REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stockholder
of MONEX SECURITIES, INC.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of MONEX SECURITIES, INC. as of December 31, 2017, the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes. In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of MONEX SECURITIES, INC. as of December 31, 2017, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of MONEX SECURITIES, INC.'s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on MONEX SECURITIES, INC.'s financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to MONEX SECURITIES, INC. in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Supplemental Information

The computation of Supplemental Schedule I, Computation of Net Capital Under SEC Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission, has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of MONEX SECURITIES, INC.'s financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of MONEX SECURITIES, INC.'s management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplementary information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

MONEX SECURITIES, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2017

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

MONEX SECURITIES, INC. ("the Company"), a Delaware corporation, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Monex Casa de Bolsa, S.A. de C.V. (Parent), a Mexican corporation and registered Mexican broker. The Company is registered as a broker/dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company's management and administrative operations are located in Texas and related sales activities are conducted primarily in Mexico. The Company's customers are primarily individuals and institutions located throughout Mexico.

Basis of Accounting

The Company operates under the provisions of Paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 of the SEC and, accordingly, is exempt from the remaining provisions of that Rule. Essentially, the requirements of Paragraph (k)(2)(ii) provide that the Company clear all transactions on behalf of customers on a fully disclosed basis with a clearing broker/dealer, and promptly transmit all customer funds and securities to the clearing broker/dealer. The clearing broker/dealer carries all of the accounts of the customers and maintains and preserves all related books and records as are customarily kept by a clearing broker/dealer.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of the assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Foreign Currency Transactions

As an agent, in the normal course of business, the Company enters into securities transactions which are denominated in foreign currencies, primarily the Mexican peso. Realized and unrealized foreign currency gains and losses on such transactions are recorded in income in the period they are incurred. The Company did not record any net realized or unrealized foreign currency losses during 2017. For the purposes of reporting cash flows, the Company has determined that the effect of exchange rate changes on foreign currency transactions is immaterial.

MONEX SECURITIES, INC.

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Cash Equivalents

Money market funds and highly liquid investments, generally government obligations and commercial paper, with an original maturity of three months or less that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business, if any, are reflected as cash equivalents in the accompanying statement of financial condition and for purposes of the statement of cash flows. From time to time, cash balances exceed federally insured limits at certain financial institutions. The Company has not incurred any losses to date regarding these balances.

Marketable Securities

Marketable securities held for trading purposes are recorded at fair value. The increase or decrease in fair value is credited or charged to operations. Realized and unrealized gain on marketable securities of $11,862 are reflected in the accompanying statement of income in other income.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided for using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of five to seven years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred.

Security Transactions

Securities transactions and related income and expense are recorded on the trade date. Realized gains and losses from sales of securities are computed using the first-in, first-out method.

Income Taxes

The Company files its income tax return on a separate company basis.

The Company records its federal and state tax liabilities in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification Topic 740-10, "Accounting for Income Taxes". The Company uses the liability method of accounting for income taxes that requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in the Company's financial statements. In estimating future tax consequences, all expected future events are considered other than enactment of changes in the tax law or rates. The Company provides a valuation allowance, if necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to amounts that are not likely to be realized.

MONEX SECURITIES, INC.

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

The Company's deferred tax liability represents the tax effects of taxable temporary differences in book and tax reporting. The taxable temporary differences consist of depreciation methods and lives.

Risks and Uncertainties

Securities owned and securities sold, not yet purchased are recorded at fair value and have exposure to market risk, including the volatility of securities markets. Significant changes in the prices of these securities could have a significant impact on the Company's results of operations for any particular year.

Advertising Costs

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. The Company did not incur any advertising costs during 2017.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Revenue recognition

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Codification 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606"). The new accounting standard, along with its related amendments, replaces the current rules-based U.S. GAAP governing revenue recognition with a principles-based approach. The Company adopted the new standard on January 1, 2018 using the modified retrospective approach, which requires the Company to apply the new revenue standard to (i) all new revenue contracts entered into after January 1, 2018 and (ii) all existing revenue contracts as of January 1, 2018 through a cumulative adjustment to equity. In accordance with this approach, our revenues for periods prior to January 1, 2018 will not be revised.

The core principle in the new guidance is that a company should recognize revenue in a manner that fairly depicts the transfer of goods or services to customers in amounts that reflect the consideration the company expects to receive for those goods or services. In order to apply this core principle, companies will apply the following five steps in determining the amount of revenues to recognize: (i) identify the contract; (ii) identify the performance obligations in the contract; (iii) determine the transaction price; (iv) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract; and (v) recognize revenue when (or as) the performance obligation is satisfied. Each of these steps involves management's judgment and an analysis of the material terms and conditions of the contract.

MONEX SECURITIES, INC.

