Supplement Dated September 20, 2007, to the Prospectus Dated May 1, 2001

This supplement updates and amends certain information contained in your prospectus dated May 1, 2001.
Please read it carefully and keep it with your prospectus for future reference.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING AN UPCOMING CHANGE TO OUR EXCESSIVE TRADING POLICY

Effective October 16, 2007, the Company's Excessive Trading Policy will change and the "Limits on Frequent or Disruptive Transfers" section added by supplement dated February 2, 2007, to the "Excessive Trading" section beginning on page 35 of your Policy prospectus will be replaced with the following:

Limits on Frequent or Disruptive Transfers

The Policy is not designed to serve as a vehicle for frequent transfers. Frequent transfer activity can disrupt management of a Fund and raise its expenses through:

- Increased trading and transaction costs;
- Forced and unplanned portfolio turnover;
- Lost opportunity costs; and
- Large asset swings that decrease the Fund's ability to provide maximum investment return to all Policy owners.

This in turn can have an adverse effect on Fund performance. Accordingly, individuals or organizations that use market-timing investment strategies or make frequent transfers should not purchase the Policy.

Excessive Trading Policy. We and the other members of the ING family of companies that provide multi-Fund variable insurance and retirement products have adopted a common Excessive Trading Policy to respond to the demands of the various Fund families that make their Funds available through our products to restrict excessive Fund trading activity and to ensure compliance with Rule 22c-2 of the 1940 Act.

We actively monitor Fund transfer and reallocation activity within our variable insurance products to identify violations of our Excessive Trading Policy. Our Excessive Trading Policy is violated if Fund transfer and reallocation activity:

- Meets or exceeds our current definition of Excessive Trading, as defined below; or
- Is determined, in our sole discretion, to be disruptive or not in the best interests of other owners of our variable insurance and retirement products.

We currently define Excessive Trading as:

- More than one purchase and sale of the same Fund (including money market Funds) within a 60 calendar day period (hereinafter, a purchase and sale of the same Fund is referred to as a “round-trip”). This means two or more round-trips involving the same Fund within a 60 calendar day period would meet our definition of Excessive Trading; or
- Six round-trips involving the same Fund within rolling a twelve month period.

The following transactions are excluded when determining whether trading activity is excessive:

- Purchases or sales of shares related to non-Fund transfers (for example, new premium payments, withdrawals and Policy loans);
- Transfers associated with scheduled dollar cost averaging, scheduled rebalancing or scheduled asset allocation programs;
- Purchases and sales of Fund shares in the amount of $5,000 or less;
- Purchases and sales of Funds that affirmatively permit short-term trading in their Fund shares, and movement between such Funds and a money market Fund; and
- Transactions initiated by us, another member of the ING family of companies or a Fund.

If we determine that an individual or entity has made a purchase of a Fund within 60 days of a prior round-trip involving the same Fund, we will send them a letter (once per year) warning that another sale of that same Fund within 60 days of the beginning of the prior round-trip will be deemed to be Excessive Trading and result in a six month suspension of their ability to initiate Fund transfers or reallocations through the Internet, facsimile, Voice Response Unit (VRU), telephone calls to the ING Customer Service Center or other electronic trading medium that we may make available from time to time (“Electronic Trading Privileges”). Likewise, if we determine that an individual or entity has made five round-trips involving the same Fund within a rolling twelve month period, we will send them a letter warning that another purchase and sale of that same Fund within twelve months of the initial purchase in the first round-trip will be deemed to be Excessive Trading and result in a suspension of their Electronic Trading Privileges. According to the needs of the various business units, a copy of any warning letters may also be sent, as applicable, to the person(s) or entity authorized to initiate Fund transfers or reallocations, the agent/registered representative or the investment adviser for that individual or entity. A copy of the warning letters and details of the individual’s or entity’s trading activity may also be sent to the Fund whose shares were involved in the trading activity.

