Subject: Important Internal Announcement

Dear Employees:

You may have seen in the news yesterday that activist shareholder, Land and Buildings, filed a lawsuit against the Company related to the Taubman family's ownership and voting power. As we stated publicly today, we believe the lawsuit is entirely without merit and we intend to vigorously defend ourselves in court.

While we do not typically comment on pending litigation, we believe it is important to again set the record straight on the persistently erroneous allegations of Land and Buildings. We believe the lawsuit is a tactic by Land and Buildings to advance its campaign to elect its nominees to the Taubman Board.

The entire Board is confident that our director nominees, along with the rest of our directors, bring complementary experience and skills to oversee the Company's strategic plan. Thanks to your hard work and that of the entire team, we have created a track record of value creation and long-term growth that demonstrates the strength of our proven strategy.

If you are a Taubman shareholder, you may vote in favor of the Board's nominees by following the instructions you received on the WHITE proxy card. Each vote is important regardless of the number of shares owned. If you have any questions regarding how to vote, please reach out to the Company's proxy solicitor, Innisfree, toll-free at (888) 750-5834 (from the U.S. or Canada) or (412) 232-3651 (from other locations).

Importantly, this news has no impact on our day-to-day operations which remain business-as-usual. As always, if you are contacted by the press or investors, please refer them to Maria Mainville or Ryan Hurren.

On behalf of our Board and senior management team, I thank you for your continued dedication to Taubman.

Bobby