We do not anticipate that there will be material differences in the amount or timing of revenues recognized following the new standard's adoption date. Although total revenues may not be materially impacted by the new guidance, we do anticipate significant changes to our disclosures based on the additional requirements prescribed by ASC 606. These new disclosures include information regarding the significant judgments used in evaluating when and how revenue is (or will be) recognized and data related to contract assets and liabilities.

Lease Accounting

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASC 842, Leases ("ASC 842"), which requires substantially all leases (with the exception of leases with a term of one year or less) to be recorded on the balance sheet using a method referred to as the right-of-use ("ROU") asset approach. We plan to adopt the new standard on January 1, 2019 using the modified retrospective method described within ASC 842.

The new standard introduces two lease accounting models, which result in a lease being classified as either a "finance" or "operating" lease on the basis of whether the lessee effectively obtains control of the underlying asset during the lease term. A lease would be classified as a finance lease if it meets one of five classification criteria, four of which are generally consistent with current lease accounting guidance. By default, a lease that does not meet the criteria to be classified as a finance lease will be deemed an operating lease. Regardless of classification, the initial measurement of both lease types will result in the balance sheet recognition of a ROU asset representing a company's right to use the underlying asset for a specified period of time and a corresponding lease liability. The lease liability will be recognized at the present value of the future lease payments, and the ROU asset will equal the lease liability adjusted for any prepaid rent, lease incentives provided by the lessor, and any indirect costs.

The subsequent measurement of each type of lease varies. Leases classified as a finance lease will be accounted for using the effective interest method. Under this approach, a lessee will amortize the ROU asset (generally on a straight-line basis in a manner similar to depreciation) and the discount on the lease liability (as a component of interest expense). Leases classified as an operating lease will result in the recognition of a single lease expense amount that is recorded on a straight-line basis (or another systematic basis, if more appropriate).

MONEX SECURITIES, INC.

We are in the process of reviewing our lease agreements in light of the new guidance. Although we are in the early stages of our ASC 842 implementation project, we anticipate that this new lease guidance will cause significant changes to the way leases are recorded, presented and disclosed in our consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 2: TRANSACTIONS WITH CLEARING BROKER/DEALER

The Company's clearing broker/dealer is a national United States clearing broker/dealer. The agreement with the clearing broker/dealer provides for clearing charges at a fixed rate multiplied by the number of tickets traded by the Company. The agreement also requires the Company to maintain a minimum of $100,000 as a deposit in an account with the clearing broker/dealer.

NOTE 3: NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the SEC uniform net capital rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of a minimum amount of net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2017, the Company had net capital and net capital requirements of $1,412,752 and $250,000 respectively. The Company's net capital ratio was 0.45 to 1.

NOTE 4: FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

Fair value measurement when applicable is reported in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification Topic 820-10, "Fair Value Measurements". ASC 820-10 provides standards and disclosures for assets and liabilities that are measured and reported at fair value. As defined in ASC 820-10, fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price). ASC 820-10 requires disclosure that establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure about fair value measurements. The statement requires fair value measurements be classified and disclosed in one of the following categories:

MONEX SECURITIES, INC.

Level 1: Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities. An active market for the asset or liability is a market in which transactions for the asset or liability occur with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis.

Level 2: Measured based upon inputs that are observable, either directly or indirectly, for the asset or liability other than quoted market prices included in Level 1. These inputs include: a) quoted prices for similar asset or liabilities in active markets b) quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active c) inputs other than quoted market prices that are observable and d) inputs that are derived primarily from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3: Measured based on unobservable inputs for the asset or liability for which there is little, if any, market activity for the asset or liability at the measurement date. This input includes management's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. The inputs are developed based on the best information available in the circumstances, which might include management's own data.

As required by ASC 820-10, financial assets and liabilities are classified based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Our assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement requires judgment, and may affect the valuation of the fair value of assets and liabilities and their placement within the fair value hierarchy levels.

The following is a description of the valuation methodology used for the assets measured at fair value as of December 31, 2017:

Corporate Bonds: Valued at the closing price reported on the active market on which the individual bonds are traded.

Structured Notes: Valued at the closing price reported on the active market on which they are traded.

MONEX SECURITIES, INC.

The following table summarizes the valuation of the Company's financial instruments by ASC 820-10 pricing levels as of December 31, 2017:

	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)	Fair Value at December 31, 2017
Corporate bonds	112,565	-	-	112,565
Structured Note	-	3,381	-	3,381
	$ 112,565	$ 3,381	$ -	$ 115,946

The bonds mature at various dates, ranging from August 2018 to September 2088.

NOTE 5: RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company entered into a services agreement with Monex Asset Management, Inc. (MAMI), an entity under common ownership, in February 2009. This agreement requires the Company to provide administrative services to MAMI. The term of the agreement is indefinite and may be terminated by either party with 30 days written notice. The total service fees earned under this agreement for the year ended December 31, 2017 was $81,600. In addition, the Company gets reimbursed for commissions paid to employees on MAMI's behalf. Total commissions reimbursed for the year ended December 31, 2017 was $542,331. As of December 31, 2017, the total amount receivable from MAMI was $148,984.

