Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)
March 31, 2003
(Thousands of dollars, except as noted and per share amounts)

Note A Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair financial presentation have been included. Past operating results are not necessarily indicative of the results which may occur in future periods, and the interim period results are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Note B Restructuring Charges and Discontinued Operations

During the first quarter of 2003, the Company recorded restructuring charges related to continuing operations of $7.0 million. These charges, which represent the continuation of the Company’s restructuring plan that commenced in the fourth quarter of 2002, are recorded in a separate line in the Condensed Statement of Consolidated Operations. These charges impacted the base metal chemistry ($3.8 million) and precious metal chemistry segments ($3.2 million), respectively. Restructuring liabilities at December 31, 2002 related to continuing operations, charges taken in the first quarter of 2003, and amounts utilized in 2003 to date are summarized as follows (in millions):

	Number of Employees	Workforce Reductions	Asset write-downs	Facility Exit and Other	Total
Balance at 12/31/02	149	$20.3	$ 0	$ 2.0	$ 22.3
Charges in 2003	32	2.3	1.5	3.2	7.0
Utilized in 2003	(176)	(9.7)	(1.5)	(1.2)	(12.4)

Balance at 3/31/03	5	$12.9	$ 0	$ 4.0	$ 16.9

Workforce reductions in 2003 relate primarily to certain United States employees in the precious metals group.

In connection with the first quarter 2003 restructuring activities, the Company also recorded charges of $3.1 million related to discontinued operations — primarily to adjust these operations to their estimated net realizable value upon disposal. Operating results for discontinued operations for the respective periods ended March 31, which are included in Loss from Discontinued Operations on the Condensed Statements of Consolidated Operations, are summarized as follows (in millions):

	2003	2002
Net sales	$29.1	$29.7
Operating loss	$ (2.1)	$ (0.2)

Note CInventories

	March 31, 2003	December 31, 2002
Raw materials and supplies	$438,375	$310,134
Finished goods	221,498	347,251
	659,873	657,385
LIFO reserve	26,863	28,217
Total inventories	$686,736	$685,602

Note DContingent Matters

The Company is a party to various legal proceedings incidental to its business and is subject to a variety of environmental and pollution control laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which it operates. As is the case with other companies in similar industries, the Company faces exposure from actual or potential claims and legal proceedings involving environmental matters. Although it is very difficult to quantify the potential impact of compliance with or liability under environmental protection laws, management believes that the ultimate aggregate cost to the Company of environmental remediation, as well as other legal proceedings arising out of operations in the normal course of business, will not result in a material adverse effect upon its financial condition or results of operations.

Note H

Stock Compensation

The Company grants stock options for a fixed number of shares to certain employees with an exercise price equal to the fair value of the shares at the date of grant and accounts for stock options using the intrinsic value method. Accordingly, compensation expense is not recognized for the stock option grants.

In December 2002, SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation — Transition and Disclosure, was issued. SFAS No. 148 amends SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, to provide alternative methods of transition when a company voluntarily changes to the fair value based method of recognizing expense in results of operations for stock-based employee compensation, including stock options granted to employees. As allowed by SFAS No. 148, the Company has adopted the disclosure-only provisions of the Standard and does not recognize expense for stock options granted to employees. If the Company had elected to adopt the provisions of SFAS No. 148 and thereby record compensation expense related to these grants, pro forma net income (loss) per diluted share would have been as follows:

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2003	2002
Net income (loss)
As reported	$(7,764)	$23,368
Pro forma	$(7,836)	$22,644
Basic net income (loss) per share
As reported	$ (0.27)	$ 0.86
Pro forma	$ (0.28)	$ 0.84
Diluted net income (loss) per share
As reported	$ (0.27)	$ 0.85
Pro forma	$ (0.28)	$ 0.82

The fair value of these options was estimated at the date of grant using a Black-Scholes options pricing model with the following weighted-average assumptions:

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2003	2002
Risk-free interest rate	5.0%	5.0%
Dividend yield	—	1.2%
Volatility factor of Company common stock	.67	.24
Weighted-average expected option life (years)	5	5

Note I

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased. Cash and cash equivalents also include euro deposits of €9.4 million at March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, which are restricted.

