PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON DECEMBER 9, 2003

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy are solicited by the Board of Directors (the "Board of Directors" or the "Board") of Financial Federal Corporation, a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at 270 Park Avenue, 11th Floor, New York, New York 10017 on December 9, 2003 and at any postponements or adjournments thereof.

Shares represented by properly executed proxies, that are received in time and not revoked, will be voted at the Meeting in the manner described in the proxies. A stockholder may revoke his proxy at any time prior to its exercise by notice in writing to the Secretary of the Company indicating that his/her proxy is revoked, by submitting another proxy with a later date or by attending the Meeting and voting in person. Please note, however, that if a stockholder's shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee and that stockholder wishes to vote at the Meeting, the stockholder must bring a letter from the broker, bank or other nominee confirming such stockholder's beneficial ownership of shares.

At the Meeting, the Company's stockholders will be asked (i) to elect the Board of Directors to serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders; (ii) to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP ("KPMG") as the Company's independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending July 31, 2004; and (iii) to take such other action as may properly come before the Meeting. Each proposal is described in more detail in this Proxy Statement.

The approximate date on which this Proxy Statement and accompanying form of proxy are first being sent or given to stockholders is November 5, 2003. Holders of the Company's common stock, par value $.50 per share (the "Common Stock"), as of the record date, the close of business on October 22, 2003, are entitled to vote at the Meeting. As of October 22, 2003, the Company had 18,617,344 shares of Common Stock outstanding and had no preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share, outstanding.

Each share of Common Stock entitles the holder thereof on the record date to one vote on matters to be considered at the Meeting. The presence, in person or by proxy, of stockholders holding a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes are each included for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a sufficient number of shares to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A broker non-vote is when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that proposal and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Unless contrary instructions are indicated on the proxy, shares represented by each properly executed and returned proxy card (and not revoked before they are voted) will be voted "FOR" the election of the nominees for directors named below, "FOR" the ratification of the appointment of KPMG as independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending July 31, 2004 and by the proxies in their discretion on any other matters to properly come before the Meeting, or any postponement or adjournment thereof. If a stockholder specifies a different choice on the proxy, such stockholder's shares of Common Stock will be voted in accordance with the specification so made.

The entire expense of this proxy solicitation will be borne by the Company. Solicitation will be made primarily by mail. Proxies may also be solicited personally and by telephone by regular employees of the Company without any additional remuneration and at minimal cost. Management may also request banks, brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to obtain authorization for the execution of proxies and may reimburse them for expenses incurred by them in connection therewith. The Company has retained Georgeson Shareholder Communications, Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies, at an estimated cost of $1,000 plus other reasonable expenses.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

(Item 1 on Proxy Card)

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee and the Board of Directors have nominated the persons listed below to serve as directors of the Company until the next annual meeting and until their respective successors are elected and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. It is intended that shares represented by proxies solicited by the Board will, unless authority to vote for some or all of the nominees is withheld, be voted in favor of electing as directors the nominees listed below. The Company has no reason to believe any of the nominees will be disqualified or unable or unwilling to serve if elected. However, if any nominee becomes unavailable for any reason, the shares will be voted for another person nominated by the Board, unless the Board by resolution provides for a lesser number of directors. Steven G. Weinroth, whose term as a director expires at the Annual Meeting, will not be standing for re-election.

The election of the six director nominees requires an affirmative vote by a plurality of votes cast at the meeting of stockholders by the stockholders entitled to vote in the election. Any shares not voted (by abstention, broker non-vote, or otherwise) have no impact on the vote.

The Board of Directors recommends that stockholders vote "FOR" each of the nominees listed below.

The Board has established an Executive Committee, currently composed of four directors. The Executive Committee can exercise all of the powers of the Board between meetings of the Board. The current members of the Executive Committee are Messrs. Fisher, Palitz, Robards and Sinsheimer.

