quarter end.

(q) Reclassifications

Certain prior period financial statement balances have been reclassified to conform to the current period's presentation.

(2) Acquisitions

On March 20, 2002, the Company acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Dal-Tile International Inc. ("Dal-Tile"), a leading manufacturer and distributor of ceramic tile in the United States, for approximately $1,468,325, consisting of approximately 12,900 shares of the Company's common stock, options to purchase approximately 2,100 shares of the Company's common stock and approximately $717,638 in cash, including direct acquisition costs. The Company's common stock and options were valued at approximately $750,687 based on the measurement date stock price of $55.04 per share ($710,420) and the estimated fair value of the options using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model ($40,267). The acquisition was accounted for by the purchase method and, accordingly, the results of operations of Dal-Tile have been included in the Company's consolidated financial statements from March 20, 2002. The purchase price was allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based upon the estimated fair values at the date of acquisition. The trademark value was established based upon an independent appraisal. The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired of approximately $1,168,286 was recorded as goodwill. None of the goodwill is expected to be deductible for income tax purposes. The primary reason for the acquisition was to expand the Company's presence in the ceramic tile and stone markets.

Mohawk considered whether identifiable intangible assets, such as customer relationships, patents, covenants not to compete, software, production backlog, marketing agreements, unpatented technology and trade secrets, might exist and none were identified other than trademarks, during the purchase price negotiations and during the subsequent purchase price allocation evaluation. Accordingly, the valuation resulted in the recognition of goodwill and trademarks.

In accordance with SFAS No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" ("SFAS No. 142"), goodwill recorded in the Dal-Tile acquisition will not be amortized. Additionally, the Company determined that the trademark intangible assets have indefinite useful lives because they are expected to generate cash flows indefinitely. Goodwill and the trademark intangible assets are subject to annual impairment testing.

The following table summarizes the preliminary estimated fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition.

The purchase price was not significant.

On June 30, 2003, the Company acquired certain assets of a manufacturer and distributor of washable bath rugs. The primary reason for the acquisition was to expand the Company's presence in the bath mat market. On November 10, 2003, the Company acquired the assets and assumed certain liabilities of the carpet division of Burlington Industries, Inc. ("Lees Carpet") from W.L. Ross & Company for approximately $349,839 in cash. The results of Lees Carpet have been included with the Mohawk segment results in the Company's consolidated financial statements since that date. The primary reason for the acquisition was to expand the Company's presence in the commercial carpet market.

(5) Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

Furthermore, any goodwill and indefinite life intangibles that was acquired in a purchase business combination completed after June 30, 2001 will not be amortized. Goodwill and indefinite life intangibles that was acquired in business combinations completed before July 1, 2001 is no longer being amortized. The Company has two operating segments, the Mohawk unit and the Dal-Tile unit and, accordingly, has assigned the acquired goodwill and indefinite life intangibles to the respective operating segments. During the fourth quarter of 2003, the Company evaluated the goodwill and indefinite life intangibles using the discounted cash flow approach and determined that there was no impairment.

(7) Long-Term Debt

On September 30, 2003, the Company entered into a new revolving line of credit agreement providing up to $300,000 with interest rates of either (i) LIBOR plus 0.4% to 1.5%, depending upon the Company's performance measured against certain financial ratios, or (ii) the base rate plus 0-0.6% depending upon the Company's performance measured against certain financial ratios. The new facility replaces a $450,000 facility that was due to expire in January 2004. The facility is comprised of two tranches, a $200,000 tranche expiring in September 2008 and a $100,000 tranche expiring in September 2004. The $100,000 tranche of the facility is renewable annually. The credit agreement contains customary financial and other covenants. The Company must pay an annual facility fee ranging from .15% to .50% of the total credit commitment, depending upon the Company's performance measured against specific coverage ratios, under the revolving credit line.

Additionally, at December 31, 2003, the Company had credit facilities of $300,000 under its revolving credit facility and $50,000 under various short-term uncommitted credit lines. At December 31, 2003, a total of $237,344 was unused under the combined revolving credit facility and uncommitted credit lines. The revolving credit facility and uncommitted lines of credit are unsecured.