Note J

Income Taxes

The effective income tax rate for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was 130.6% compared to 24.1% in the same period in 2002. The higher rate in 2003 is due primarily to the impact of the $7.0 million restructuring charge for continuing operations, which resulted in a corresponding tax benefit of $0.2 million, or 2.1%. This calculated rate of 2.1% is lower than the statutory rate in the United States due to the recognition of a valuation allowance (approximately $2.3 million) against the portion of the benefit that relates to the United States. Before the impact of the charge, the effective rate for the 2003 first quarter was 40.0%. This rate is higher than the corresponding rate in 2002 due primarily to losses in the United States with no corresponding tax benefit in 2003.

Note K

Subsequent Event

On April 1, 2003, in connection with its restructuring program, the Company completed the sale of its copper powders business — SCM Metal Products, Inc. — for proceeds of $65 million less expenses. The results of this business unit, which had net sales of $22 million for the three months ended March 31, 2003, are included in Loss from Discontinued Operations in the Company’s Condensed Statements of Consolidated Operations for each period through the effective date of sale.

Note L

Guarantor and Non-Guarantor Subsidiary Information

In December 2001, the Company issued $400 million in aggregate principal amount of 9.25% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011 (the “Notes”). These Notes are guaranteed by the Company’s wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries. The guarantees are full, unconditional and joint and several.

The Company’s foreign subsidiaries are not guarantors of these Notes. The Company, as presented below, represents OM Group, Inc. exclusive of its guarantor subsidiaries and its non-guarantor subsidiaries. Condensed consolidating financial information for the Company, the guarantor subsidiaries, and the non-guarantor subsidiaries is as follows:

Item 2Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Three Months Ended March 31, 2003 Compared to Three Months Ended March 31, 2002 — Continuing Operations

Net sales for the three months ended March 31, 2003 were $1.320 billion, an increase of 13.9% compared to the same period in 2002. The increase was primarily the result of higher sales volumes of cobalt products; higher cobalt and nickel market prices resulting in higher selling prices; increased sales in the auto catalyst business; and the favorable impact of the euro in 2003 compared to the same period in 2002.

Gross profit decreased to $102.1 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2003, an 8.0% decrease compared to $111.0 million for the same period in 2002. The decrease in gross profit was primarily due to the negative impact of lower production in 2003 in the base metal segment; the negative impact of the strengthening euro against the dollar; a LIFO charge associated with the cobalt and nickel businesses; the negative impact of the nickel salts plant operating below capacity; and a ramp-up in costs in the automotive catalyst business in the first quarter of 2003, in anticipation of expected new business in the second half of 2003. Cost of products sold increased to $1.218 billion from $1.048 billion in 2002, or to 92.3% from 90.4% of net sales, primarily as a result of the foregoing factors.

Selling, general and administrative expenses in 2003 declined as a percentage of sales, from 5.0% in 2003 compared to 5.1% in the 2002 period. This decline was primarily the result of cost reductions from restructuring activities initiated in the fourth quarter of 2002, partially offset by the impact of the strengthening euro against the dollar. The increase in SG&A expenses of approximately $6.8 million was due primarily to higher sales in 2003, as well as increased Corporate expenses incurred in connection with the various restructuring activities.

During 2003, the Company recorded restructuring charges related to continuing operations of $7.0 million. These charges represent the continuation of the Company’s restructuring program that commenced in the fourth quarter of 2002. (See Note B).

Other expense — net was $26.4 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2003, compared to $16.8 million for the same period in 2002, due primarily to increased interest expense of $7.0 million as a result of higher borrowing rates under the Company’s amended credit facilities. In addition, the Company realized foreign exchange losses in 2003 of $1.9 million, compared to $0.6 million in 2002.

Income taxes as a percentage of income before income taxes, minority interests and equity income were 130.6% compared to 24.1% in the same period in 2002. The higher rate in 2003 is due primarily to the impact of the $7.0 million restructuring charge for continuing operations, which resulted in a corresponding income tax benefit of $0.2 million, or 2.1%. This calculated rate of 2.1% is lower than the statutory rate in the United States due to the recognition of a valuation allowance (approximately $2.3 million) against the portion of the benefit that relates to the United States. Before the impact of the charge, the effective rate for the 2003 first quarter was 40.0%. This rate is higher than the corresponding rate in 2002 due primarily to losses in the United States with no corresponding tax benefit in 2003.