The Board has established an Audit Committee, currently composed of three independent directors. The Audit Committee is responsible for the engagement of the Company's independent public accountants and reviews the scope and timing of their audit services and any other services they are asked to perform, their report on the Company's financial statements following completion of their audit and the Company's policies and procedures with respect to internal auditing and financial controls. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Robards, Timanus and Weinroth. Upon consideration of the attributes of an audit committee financial expert as set forth in Section 401(h) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Board of Directors determined that Mr. Robards possessed these attributes through his experience as Chief Financial Officer of the American Museum of Natural History, Datek Online Holdings Corp. and Republic New York Corporation, and he was designated as the Audit Committee financial expert. Mr. Robards is independent as such term is defined in item 7(d)(3)(iv)(A) of Schedule 14(a) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

The Board has established an Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee, currently composed of four independent directors. The Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee is responsible for approving appointments and promotions and determining salaries of senior executives of the Company between meetings of the full Board and is responsible for administering the Company's 2001 Management Incentive Plan (the "MIP") and the Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Option/Restricted Stock Plan (the "1998 Plan"). All actions of the Committee with respect to appointments, promotions and determining salaries of senior executive officers, to remain effective, must be ratified by a majority vote of the Board within six months of such action. The current members of the Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee are Messrs. MacMillen, Robards, Timanus and Weinroth.

The Board has established a Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, currently composed of four independent directors. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is responsible for nominating qualified candidates for appointments to the Board, corporate governance issues and establishing the code of ethics for the Company. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will consider nominees recommended by stockholders. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee expects to adopt a written charter that will set forth the procedures to be followed by stockholders in submitting such recommendations. The current members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee are Messrs. MacMillen, Robards, Timanus and Weinroth.

During the Company's fiscal year ended July 31, 2003, the Board of Directors met five times, the Executive Committee met once, the Audit Committee met eight times, the Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee met five times and the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee met once. Each member of the Board attended, either telephonically or in person, at least 90% of the total number of meetings of the Board and its committees of which they were members during such fiscal year. The Board has no other standing committees.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

No interlocking relationships exist between any member of the Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee and any member of any other company's Board of Directors or compensation committee. Mr. Fisher, a director of the Company, is a partner of the law firm of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, which has been retained by the Company in connection with certain legal matters.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are not officers or employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries receive stipends, as follows:

1. Annual stipend of $35,000 payable upon their election by the stockholders after the annual meeting of stockholders each year. If a director joins the Board during the year, the stipend will be pro rated.
2. Additional annual stipend of $5,000 to the Audit Committee chairperson, $3,000 to the Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee chairperson and $2,000 to the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee chairperson.
3. Additional stipend of $1,000 for each Board meeting attended.
4. Additional stipend of $1,000 for each Committee meeting attended.

The Company does not have a formal policy of granting stock options to directors. Nevertheless, current directors were each granted a nonqualified stock option, shortly after joining the Board as an outside director, to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock at the fair market value on the date of grant. In addition, to more fully align the interests of outside directors with Company stockholders, on April 16, 2003, each outside director was granted a fully vested non-qualified stock option under the 1998 Plan to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock at the fair market value on the date of grant. The options are exercisable until April 16, 2008.

Directors who are officers of the Company receive no additional compensation for attending Board or committee meetings.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION AND STOCK OPTION COMMITTEE

The Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee (the “Committee”) is pleased to present its report on executive compensation. The Committee is composed of William C. MacMillen, Jr., Thomas F. Robards, H. E. Timanus, Jr. and Stephen D. Weinroth. Messrs. MacMillen, Robards, Timanus and Weinroth are independent directors of the Company. This report to stockholders presents an overview of the role of the Committee and of the Company’s present compensation philosophy. All actions of the Committee with respect to appointments, promotions and determinations of executive officers’ salary to remain effective, must be ratified by a majority vote of the Board within six months of such action; and all such actions to date have been so ratified.