In connection with the Dal-Tile acquisition during 2002, the Company entered into a 364-day term loan facility (the "Bridge Facility") to finance a portion of the acquisition. On April 2, 2002, the Company sold $300,000 of its 6.50% senior notes due 2007, Series A and $400,000 of its 7.20% senior notes due 2012, Series B through institutional private placements and used the proceeds to repay outstanding indebtedness of approximately $601,000 under the Bridge Facility and approximately $90,000 under the Company's revolving credit facility. On June 13, 2002, the Company exchanged $294,965 of its registered 6.50% senior notes due 2007, Series C for an equal amount of its Series A senior notes and $397,800 of its registered 7.20% senior notes due 2012, Series D for an equal amount of its Series B senior notes. Interest on each series is payable semiannually.

On August 4, 2003, the Company entered into an on-balance sheet trade accounts receivable securitization agreement ("Securitization Facility") replacing two previous facilities were due to expire in October 2003. The Securitization Facility allows the Company to borrow up to $350,000 based on available accounts receivable. The Company sells, on a non-recourse revolving basis, its accounts receivable to a special purpose entity, which in turn obtains loan advances that are secured by the receivable pool from a third-party commercial paper conduit sponsored by financial institutions. The Securitization Facility is subject to annual renewal. At December 31, 2003, the Company had approximately $182,000 outstanding secured by approximately $649,018 of trade receivables.

The Company guarantees its industrial revenue bonds with various standby letters of credit, which were in aggregate $55,599 at December 31, 2003 and 2002.

Natural Gas Risk Management

The Company uses a combination of natural gas futures contracts and long-term supply agreements to manage unanticipated changes in natural gas prices. The contracts are based on forecasted usage of natural gas measured in Million British Thermal Units ("MMBTU").

The Company has designated the natural gas futures contracts as cash flow hedges. The outstanding contracts are valued at market with the offset going to other comprehensive income, net of applicable income taxes and any hedge ineffectiveness. Any gain or loss is recognized in cost of goods sold in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings. At December 31, 2003, the Company had natural gas contracts that mature from January 2004 to December 2004 with an aggregate notional amount of approximately 3,950 MMBTU's. The fair value of these contracts was an asset of $3,565. At December 31, 2002, the Company had natural gas contracts outstanding with an aggregate notional amount of approximately 1,450 MMBTU's. The fair value of these contracts was an asset of $1,911. The offset to these assets is recorded in other comprehensive income, net of applicable income taxes, respectively.

The Company's long-term natural gas supply agreements are accounted for under the normal purchases provision within SFAS No. 133 and its amendments. At December 31, 2003, the Company has normal purchase commitments of approximately 3,095 MMBTU's for periods maturing from January 2004 through September 2005. The contracted value of these commitments was approximately $13,774 and the fair value of these commitments was approximately $17,018, at December 31, 2003. At December 31, 2002, the Company had normal purchase commitments of approximately 4,560 MMBTU's. The contracted value of these commitments was approximately $17,441 and the fair value of these commitments was approximately $19,694.

Foreign Currency Rate Management

The Company enters into foreign exchange forward contracts to hedge costs associated with its operations in Mexico. The objective of these transactions is to reduce volatility of exchange rates where these operations are located by fixing a portion of their costs in U.S. currency. Gains and losses are recognized in cost of goods sold in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings. Accordingly, these contracts have been designated as cash flow hedges. The Company had forward contracts to purchase approximately 145,284 and 357,522 Mexican pesos at December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The aggregate U.S. Dollar value of these contracts at December 31, 2003 and 2002 was approximately $12,665 and $34,581, respectively. The contracts are marked to market in other current liabilities with the offset to other comprehensive income, net of applicable income taxes. Unrealized losses at December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, were not significant.

Interest Rate Management

In 2002, the Company determined that its $100,000 interest rate swap was ineffective. Consequently, the $10,700 unrealized loss associated with the swap was recorded as a realized loss in interest expense during the fourth quarter of 2002. The Company continues to carry the liability on its consolidated balance sheets and the interest rate swap is marked to market at the end of each reporting period. The change in fair value for the year ended December 31, 2003 was not significant.

Under the 2002 plan, options that were not issued from the 1992, 1993 and 1997 plans were cancelled. In connection with the acquisition of Dal-Tile in 2002, the Company issued 2,096 options to employees of Dal-Tile in exchange for their respective options.

During 2003, 2002, and 2001 a total of one, two, and two shares, respectively, were awarded to the non-employee directors under the plan.