Loss from continuing operations for the three-month period ended March 31, 2003 was $4.8 million, compared to income of $24.7 million for the corresponding period in 2002, due to the aforementioned factors.

Discontinued Operations

In connection with the restructuring plan, certain businesses previously associated with the base metal chemistry segment were identified as discontinued operations in the fourth quarter of 2002. As discussed in Note K, effective April 1, 2003 the Company sold its copper powders business located in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina and Johnstown, Pennsylvania. In addition, the Company also closed its manufacturing facilities and related businesses in St. George, Utah (tungsten reclamation/cobalt recycling); Midland, Michigan (tungsten carbide fine powders) and Newark, New Jersey (electroless nickel). These operations have been presented as discontinued operations for all periods presented. The 2003 results for discontinued operations include a charge of $3.1 million associated with the planned disposal of these assets.

Base metal chemistry segment

The base metal chemistry segment includes the cobalt, nickel and other base metal chemistry manufacturing businesses. The following information summarizes market prices of the primary raw materials used by the base metal chemistry segment:

	Market Price Ranges per Pound Three Months Ended March 31,
	2003	2002
Cobalt - 99.3% Grade	$6.45 to $8.60	$6.40 to $7.30
Nickel	$3.28 to $4.07	$2.63 to $3.03

The following information summarizes the physical volumes of cobalt and nickel products sold by the base metal chemistry segment:

(in millions of pounds)	Three Months Ended March 31,		Percentage Change
	2003	2002
Cobalt	5.1	4.4	15.9%
Nickel	30.9	30.4	1.6%

Operating profit for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was $19.9 million compared to $33.4 million for the same period in 2002. The decline was primarily the result of restructuring charges of $3.8 million in 2003; the negative impact of the strengthening euro against the dollar (approximately $10 million); the negative impact of lower production in 2003 (approximately $8 million, including a related LIFO charge of $3.7 million); and the negative impact of the nickel salts plant operating below capacity (approximately $2 million). These factors were partially offset by the favorable impact of higher metal prices and volume growth in the cobalt and nickel businesses (approximately $6 million), and the cost savings realized in connection with the Company’s restructuring program (approximately $4 million).

Net sales for the period increased to $209.3 million compared to $166.6 million during the same period in 2002, due to an increase in physical volumes and the favorable impact of the higher average nickel and cobalt market prices, which resulted in increased selling prices.

Precious metal chemistry segment

The precious metal chemistry segment includes the auto catalyst business and other precious metals manufacturing businesses. This segment develops, produces and markets specialty chemicals and related materials, predominantly from platinum group and precious metals such as platinum, palladium, rhodium, gold and silver. This segment also offers a variety of refining and processing services to users of precious metals. Operating profit was $15.4 million for the period compared to $20.5 million in 2002, due primarily to restructuring charges in 2003 of approximately $3.2 million, as well as increased costs in 2003 for new business that is expected to come on-line in the second half of the year.

Net sales were $433.0 million in 2003 compared to $382.9 million in 2002, due primarily to increased demand in the auto catalyst business.

Metal management segment

The metal management segment acts as a metal sourcing operation for both the Company's operations and customers, primarily procuring precious metals. Operating profit was $2.0 million in 2003 compared to $4.2 million in 2002, primarily because less capital was available to this business unit for trading activities due to the Company's current financial condition. Net sales for the period were $763.2 million compared to $666.7 million in 2002.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

During the three-month period ended March 31, 2003, the Company's net working capital increased by approximately $12.8 million. This increase was primarily the result of an increase in accounts receivable due to higher sales in the first quarter of 2003 compared to the fourth quarter of 2002, partially offset by an increase in accrued expenses due primarily to the timing of payments related to accrued interest on borrowings. Capital expenditures in 2003 were $12.8 million and primarily related to capacity expansions at various precious metal chemistry locations. These capital expenditures were funded primarily through cash flow from operations.