It is the Committee’s philosophy that a significant portion of executive compensation be linked directly to the Company’s success in meeting profit, growth and other corporate performance goals, operating efficiencies, success in handling non-performing assets, the Company’s overall performance regarding its return on earning assets and average equity, as well as the quality and integrity of the Company’s receivables. The Company compensates certain officers through salary, a portion of which may be deferred by agreement between the Company and its officers, and through grants of restricted stock, stock units and stock options. The Committee believes granting restricted stock, stock units and stock options to employees and officers further aligns their objectives with those of the Company and its stockholders. The Committee, in its discretion, determines the proportion of the equity awards to grant to employees and officers in order to maximize long-term incentives.

The Committee reviews the Company’s compensation programs and consults with independent experts from time to time to ensure that the compensation and benefits offered to its executives are competitive and reflect the Company’s performance. In order to attract and retain exceptionally high caliber employees and executives, the Company offers competitive salaries and long-term incentives compared to other financial services companies of similar size.

The Committee’s compensation evaluation procedures include reviewing public filings of other financial services companies and performing an informal survey as well as a comparison and review of its competitors and other companies.

The Committee, in establishing compensation for the CEO, generally used the same criteria as it did for other employees and officers. Competitive CEO pay practices were assessed using proxy statements of a comparison group of publicly traded financial institutions and a report by an independent compensation consultant as well as its proprietary database of compensation survey sources.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

The CEO's annual rate of salary for fiscal 2003 was $750,000 and is unchanged as of the date of the mailing of this proxy. The Committee established a target bonus for the first half of fiscal 2003 under the MIP for the CEO consisting of (i) $375,000 and (ii) 50,000 shares of restricted stock (granted in fiscal 2002), each subject to the Company's future performance and accomplishment of performance goals set by the Committee. Based upon the Company's performance and accomplishment of such goals for the first half of fiscal 2003, the actual cash incentive bonus paid to Mr. Sinsheimer under the MIP for the first half of fiscal 2003 was $258,375. Additionally, the performance-based goals were satisfied with respect to 34,450 shares of the 50,000 shares of restricted stock granted in fiscal 2002 and 15,550 shares were forfeited. The 34,450 shares of restricted stock granted in fiscal 2002 are also subject to satisfaction of time-based vesting requirements and vest ratably in annual increments over eight years subject to earlier vesting upon a sale of the Company or qualifying terminations of employment. The Committee did not establish performance goals under the MIP for the CEO for the second half of fiscal 2003. The Committee awarded Mr. Sinsheimer a discretionary cash bonus, outside of the MIP, in the amount of $250,000 for the Company's performance for the second half of fiscal 2003. The discretionary cash bonus was awarded to Mr. Sinsheimer because the Committee recognized the difficult external economic environment the Company operated under and believed that the CEO's performance for the second half of fiscal year 2003 warranted a bonus based on the Company's performance under such adverse circumstances.

Policy with Respect to Qualifying Compensation for Deductibility

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 162(m)") limits the deduction allowable to the Company for compensation paid to the CEO and each of the named executive officers listed in the Summary Compensation Table to $1.0 million per individual per fiscal year. Qualified performance-based compensation is excluded from this limitation if certain requirements are met. The Committee's policy is generally to preserve the federal income tax deductibility of compensation paid. The Committee believes that awards to the CEO under the MIP, as previously approved by the stockholders, and its award of options made under the stock option plans for employees, will qualify as performance-based compensation and thereby be excluded from the $1.0 million limitation. Notwithstanding the Committee's desire to generally preserve the federal income tax deductibility of compensation payments, under certain circumstances in the interests of offering competitive compensation, the Committee, in its discretion, may authorize payments that are not deductible under Section 162(m).

CHANGE IN AUDITORS

On June 6, 2002, the Board of Directors, on the recommendation of the Audit Committee, appointed the firm of KPMG as the Company's independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending July 31, 2002 and dismissed Arthur Andersen LLP ("Andersen") who have subsequently ceased operations. Andersen's report on the financial statements of the Company for fiscal 2001 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion nor was it in any way qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

The decision to change accountants was recommended by management and approved by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and the full Board as well.

