FIBERMARK RECEIVES BANKRUPTCY COURT APPROVAL OF REVISED DISCLOSURE STATEMENT; SOLICITATION OF VOTES ON SETTLEMENT PLAN COMMENCES

BRATTLEBORO, VERMONT, October 27, 2005—FiberMark, Inc. (OTCBB: FMKIQ) today announced that the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Vermont has authorized the company to begin the voting process on its revised Plan of Reorganization based on a newly-approved Disclosure Statement. The revised Plan incorporates a settlement reached among the company's three largest bondholders and the company. If approved, the Plan will result in increased distributions to the company's other bondholders and unsecured creditors and resolution of issues identified by a Court-appointed examiner. The company's prior Plan had proposed a litigation mechanism for addressing the issues that are now the subject of the settlement. The Court had approved the prior Plan's associated disclosure statement last month, in case a settlement was not achieved.

Voting on the company's revised Plan will commence November 1, with a voting deadline of November 22 set by the Court today. The Court also scheduled a confirmation hearing for December 2. Assuming confirmation, the company would expect to emerge from chapter 11 during the first week in January. As expected, the company will become a private company upon its emergence. The shares of current stockholders will be cancelled under the Plan and will have no value upon emergence. Public trading of its stock is not expected to continue beyond the date of chapter 11 emergence, at the latest.