If we determine that an individual or entity has violated our Excessive Trading Policy, we will send them a letter stating that their Electronic Trading Privileges have been suspended for a period of six months. Consequently, all Fund transfers or reallocations, not just those that involve the Fund whose shares were involved in the activity that violated our Excessive Trading Policy, will then have to be initiated by providing written instructions to us via regular U.S. mail. Suspension of Electronic Trading Privileges may also extend to products other than the product through which the Excessive Trading activity occurred. During the six month suspension period, electronic “inquiry only” privileges will be permitted where and when possible. A copy of the letter restricting future transfer and reallocation activity to regular U.S. mail and details of the individual’s or entity’s trading activity may also be sent, as applicable, to the person(s) or entity authorized to initiate Fund transfers or reallocations, the agent/registered representative or investment adviser for that individual or entity and the Fund whose shares were involved in the activity that violated our Excessive Trading Policy.

Following the six month suspension period during which no additional violations of our Excessive Trading Policy are identified, Electronic Trading Privileges may again be restored. We will continue to monitor the Fund transfer and reallocation activity, and any future violations of our Excessive Trading Policy will result in an indefinite suspension of Electronic Trading Privileges. A violation of our Excessive Trading Policy during the six month suspension period will also result in an indefinite suspension of Electronic Trading Privileges.

We reserve the right to suspend Electronic Trading Privileges with respect to any individual or entity, with or without prior notice, if we determine, in our sole discretion, that the individual's or entity's trading activity is disruptive or not in the best interests of other owners of our variable insurance and retirement products, regardless of whether the individual's or entity's trading activity falls within the definition of Excessive Trading set forth above.

Our failure to send or an individual's or entity's failure to receive any warning letter or other notice contemplated under our Excessive Trading Policy will not prevent us from suspending that individual's or entity's Electronic Trading Privileges or taking any other action provided for in our Excessive Trading Policy.

Except as noted below with respect to Paul M. Prusky, we do not allow exceptions to our Excessive Trading Policy. We reserve the right to modify our Excessive Trading Policy, or the policy as it relates to a particular Fund, at any time without prior notice, depending on, among other factors, the needs of the underlying Funds(s), the best interests of Policy owners and Fund investors and/or state or federal regulatory requirements. If we modify our policy, it will be applied uniformly to all Policy owners or, as applicable, to all Policy owners investing in the underlying Fund.

Our Excessive Trading Policy may not be completely successful in preventing market timing or excessive trading activity. If it is not completely successful, Fund performance and management may be adversely affected, as noted above.

Since late 2003, we have been engaged in litigation with Paul M. Prusky ("Prusky"), and others, regarding a 1998 agreement between Prusky and ReliaStar. Under the agreement, Prusky, through a profit-sharing plan, engaged in frequent electronic trading between Sub-Accounts available through certain ReliaStar variable life insurance policies ("market timing"). Beginning in late 2003, ReliaStar refused to accept electronic trading instructions from Prusky because of violations of our Excessive Trading Policy.

On January 5, 2007, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (the "Federal Court") ordered ReliaStar to accept and effect Prusky's Sub-Account transfer instructions electronically "without limitation as to the number of transfer instructions so long as those transfers are not explicitly barred by a specific condition imposed by the Fund in which the Sub-Account is invested." (Order Granting in Part Summary Judgment, Paul M. Prusky, et al. v. ReliaStar Life Insurance Company, Civil Action No. 03-6196, Jan. 5, 2007, and Order Denying Defendant's Motion for Clarification, dated January 12, 2007 ("Order")). In light of the Order, we must accept and effect Prusky's electronic transfer instructions.

When issuing the Order, the Federal Court did state that we could enforce conditions and/or restrictions on trading imposed by the Funds in which the ReliaStar Sub-Accounts invest. (Memorandum Accompanying the Order, at pp. 9-10.) We will enforce all such Fund-imposed conditions and/or restrictions consistent with the Order and the judgment of the Federal Court in a related matter.

