Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On September 6, 2002, Royal Gold entered into a Letter of Intent with Ms. Lee Halavais to acquire her 49,371,293 shares of High Desert for cash or shares of Royal Gold (valued at $17.13 per share) in the aggregate amount of $24.4 million. Ms. Halavais had the right to choose stock or cash or a combination of the two, at the closing. The Letter of Intent was subject to execution of definitive documentation, diligence and other customary conditions.

On November 9, 2002, Royal Gold entered into a binding agreement to acquire the shares of High Desert owned by Ms. Halavais. The binding agreement contained customary representations, warranties, covenants and conditions and reflected the same consideration as the Letter of Intent, among other matters.

On December 7, 2002, Royal Gold, Inc. (the Registrant) completed the acquisition of 49,371,293 (93.5%) of the common stock of High Desert Mineral Resources, Inc. ("High Desert"), from Ms. Halavais that closed in escrow on December 6, 2002. Consideration for the purchase was 1,412,229 newly issued shares of Royal Gold common stock and $200,000 in cash. As a result of the acquisition, Royal Gold held a total of 49,411,793 shares of common stock of High Desert, representing 93.5% of the issued and outstanding shares.

The shares of Royal Gold's common stock for the transaction were issued under a shelf registration statement (S-4) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. A Prospectus Supplement was filed on November 7, 2002, covering the Royal Gold shares.

After the closing of the binding agreement and completion of delivery of all High Desert shares, Royal Gold owned sufficient High Desert shares to allow it to proceed with a short-form merger under Delaware law. Royal Gold proceeded to effect a short-form merger under Delaware law to merge High Desert into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Royal Gold on December 15, 2002.

After the short-form merger, all minority stockholders of High Desert are entitled to US$0.572 per common share of High Desert. All minority stockholders of High Desert received notice of this short-form merger and instructions on how to exchange High Desert stock for cash. This notice was first mailed to the minority stockholders on December 26, 2002.

The total purchase price of Ms. Halavais' High Desert shares was determined in connection with the execution of the Letter of Intent, which was signed on September 6, 2002, based on Royal Gold's view of the value of High Desert's assets less High Desert's liabilities times the percent of High Desert's shares owned by Ms. Halavais. The initial valuation was subject to adjustments in the cash and debt positions of High Desert at the time of closing, as compared to those positions at the time of execution of the Letter of Intent on September 6, 2002. The primary assets of High Desert are two producing royalties, cash of approximately $600,000 and exploration properties in Nevada. This asset value was reduced by the debt of approximately $3,500,000. The valuation for the two royalties was based primarily on the production from the producing mines. Various scenarios regarding timing and value of production were analyzed and a discount rate relative to the risk of the cash flows was applied. None of the exploration properties contained defined precious metal reserves or resources and no dollar value was assigned to them. The resultant valuation for 100% of High Desert, approximately $29 million, was denominated in Royal Gold shares, employing a negotiated price of $17.13 per share, derived at the time of the signing of the Letter of Intent on September 6, 2002. This valuation of $17.13 per Royal Gold share was established based on the then trading price of Royal Gold common stock, and was used to establish the number of Royal Gold shares in lieu of cash in the amount of approximately $24.4 million, payable to Ms. Halavais upon her election of cash, Royal Gold shares, or a combination of cash and shares, prior to closing.

The valuation for the High Desert common stock held by the minority shareholders (3,411,766 shares, or approximately 6.5% of the issued and outstanding shares of High Desert) was computed on the same basis as the valuation for the majority shareholder, except that the price payable to the minority was adjusted upwards based on a Royal Gold share price of $19.855, rather than the $17.13 employed at the execution of the Letter of Intent. The $19.855 price was used to give the minority shareholders of High Desert the benefit from appreciation in the value of Royal Gold shares from the negotiated price of $17.13 at September 6, 2002. The $19.855 price represents the average of the closing sale price of Royal Gold stock on the trading day before and after the Saturday execution of the definitive agreement on November 9, 2002. This price is higher than the Royal Gold stock price on the day of closing of the purchase from Ms. Halavais on December 6, 2002. Specifically, the total consideration given to the majority shareholders, adjusted to the $19.855 Royal Gold share price, was divided by the number of shares purchased from Ms. Halavais (49,371,293 shares) to derive the valuation price for the minority shareholdings. The formula $[1,412,229 \text{ shares} \times $19.855 + $200,000]$ divided by 49,371,293 derives the minority shareholding price of $0.572 per share.

High Desert owns a 2% carried working interest, equal to a 2% net smelter returns royalty, in the Newmont HD Venture property (Leeville project), operated by Newmont Mining. It also owns a 1% net smelter returns royalty on the SJ Claims, which covers a large part of the Screamer and West Betze deposits, operated by Barrick Gold.

High Desert also has a portfolio of gold exploration properties in Nevada, and royalties on non-producing gold properties located in Nevada.

In a separate agreement, Royal Gold agreed to repay a $2.9 million loan made by an affiliate of the Selling Stockholder to High Desert. In lieu of repaying the debt in cash, Royal Gold has agreed to convey to the lender 10% of each Producing Royalty owned by High Desert at the time of the acquisition.

