Dear Mr. Quint:

We have reviewed your May 29, 2008 response to our May 23, 2008 letter and have the following comments. In our comments, we ask you to provide us with information to better understand your disclosure. Where a comment requests you to revise disclosure, the information you provide should show us what the revised disclosure will look like. Please revise your current Form S-1 file number 333-151029 to include this information and the revised disclosure that you provided to comments five, six, seven and nine in your May 29th response. Also, please identify the annual or quarterly filing, as applicable, in which you intend to first include all of these disclosures. If you do not believe that revised disclosure is necessary, explain the reason in your response. After reviewing the information provided, we may raise additional comments and/or request that you amend the above filings.

1. We acknowledge your response to prior comment four. If you wish to request a waiver of the requirement to provide the financial statements required under Item 3-09 of Regulation S-X, please submit this request directly to the Office of Chief Accountant for the Division of Corporation Finance, indicating why you believe this requirement is unreasonable under the circumstances. Alternatively, amend your filing to provide the required financial statements.

2. We acknowledge your response to prior comment five. Please tell us if you hold investments in other securities that you guarantee besides NIMS. If so, please disclose their amount and your accounting policies relating to these investments.
3. We acknowledge your response to prior comment eight. Please tell us the portion of your investment portfolio insured by monoline insurance companies for which the underlying obligations are non-investment grade.

Form 10-Q for the Fiscal Quarter Ended March 31, 2008

Note 2 – Fair Value of Financial Instruments, page 6

4. We acknowledge your response to prior comments seven and nine. Your proposed revised disclosures consist primarily of general descriptions of the internal models. With the objective of providing insight to investors regarding how fair value is determined for each type of derivative instrument, please revise to include a description of each respective valuation model and the key inputs and assumptions used in each model. In addition, the sensitivity analysis noted in your response is based on hypothetical changes in credit spreads on aggregate basis, and appears to address the requirements of Item 305 of Regulation S-K. We believe that sensitivity analysis should also be provided in MD&A regarding assumptions that affect the fair value of each major category of your derivative instruments, based on reasonably likely rather than hypothetical changes in key inputs and assumptions. Please refer to Section V of Interpretative Release 33-8350 and revise your disclosures as appropriate.
5. You state that the fair value of your assumed financial guaranty credit derivatives and mortgage insurance domestic and international CDSs are based primarily on market quotes obtained from third parties, and that such instruments are not considered to be a material portion of your total risk exposure to derivative instruments. Please tell us why you believe that these instruments are not considered to be a material portion of your total risk exposure to derivative instruments. Given that these instruments comprise 20% of your total derivative liabilities at March 31, 2008, they would appear to be material to an investor.
6. The disclosure noted in comment five above appears to imply that third parties determine the fair value of these derivative instruments rather than management.
 - If this is not the case, please revise your disclosure to clarify.
 - In either case, please ensure that your disclosure as revised for comment four above describes the techniques and assumptions used to determine fair value.

Further, while you are not required to indicate or infer that the third parties determine fair value, when you do, you must also disclose their names. If you include their names in our incorporate them by reference into a 1933 Securities Act Filing, you will also need to include their consents.