Prusky's ReliaStar policies include Sub-Accounts which invest in all the same Funds as are available through this Policy. The prospectus for each Fund describes restrictions imposed by the Fund to prevent or minimize frequent trading.

Limits Imposed by the Funds. Each underlying Fund available through the variable insurance and retirement products offered by us and/or the other members of the ING family of companies, either by prospectus or stated Policy, has adopted or may adopt its own excessive/frequent trading policy, and orders for the purchase of Fund shares are subject to acceptance or rejection by the underlying Fund. We reserve the right, without prior notice, to implement Fund purchase restrictions and/or limitations on an individual or entity that the Fund has identified as violating its excessive/frequent trading policy and to reject any allocation or transfer request to a Sub-Account if the corresponding Fund will not accept the allocation or transfer for any reason. All such restrictions and/or limitations (which may include, but are not limited to, suspension of Electronic Trading Privileges and/or blocking of future purchases of a Fund or all Funds within a Fund family) will be done in accordance with the directions we receive from the Fund.

Agreements to Share Information with Fund Companies. As required by Rule 22c-2 under the 1940 Act, we have entered into information sharing agreements with each of the Fund companies whose Funds are offered through the Policy. Policy owner trading information is shared under these agreements as necessary for the Fund companies to monitor Fund trading and our implementation of our Excessive Trading Policy. Under these agreements, the company is required to share information regarding Policy owner transactions, including but not limited to information regarding Fund transfers initiated by you. In addition to information about Policy owner transactions, this information may include personal Policy owner information, including names and social security numbers or other tax identification numbers.

As a result of this information sharing, a Fund company may direct us to restrict a Policy owner's transactions if the Fund determines that the Policy owner has violated the Fund's excessive/frequent trading policy. This could include the Fund directing us to reject any allocations of premium or Accumulation Value to the Fund or all Funds within the Fund family.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING UPCOMING FUND LIQUIDATIONS

On July 12, 2007, the Board of Trustees of ING Investors Trust approved a proposal to liquidate the:

- ING MarketPro Portfolio;
- ING MarketStyle Growth Portfolio;
- ING MarketStyle Moderate Growth Portfolio; and
- ING MarketStyle Moderate Portfolio.

The proposed liquidation is subject to shareholder approval. If shareholder approval is obtained, it is expected that the liquidation will take place on or about November 10, 2007 (the "Closing Date").

Voluntary Transfers Before the Closing Date. Anytime prior to the Closing Date you may transfer amounts that you have allocated to the Sub-Accounts that invest in the ING MarketPro Portfolio, the ING MarketStyle Growth Portfolio, the ING MarketStyle Moderate Growth Portfolio and/or the ING MarketStyle Moderate Portfolio to any of the other available investment options. There will be no charge for any such transfer, and any such transfer will not count as a transfer when imposing any applicable restriction or limit on transfers. You may give us alternative allocation instructions at any time by contacting the ING Customer Service Center at P.O. Box 5011, Minot, ND 58702-5011, 1-877-886-5050. See also the "Transfers" section on page 33 of your Policy prospectus for further information about making Fund allocation changes.

Automatic Reallocation Upon Liquidation. After the Closing Date and our receipt of the proceeds from the liquidation of the ING MarketPro Portfolio, the ING MarketStyle Growth Portfolio, the ING MarketStyle Moderate Growth Portfolio and the ING MarketStyle Moderate Portfolio, amounts that were allocated to the Sub-Accounts that invested in these portfolios will be automatically reallocated to the Sub-Account that invests in the ING Liquid Assets Portfolio. There will be no charge for this automatic reallocation, and this automatic reallocation will not count as a transfer when imposing any applicable restriction or limit on transfers. Furthermore, you will not incur any tax liability because of this automatic reallocation, and your Accumulation Value immediately before the reallocation will equal your Accumulation Value immediately after the reallocation.

