Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholder of Transamerica Investors Securities Corporation

Opinion on the Financial Statement – Statement of Financial Condition

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Transamerica Investors Securities Corporation (the “Company”) as of December 31, 2018, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the “financial statement”). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2018 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

The financial statement is the responsibility of the Company’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (“PCAOB”) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit of this financial statement in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

February 28, 2019

We have served as the Company’s auditor since 2014.

TRANSAMERICA INVESTORS SECURITIES CORPORATION
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT
(Dollars in thousands)

1. Organization

Transamerica Investors Securities Corporation (the “Company”) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Transamerica Retirement Solutions LLC (“Transamerica”), an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Transamerica Corporation (the “Parent”), which is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of AEGON N.V., a public limited liability share company organized under Dutch law. The Company is a limited purpose broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company offers shares of mutual funds and variable annuity contracts to Transamerica’s retirement plan customers.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statement has been prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“U.S. GAAP”).

Estimates

The preparation of the financial statement in conformity to U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions affecting the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses and the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. Those estimates are inherently subject to change and actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

Cash includes cash on hand and on deposit. Bank overdrafts and certain short-term borrowings are classified as liabilities. At December 31, 2018, the Company had cash accounts, which exceeded federally insured limits, and are therefore not subject to FDIC insurance.

Commissions and Concessions Receivable

Commissions and concessions receivable represent the accruals for variable annuity contracts and 12b-1 or other service fees on non-affiliated mutual funds earned but not yet received.

Commissions and Concessions Receivable from Affiliates

Commissions and concessions receivable from affiliates represents the accruals for 12b-1 or other service fees on affiliated mutual funds earned but yet not received. Included also is the reimbursement from Transamerica Financial Life Insurance Company (“TFLIC”) and Transamerica Life Insurance Company (“TLIC”) for affiliated variable annuities commissions paid on their behalf by Transamerica in terms of the paymaster agreement. The Company reimburses Transamerica the full amount of the commissions at the time of payment. TFLIC and TLIC also reimburses the Company for a portion of the commissions related to insurance products paid on the respective insurer’s behalf.

Prepaid Expenses and Other Assets

Prepaid expenses consist of monthly FINRA licensing fees paid directly through the FINRA CRD (Central Registration Depository) account. These fees are amortized over the term of the coverage period.

Deferred Income Taxes

State and federal deferred income tax assets or liabilities are computed based on the difference between the financial statement and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, using the enacted marginal tax rate.

Marketing and Distribution Expenses Payable

Marketing and distribution expenses payable represents the accruals from commissions to brokers due but not yet paid.

Due to Affiliates

The Company is a party to a cost sharing agreement with affiliates in order to facilitate payments associated with employee costs, accounts payable services, underwriting services, and other miscellaneous expenses. The Company settles with the Parent regularly based on net capital positions in order to keep these liabilities current.

Other Liabilities

Other liabilities consist of audit accruals, FINRA advertising, and revenue assessment accruals as expenses incurred but not yet paid. Outstanding drafts are uncashed commission payments to brokers. These are considered other liabilities.

3. Receivable from Contracts with Customers

The Company adopted Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, in the current year using the modified retrospective approach and the impact of the adoption is immaterial.

Brokerage Commissions Receivable

The beginning balance of the receivables related to brokerage commissions was $103 whereas as the December 31, 2018 ending receivable balance was $98 reflected under commissions and concessions receivable from affiliates on the Statement of Financial Condition.

Distribution Fees Receivable

The beginning balance of the receivables related to distribution fees was $8,868 whereas the December 31, 2018 ending receivable balance was $7,238 reflected under commissions and concessions receivable and commissions and concessions receivable from affiliates on the Statement of Financial Condition.

4. Income Taxes

The Company's federal income and state tax return (where applicable) is consolidated with other included affiliated companies. The method of allocation between the companies is subject to a written tax allocation agreement. Under the terms of the tax allocation agreement, allocations are based on separate income tax return calculations. The Company is entitled to recoup federal income taxes paid in the event the future losses and credits reduce the greater of the Company's separately computed income tax liability or the consolidated group's income tax liability in the year generated. The Company is also entitled to recoup federal income taxes paid in the event the losses and credits reduce the greater of the Company's separately computed income tax liability or the consolidated group's income tax liability in any carryback or carry forward year when so applied. Accrued separate Company state income taxes for consolidated state income tax returns that are not paid by the Company under the tax sharing agreement are settled through capital contribution or distributions to the Parent. Under this agreement, the Company received contributions related to state tax sharing from the Parent of $219, during the year ended December 31, 2018, as a result of state tax sharing. The Company also received a contribution related to federal taxes of $44 from the Parent pursuant to the tax sharing agreement. Intercompany income tax balances are settled within thirty days of payment to or filing with the Internal Revenue Service. Deferred income taxes have been established by each member of the consolidated group based upon temporary differences within each entity.

The Company paid cash payments related to taxes of $10,083 from the Parent from the filing of the 2017 return and estimated 2018 payments.

The Company provides for deferred income taxes resulting from temporary differences that arise from recording certain transaction in different years for income tax reporting purposes than for financial reporting purposes. This is a bonus accrual. As of December 31, 2018, the deferred income tax asset was $16.

The Company has analyzed all material tax positions under the guidance of ASC 740, Income Taxes, related to the accounting for uncertainty in income tax and determined there were no tax benefits which should not be recognized at December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2017. It is not anticipated that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly increase within 12 months of the reporting date.

The Company's federal income tax returns have been examined by the Internal Revenue Service and closing agreements have been executed through 2008. An examination is in progress for the year 2009 through 2013. The Company believes that there are adequate defenses against or sufficient provisions established related to any open or contested tax positions. A tax return has not been filed for 2018.

5. Related Party Transactions

The Company has an agreement with Transamerica Capital, Inc. ("TCI") to receive 12b-1 fees with respect to certain series of Transamerica Funds, an affiliated mutual fund group which are advised by Transamerica Asset Management, Inc. ("TAM") and distributed by TCI, both affiliates. The Company has $1,725 due but not received 12b-1 fees as of year ended December 31, 2018 reflected in commissions and concessions receivable from affiliates on the Statement of Financial Condition.

The Company is party to a commission reimbursement agreement with affiliated companies, TFLIC and TLIC where the insurance companies agree to reimburse expenses incurred by the Company in the payment of registered variable annuity commissions. The Company has $98 in amounts commissions and concessions receivable from affiliates on the Statement of Financial Condition, which have been paid but are not yet reimbursed by insurance companies.

During 2018, the Company received capital contributions of $263 from its Parent, pursuant to the tax sharing agreement, which the Company earned a benefit based off the participation of the consolidated tax return with the Parent.

6. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company may, at times, be involved in litigation (including arbitrations), regulatory exams, investigations, actions, and inquiries in the normal course of business.

The Company assesses its liabilities and contingencies utilizing available information. For those matters where it is probable the Company will incur a loss and the amount of the loss is reasonably estimated, in accordance with FASB ASC No. 450, Contingencies, an accrued liability has been established. These reserves represent the Company's aggregate estimate of the potential loss contingency at December 31, 2018 and are believed to be sufficient. Such liabilities may be adjusted from time to time to reflect any relevant developments.

The Company does not have an existing liability for pending legal and regulatory matters in other liabilities on the Statement of Financial Condition.

7. Subsequent Events

The financial statement is adjusted to reflect events that occurred between the balance sheet date and the date when the financial statement is issued, provided they give evidence of conditions that existed at the balance sheet date.