During fiscal 2001, and the interim period preceding the dismissal, there were no disagreements between the Company and Andersen on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or audit scope or procedure. The Company has never been advised by Andersen that internal controls necessary for the Company to develop reliable financial statements do not exist or that any information has come to the attention of Andersen which would have caused it not to be able to rely on management's representations or that has made Andersen unwilling to be associated with the financial statements prepared by management. Andersen has not advised the Company of any need to significantly expand the scope of its audit or that information has come to their attention that upon further investigation may materially impact on the fairness or reliability of a previously issued audit report or financial statements issued or which would cause them to be unwilling to rely on management's representations or be associated with the Company's financial statements.

Andersen has not advised the Company of any information which they concluded materially impacts upon the fairness or reliability of either a previously issued audit report, underlying financial statements or the financial statements issued or to be issued since the last financial statements covered by an audit report.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee is composed of Thomas F. Robards, H.E. Timanus, Jr. and Stephen D. Weinroth. Each member of the Audit Committee is independent as currently defined under the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal financial controls and the financial reporting process. The Company's independent public accountants, KPMG, are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements and to express an opinion as to whether those financial statements fairly present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes. The Audit Committee pre-approves all work and fees, which are performed by the Company's independent auditors.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements of the Company for the year ended July 31, 2003, with the Company's management. The Audit Committee has discussed with the Company's independent public accountants the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, "Communication with Audit Committees."

The Company's independent public accountants provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosure required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees." The Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants that firm's independence and considered whether the non-audit services provided by the independent accountants are compatible with maintaining its independence.

Based on the Audit Committee's review and discussions noted above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended July 31, 2003, for filing with the SEC.

RATIFICATION OF AUDITORS

(Item 2 on Proxy Card)

General

The Board of Directors, on the recommendation of the Audit Committee, has appointed the firm of KPMG as the Company's independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending July 31, 2004 and recommends that the stockholders vote "FOR" ratification of such appointment. KPMG has audited the Company's financial statements since June 6, 2002. It is expected that a representative of KPMG will be present at the Meeting and will have the opportunity to make a statement and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Stockholder ratification of the appointment of KPMG as the Company's independent public accountants is not required by the Company's bylaws or other applicable legal requirement. However, the Board is submitting the appointment of KPMG to the stockholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate practice. If the stockholders fail to ratify the appointment, the Audit Committee and the Board will reconsider whether or not to retain that firm. Even if the appointment is ratified, the Board may direct the appointment of a different independent accounting firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the Company's best interests and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders.

Ratification of the appointment of auditors requires a majority of the votes cast thereon. Abstentions with respect to this proposal have the same effect as a vote against the proposal. Broker non-votes with respect to this proposal will not be counted with regard to this proposal.

Principal Accountant and Fees

For the fiscal years ended July 31, 2003 and 2002 the fees related to services performed by the Company's independent public accountants follow:

Tax Fees	0	0	0
All other fees	40,000	0	12,925
Total Fees	$280,000	$50,000	$87,925

Audit Fees. Consists of fees billed for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements and review of the interim consolidated financial statements included in quarterly reports and services that are normally provided in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements.

Audit-Related Fees. There were no fees billed in fiscal 2003 and 2002 for assurance and related services that were related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Tax Fees. There were no fees billed in fiscal 2003 and 2002 for professional services for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning. In the proxy statement for fiscal 2002, the Company disclosed $50,000 for tax fees; however, KPMG did not perform these services for fiscal 2002 and therefore was not paid a fee.

All Other Fees. Consists of fees for products and services other than the services reported above. In fiscal 2003, services were provided for an agreed-upon procedures report required by one of the Company's debt agreements.

The Board of Directors recommends that stockholders vote "FOR" the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent public accountants.