During the three months ended March 31, 2003, the Company's total debt balances decreased to $1.192 billion from $1.219 billion. This decrease represents cash repayments using cash flow from operations. Effective April 1, 2003, the Company completed the sale of its copper powders business — SCM Metal Products, Inc. — for cash proceeds of $65 million before expenses. The net proceeds from this disposition have been used to further reduce the Company's bank borrowings during the second quarter of 2003.

During the first quarter of 2003, as originally announced in the fourth quarter of 2002, the Company continued to explore strategic alternatives regarding a potential investor for some or all of its precious metals business.

The Company's credit facilities include covenants that require the Company to reduce its debt in relation to total capital, and its debt in relation to earnings before interest expense, income taxes, depreciation and amortization. The Company is in compliance with its debt covenants at March 31, 2003 and believes that it will have sufficient cash generated by operations and from divestitures to meet future covenant requirements through December 31, 2003. If the Company is unable to generate sufficient cash from operations and divestitures during 2003, the Company may be in default of its credit facilities, and the bank group may choose not to provide additional funding to the Company under the credit facilities. If that were the case, the Company might not have sufficient capital to meet the needs of the business. Under the existing credit agreements, certain financial covenants become more stringent each quarter, with the most stringent covenants applicable in the first quarter of 2004. Unless the Company's results of operations improve during the next twelve months compared to the preceding twelve months, the Company may need to renegotiate these covenants prior to March 31, 2004.

Critical Accounting Policies

The consolidated financial statements include accounts of the company and all majority-owned subsidiaries. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions in certain circumstances that affect amounts reported in the accompanying consolidated financial statements and related footnotes. In preparing these financial statements, management has made its best estimates and judgments of certain amounts included in the financial statements, giving due consideration to materiality. Application of these accounting policies involves the exercise of judgment and use of assumptions as to future uncertainties and, as a result, actual results could differ from these estimates. There has been no change in the company's critical accounting policies as disclosed in Form 10-K filed for the year ended December 31, 2002. In addition, no new critical accounting policies have been adopted in the first three months of 2003.

Cautionary Statements

The Company is making this statement in order to satisfy the “safe harbor” provisions contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. This report contains statements that the Company believes may be “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These forward-looking statements are not historical facts and generally can be identified by use of statements that include phrases such as “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “foresee” or other words or phrases of similar import. Similarly, statements that describe the Company’s objectives, plans or goals also are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict, may be beyond the Company’s control and could cause actual results to differ materially from those currently anticipated. Factors that could materially affect these forward-looking statements can be found in this report.

Important facts that may affect the Company’s expectations, estimates or projections include:

- the price and supply of raw materials, particularly cobalt, nickel, copper, platinum, palladium, rhodium, gold and silver;
- the demand for metal-based specialty chemicals and products in the Company’s markets;
- the effect of non-currency risks of investing in and conducting operations in foreign countries, including political, social, economic and regulatory factors;
- the effects of the substantial debt we have incurred in connection with the Company’s acquisition of the operations of dmc2 and the Company’s ability to refinance or repay that debt;
- the effect of fluctuations in currency exchange rates on the Company’s international operations;
- the impact of the Company’s restructuring program on its continuing operations;
- the ability of the Company to identify potential buyers for its assets held for sale, and a potential investor for its precious metal chemistry business, which in turn may impact the Company’s ability to meet its debt covenants with respect to net proceeds from assets sales;
- the potential impact of the Company being named in a 2002 United Nations panel report focusing on companies and individuals operating in the Democratic Republic of Congo;
- the potential impact of an adverse result of the shareholder class action lawsuits filed against the Company and the named executives.

The Company does not assume any obligation to update these forward-looking statements.

Item 3 Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

A discussion of market risk exposures is included in Part II, Item 7a, “Qualitative and Quantitative Disclosure About Market Risk”, of the Company’s 2002 Annual Report on Form 10-K. There have been no material changes during the three months ended March 31, 2003.

Item 4 Controls and Procedures

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company carried out an evaluation under the supervision and with the participation of the Company’s management, including the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company’s disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-14 and 15d-14) within 90 days prior to the filing date of this Form 10-Q. Based on this evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that the Company’s disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms.

(b) Changes in Internal Controls

There were no significant changes in the Company’s internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect our internal controls subsequent to the date of the most recent evaluation, including corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses.