During 2017, the Company opened a brokerage account with an affiliate Monex Casa De Bolsa. As of December 31, 2017 the balance was $54,832 and is classified as other assets on the balance sheet.

MONEX SECURITIES, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 6: INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes is as follows for the year ended December 31, 2017:

Federal

Current tax expense	$ 9,297
Deferred tax expense	14,767
Deferred tax benefit from rate changes	(15,276)
Total federal tax expense	8,788

State

Current tax expense	17,916
Total provision for income taxes	$ 26,704

The Company accounts for uncertainty in income taxes in accordance with FASB ASC 740-10, which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return.

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and state of Texas. The Company's federal income tax returns for tax years 2014 and beyond remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Company's Texas Gross Margin tax returns for the tax years 2014 and beyond remain subject to examination by the state of Texas.

The Company did not have unrecognized tax benefits as of December 31, 2017 and does not expect this to change significantly over the next 12 months. The Company recognizes interest and penalties accrued on any unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense in accordance with ASC 740-10-25. As of December 31, 2017, the Company has not accrued interest or penalties related to uncertain tax positions.

On December 22, 2017, the Tax Cuts & Jobs Act ("TCJA") was signed into law. The TCJA changes existing United States tax law and includes numerous provisions that will affect the Company. In accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740-10 Income Taxes, the Company is required to recognize the effect of a change in tax laws or rates at the date of enactment. The Company is allowed to use a measurement period approach and record provisional amounts for the effects of the TCJA to the extent a reasonable estimate can be made for all or a portion of the tax law. Subsequently, the Company will recognize any necessary adjustments to the provision once the Company obtains, prepares or analyzes any additional information that, if known, would have affected the provisional amounts initially recognized. For the year ending December 31, 2017, the Company has made an adjustment to the deferred tax liability to recognize the effect of the reduced corporate tax rate of 21% effective for tax years beginning after December 31, 2017.

MONEX SECURITIES, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 7: PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT, NET

Property and equipment, net consisted of the following at December 31, 2017:

Furniture, fixtures, and equipment	$ 452,320
Accumulated depreciation	(334,810)
	$ 117,510

Depreciation expense for the year was $61,673 and was included as rent and equipment expense in the accompanying financial statement.

NOTE 8: COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Operating Leases

The Company leases office space under operating leases that expire on April 30, 2018, August 31, 2018 and September 30, 2021. Rent expense under these leases was $143,557 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

Future minimum lease payments for years ending December 31 are as follows:

Year	Amount
2018	113,123
2019	104,524
2020	107,659
2021	82,548
Total	$ 407,854

MONEX SECURITIES, INC.

NOTE 8: COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES (Continued)

Security transactions

The Company executes securities transactions on behalf of its customers. If either the customer or the counterparty fails to perform, the Company may be required to discharge the obligation of the nonperforming party. In such circumstances, the Company may sustain a loss if the market value of the security contract is different from the contract value of the transaction. The Company does not expect nonperformance by customers or counterparties.

The Company clears all of its securities transactions through clearing brokers on a fully disclosed basis. Pursuant to the terms of the agreements between the Company and the clearing brokers, the clearing brokers have the right to charge the Company for losses that result from a counterparty's failure to fulfill its contractual obligations. As the right to charge the Company has no maximum amount and applies to all trades executed through the clearing broker, the Company believes there is no maximum amount assignable to this right. At December 31, 2017, the Company has no recorded liabilities with regard to the right. During 2017, the Company did not pay the clearing brokers any amounts related to these guarantees.

The Company's policy is to monitor its market exposure, customer risk, and counterparty risk through the use of a variety of credit exposure reporting and control procedures, including marking-to-market securities and any related collateral as well as requiring adjustments of collateral levels as necessary. In addition, the Company has a policy of reviewing, as considered necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty and customer with which it conducts business.

Other

During the normal course of business, the Company enters into contracts that contain a variety of representation and warranties and which provide general indemnifications. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Company that have not yet occurred.

The Company as a normal course of business has unasserted and asserted claims as a result of lawsuits and regulatory investigations. In accordance with ASC 450-20-25, management evaluates these claims including consultation with legal counsel to determine if the ultimate outcome and monetary obligations are remote or reasonably possible, or probable and estimable. Based on management's evaluation of the claim,

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stakeholder
of MONEX SECURITIES, INC.

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) MONEX SECURITIES, INC. identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which MONEX SECURITIES, INC. claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3: (k)(2)(ii) (exemption provisions) and (2) MONEX SECURITIES, INC. stated that MONEX SECURITIES, INC. met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. MONEX SECURITIES, INC.'s management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about MONEX SECURITIES, INC.'s compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
