The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (OIP) on June 20, 2012, alleging that Respondents have securities registered with the Commission pursuant to Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act), and they have violated Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Exchange Act Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 by failing to file required periodic reports with the Commission.

Each Respondent was served with the OIP on June 21, 2012. All Respondents, except Florida First Equities Corp. (n/k/a Data Imaging Services, Inc.) (Florida First), are in default because they did not file an Answer, did not participate in the prehearing conference on July 13, 2012, and did not otherwise defend the proceeding. See 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.155(a), .220(f), .221(f). I deem the following allegations in the OIP to be true as to each Respondent, except Florida First. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.155(a). In a separate order, issued July 17, 2012, I granted Florida First until July 31, 2012, to decide whether to submit a signed offer of settlement.

Conclusions of Law

Each Respondent, except Florida First, has failed to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and the Exchange Act rules, which require issuers of securities registered with the Commission pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 to file current and accurate information in periodic reports, even if the registration is voluntary under Section 12(g). Specifically, Rule 13a-1 requires all issuers to file annual reports, and Rule 13a-13 requires domestic issuers to file quarterly reports.

Section 12(j) of the Exchange Act authorizes the Commission, where it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors, to revoke the registration of a security where the issuer of a security has failed to comply with a provision of the Exchange Act or the rules thereunder. I conclude on these facts that revocation of the registration of each class of the registered securities of Foodquest, Foodvision.com, Forefront, Futronix Group, Genicom, and Global Online India, is both necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors.

Order

I ORDER, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that the registration of each class of registered securities of Foodquest, Inc., Foodvision.com, Inc., Forefront, Inc. (f/k/a Anyox Resources, Inc.), Futronix Group, Inc., Genicom Corp. (n/k/a Oldgen, Inc.), and Global Online India, Inc., is hereby REVOKED.