HIGH DESERT MINERAL RESOURCES INC.
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2002 (unaudited) AND DECEMBER 31, 2001 AND 2000

NOTE 1 - NATURE AND CONTINUANCE OF OPERATIONS

The Company, whose common shares are publicly held and listed on the TSX Venture Exchange, holds interests in producing mineral properties and is also in the process of exploring its other mineral properties but has not yet determined whether these properties contain reserves that are economically recoverable.

The Company has ongoing property expenditure requirements in order to maintain its mineral property interests in good standing.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

These consolidated financial statements are expressed in United States dollars and have been prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles and reflect the following significant accounting policies.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Gold Ventures, Inc., ("Gold Ventures") incorporated in Nevada, U.S.A. which holds the Company's interest in the Barrick joint venture; High Desert Geological Services, Inc. ("HDGS") incorporated in Nevada, U.S.A. which is engaged in the business of providing geological services; and DFH Co. of Nevada ("DFH") incorporated in Nevada, U.S.A., which holds interests in mineral properties in Nevada. Refer to Note 3.

Resource Properties

The Company's resource property acquisition, exploration and development costs are expensed as incurred. Once the Company has determined that a property can be economically developed, further exploration and development costs are capitalized. The capitalized costs are depleted on a property by property basis over the estimated useful lives of the properties upon commencement of commercial production using the unit-of-production method. Capitalized costs relating to mineral properties which are sold or abandoned are written off when such events occur. The proceeds received from property options granted are applied against the costs of the related property and any excess is included in earnings for the period. A portion of the Company's exploration and development activities are conducted jointly with others and, accordingly, the financial statements reflect only the Company's proportionate interest in such activities. The Company reviews the carrying value of resource properties whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable, at which time a write-down is recorded.

Foreign Currency Translation

During fiscal 2000 the Company adopted the United States dollar as its reporting and measurement currency for financial statements purposes and accordingly, the financial statements are presented in United States dollars. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 52, "Foreign Currency Translation", foreign denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated to their United States dollar equivalents using foreign exchange rates which prevailed at the balance sheet date. Revenue and expenses are translated at average rates of exchange during the year. Related translation adjustments are reported as a separate component of stockholders' equity, whereas gains or losses resulting from foreign currency transactions are included in results of operations.

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are recorded at cost and are amortized over their estimated useful lives at the following rates: Equipment - 20% per annum, declining balance basis; Leasehold improvements - straight-line basis over five years.

HIGH DESERT MINERAL RESOURCES INC.
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2002 (unaudited) AND DECEMBER 31, 2001 AND 2000

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with United States generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Net Income (Loss) per Common Share

Basic earnings per share includes no dilution and is computed by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Dilutive earnings per share reflects the potential dilution of securities that could share in the earnings of the Company. Because the Company does not have any potentially dilutive securities, the accompanying presentation is only of basic earnings (loss) per share.

Financial Instruments

The fair value of the Company's current assets and current liabilities were estimated to approximate their carrying values due to the immediate or short-term maturity of these financial instruments. Management believes that the fair value of the amounts due to related parties approximates its carrying value.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation in respect to stock options granted to employees and officers using the intrinsic value based method in accordance with APB 25. Stock options granted to non-employees are accounted for using the fair value method in accordance with SFAS No. 123. In addition, with respect to stock options granted to employees, the Company provides pro-forma information as required by SFAS No. 123 showing the results of applying the fair value method using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

The Company accounts for equity instruments issued in exchange for the receipt of goods or services from other than employees in accordance with SFAS No. 123 and the conclusions reached by the Emerging Issues Task Force in Issue No. 96-18. Costs are measured at the estimated fair market value of the consideration received or the estimated fair value of the equity instruments issued, whichever is more reliably measurable. The value of equity instruments issued for consideration other than employee services is determined on the earliest of a performance commitment or completion of performance by the provider of goods or services as defined by EITF 96-18.

The Company has also adopted the provisions of the Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 44, Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation - An Interpretation of APB Opinion No. 25 ("FIN 44"), which provides guidance as to certain applications of APB 25. FIN 44 is generally effective July 1, 2000 with the exception of certain events occurring after December 15, 1998.

Income taxes

Future income taxes are recognized for the future income tax consequences attributable to differences between financial statement carrying values and their corresponding tax values (temporary differences). Future income tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted income tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in years in which temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on future income tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is included in income in the period in which the change occurs. The amount of future income tax assets recognized is limited to the amount that, in the opinion of management, is more likely than not to be realized.

SEPTEMBER 30, 2002 (unaudited) AND DECEMBER 31, 2001 AND 2000

Recent accounting pronouncements

In July 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141 ("SFAS 141"), "Business Combinations", which eliminates the pooling method of accounting for business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001. In addition, SFAS 141 addresses the accounting for intangible assets and goodwill acquired in a business combination. This portion of SFAS 141 is effective for business combinations completed after June 30, 2001. The adoption of SFAS 141 has not had a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In July 2001, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142 ("SFAS 142"), "Goodwill and Intangible Assets", which revises the accounting for purchased goodwill and intangible assets. Under SFAS 142, goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives will no longer be amortized and will be tested for impairment annually. SFAS 142 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001, with earlier adoption permitted. The adoption of SFAS has not had a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.
