The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued its Order Instituting Proceedings (OIP) on September 7, 2010, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). The OIP alleges that Respondents are each corporations with a class of securities registered with the Commission pursuant to Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act and that each has repeatedly failed to file required periodic reports.

The Office of the Secretary and the Division of Enforcement have provided evidence that all Respondents were served with the OIP in accordance with 17 C.F.R. § 201.141(a)(2)(ii) by September 10, 2010. Respondents' Answers were due ten days from the date of service. See OIP at 4; 17 C.F.R. § 201.220(b). Respondents were put on notice in the OIP and in the Postponement Order issued on September 16, 2010, that failure to file an Answer would be grounds for finding them in default.¹

Since none of the remaining Respondents have filed Answers or otherwise defended the proceeding, they are in default. See 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.155(a)(2), .220(f). Accordingly, the following allegations of the OIP are deemed to be true as to each, with official notice taken of the public official records found in the Commission's EDGAR database of each Respondent discussed below. See 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.155(a), .323.

¹ The proceeding has ended as to Texon Energy Corp., which entered into a settlement with the Commission. Team Am., Inc., Exchange Act Release No. 63079 (Oct. 13, 2010).

In addition to their repeated failures to file timely periodic reports, these seven Respondents have also failed to heed delinquency letters sent to them by the Division of Corporation Finance requesting compliance with their periodic filing obligations or, through their failure to maintain a valid address on file with the Commission as required by rule, did not receive such letters.

Exchange Act Section 13(a) and the rules promulgated thereunder require issuers of securities registered pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 to file with the Commission current and accurate information in periodic reports, even if the registration is voluntary under Section 12(g). Specifically, Exchange Act Rule 13a-1 requires issuers to file annual reports, and Exchange Act Rule 13a-13 requires domestic issuers to file quarterly reports.

As a result of the foregoing, each of these seven Respondents failed to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder. Considering these delinquencies, it is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors to revoke the registrations of each class of registered securities of these Respondents.
