If the answer is no, identify report(s).

☒ Yes ☐ No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

☒ Yes ☐ No

During the first half of 2003, the company acquired all of the outstanding common stock of Alternative Delivery Solutions, Inc., and changed the company's name from National Health & Safety Corporation to ADS Media Group, Inc. The acquisition is described in the company's report on Form 8-K dated January 30, 2003. As a result of the acquisition, the company's business plan changed completely. The company discontinued all of its former business lines and has concentrated on the newly acquired business, which provides turnkey direct marketing support services, with an emphasis on alternate (i.e., door to door) delivery.

As a result of the acquisition and change of its business, the company's operating results for the first nine months of 2003 are not readily comparable to its business in the first nine months of 2002. The company expects to file its 10-QSB for the first half by November 19, 2003.
