Sales orders continue to outpace last year's rate and current order backlogs are at all time highs. "Barrier is not experiencing any slowdown in activity for sales due to the softening of the real estate market in some regions of the US", states Dr. Michael Huddy, President and CEO. "Our continuing ability to increase market share by: adding new targeted sales geographies; create new product applications for our technology; and, by adding new builder customers in existing sales regions, will continue to help us grow significantly in the future. The fact that our new production line, being further implemented as we speak, is responsible for more and more of our manufactured volume and accounted for nearly 19% of our production volume for the month of June, 2006 insures that there is ample capacity for our growth in the near and mid-term"