Future Allocations. After the Closing Date, the Sub-Accounts that invested in the ING MarketPro Portfolio, the ING MarketStyle Growth Portfolio, the ING MarketStyle Moderate Growth Portfolio and/or the ING MarketStyle Moderate Portfolio will be no longer available through your Policy. Any future allocations directed to a Sub-Account that invested in one of these portfolios will be automatically allocated to the Sub-Account that invests in the ING Liquid Assets Portfolio.

Information about the ING Liquid Assets Portfolio. The following chart lists the investment adviser and subadviser and information regarding the investment objectives of the ING Liquid Assets Portfolio. More detailed information can be found in the current prospectus and Statement of Additional Information for that Fund. You may obtain these documents by contacting the ING Customer Service Center at P.O. Box 5011, Minot, ND 58702-5011, 1-877-886-5050.

Fund Name	Investment Adviser/ Subadviser	Investment Objective
ING Liquid Assets Portfolio	Investment Adviser: Directed Services LLC Subadviser: ING Investment Management Co.	Seeks high level of current income consistent with the preservation of capital and liquidity.

There will be no further disclosure regarding the ING MarketPro Portfolio, the ING MarketStyle Growth Portfolio, the ING MarketStyle Moderate Growth Portfolio and the ING MarketStyle Moderate Portfolio in future supplements to the prospectus.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE ING FUNDAMENTAL RESEARCH PORTFOLIO

Fund Reorganization. On April 28, 2006, the Sub-Account that invested in the ING Fundamental Research Portfolio was closed to new investors and to new investments by existing investors. On July 12, 2007, the Board of Directors of ING Partners, Inc. approved a proposal to reorganize the ING Fundamental Research Portfolio into the ING VP Growth and Income Portfolio. If this proposed reorganization is approved, the ING Fundamental Research Portfolio will, on or about November 12, 2007, reorganize into and become part of the ING VP Growth and Income Portfolio. Your investment in the ING Fundamental Research Portfolio will automatically become an investment in the ING VP Growth and Income Portfolio with an equal total net asset value.

Policy owners who had Accumulation Value allocated to the ING Fundamental Research Portfolio may leave their Accumulation Value in the Sub-Account that invests in the ING VP Growth and Income Portfolio, but future allocations and transfers into this Sub-Account will be prohibited. If your most recent premium allocation instructions includes the Sub-Account that corresponds to the ING Fundamental Research Portfolio, premium received that would have been allocated to the Sub-Account corresponding to this Fund will be allocated on a pro-rata basis among all the other available Sub-Accounts in which your Accumulation Value is allocated. If there are no other such Sub-Accounts, you must provide us with alternative allocation instructions or the premium payment will be returned to you. You may give us alternative allocation instructions by contacting our ING Customer Service Center at P.O. Box 5011, Minot, ND 58702-5011, 1-877-886-5050. See the “Transfers” section on page 33 of your Policy prospectus for information about making Fund allocation changes.

Your failure to provide us with alternative allocation instructions before we return your premium payment(s) may result in your Policy entering the 61 day grace period and/or your Policy lapsing without value. See the “Lapse” section of your Policy prospectus for more information about how to keep your Policy from lapsing. See also the “Reinstatement” section of your Policy prospectus for more information about how to put your Policy back in force if it has lapsed.

You will not incur any fees or charges or any tax liability because of this reorganization, and your Accumulation Value immediately before the reorganization will equal your Accumulation Value immediately after the reorganization.

There will be no further disclosure regarding the ING Fundamental Research Portfolio in future supplements to the prospectus.

Please note the following summary information about the ING VP Growth and Income Portfolio:

Fund Name	Investment Adviser/ Subadviser	Investment Objective
ING VP Growth and Income Portfolio	Investment Adviser: ING Investments, LLC Subadviser: ING Investment Management Co.	Seeks to maximize total return through investments in a diversified portfolio of common stocks and securities convertible into common stock.
