PROXY STATEMENT

Our Board of Directors is sending you this proxy statement to ask for your vote as a shareholder of Associated Estates Realty Corporation on certain matters to be voted on at the upcoming annual meeting of shareholders which will be held at The Forum, One Cleveland Center, 1375 E. Ninth St., Cleveland, Ohio 44114, on Wednesday, May 7, 2003, at 10:00 a.m., local time. We are mailing this proxy statement and the accompanying notice and proxy, along with our Annual Report to Shareholders, on or about March 28, 2003.

ABOUT THE MEETING

What Is the Purpose of the Annual Meeting?

At the Company's annual meeting, shareholders will act upon matters outlined in the accompanying notice of meeting, including fixing the number of directors to be elected by the shareholders at seven and the election of seven directors. In addition, the Company's management will report on the performance of the Company during 2002 and respond to appropriate questions from shareholders. We are not aware of any other matter that will be presented for your vote at the meeting.

Who Is Entitled to Vote?

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on the record date, March 21, 2003, are entitled to receive notice of and to vote the common shares that they held on the record date at the meeting, or any postponement or adjournment of the meeting. Each outstanding common share entitles its holder to cast one vote on each matter to be voted on. As of the record date, the Company had outstanding [19,465,758] common shares.

Who Can Attend the Meeting?

Only shareholders of record as of the record date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the meeting. Please note that if you hold your shares in "street name" (that is, through a broker or other nominee), your name does not appear in the Company's records, and you will need to bring a copy of your brokerage statement reflecting your ownership of common shares as of the record date.

When and Where Is the Meeting?

The meeting will be held at The Forum, One Cleveland Center, 1375 E. Ninth St., Cleveland, Ohio 44114, on Wednesday, May 7, 2003, at 10:00 a.m., local time. Parking is available at One Cleveland Center. You can enter the parking garage from both St. Clair Ave. and Rockwell Ave. There will be a fee of approximately $8.50 charged for parking in that garage. If that garage is full, there are other parking facilities within walking distance of One Cleveland Center.

What Constitutes a Quorum?

The presence at the annual meeting, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the common shares outstanding on the record date will represent a quorum, permitting the conduct of business at the meeting. Proxies received by the Company but marked as abstentions or broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of shares considered to be present at the meeting for purposes of establishing a quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against proposal one and will not count for or against any nominee for director.

What Vote is Required to Approve a Proposal?

Assuming a quorum is represented, with respect to proposal one, the proposal must receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding common shares, and with respect to proposal two, director nominees who receive the greatest number of affirmative votes will be elected directors.

How Do I Vote?

If you sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, the common shares represented by your proxy will be voted as you specify in the proxy. If you return a signed and dated proxy, but do not make any such specification, the common shares represented by your proxy will be voted to fix the number of directors from eight to seven and to elect the directors set forth under the caption “ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.”

You may revoke or change your vote at any time before your proxy has been exercised by filing a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date with the Company at the Company’s principal address indicated on the attached Notice of Annual Meeting, or by giving notice of revocation to the Company in open meeting. However, your presence at the annual meeting alone will not be sufficient to revoke your previously granted proxy.

How Will The Proxy Solicitation Be Conducted?

This solicitation of proxies is made by and on behalf of the Board of Directors. The cost of the solicitation of your proxy will be borne by the Company. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail and electronically, officers and regular employees of the Company may solicit proxies in person, by telephone or facsimile. These employees will not receive any additional compensation for their participation in the solicitation.

PROPOSAL ONE: TO FIX THE NUMBER OF DIRECTORS AT SEVEN

The Company’s Code of Regulations provides that the number of directors shall be fixed by the shareholders at no fewer than three nor more than 15. The number of directors has been fixed at eight. There are currently seven directors on the Board following Louis E. Vogt’s resignation from the Board effective August 20, 2002. All seven remaining members of the Board are nominated for re-election. The Board of Directors is proposing that the number of directors be decreased and fixed at seven.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding common shares is required for approval of this proposal.

The Board of Directors recommends that the shareholders vote FOR this proposal.

PROPOSAL TWO: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the annual meeting, unless you specify otherwise, the common shares represented by your proxy will be voted to re-elect Messrs. Adams, Delaney, Friedman, McDonough, Milstein, Mosier and Schwarz. Each director elected serves until the next annual meeting and until his successor is elected and qualified.

If for any reason any of the nominees is not a candidate at the time of the election (which is not expected), the common shares represented by your proxy will be voted for the election of a substitute nominee designated by the Board of Directors.

The following table contains information with respect to each nominee:

Beginning with the December 12, 2002 Board meeting, the non-management directors of the Board have met in executive session without management. Although the non-management directors have not appointed a lead director, the non-management directors chair these executive sessions on a rotating basis.

How Are Directors Compensated?

Employees of the Company who are also directors are not paid any director fees. In 2002, compensation for non-employee directors included the following:

- An annual retainer fee of $16,000;
- $1,000 for each Board or committee meeting attended;
- The respective Chairs of the Audit and the Executive Compensation Committees are given an annual retainer fee, valued at $5,000, paid on a quarterly basis through the issuance of the Company’s common shares(1); and
- Reimbursement of expenses related to attending Board and committee meetings.

(1) The number of shares comprising each quarterly payment is calculated as of the close of the market on the business day of or immediately prior to the date of the quarterly board meeting.

Non-employee directors may defer all or a portion of their fees under the Company’s Directors’ Deferred Compensation Plan. The plan is unfunded and participants’ contributions are converted to units, which fluctuate in value according to the market value of the Company’s common shares. As of December 31, 2002, Mr. Adams held 21,380.0 units, Mr. Schwarz held 17,862.9 units and Mr. Delaney held 11,126.3 units under the plan valued at $144,315, $120,575 and $75,103, respectively.

In 2002, the Company adopted share ownership guidelines for members of the Board. The guidelines provide that each director own Company common shares or common share equivalents equal in value to approximately one times such director’s annual retainer (including committee retainers) and that once achieved such guidelines shall be deemed to have been satisfied without regard to any fluctuation in value in the Company’s common shares. All directors of the Board have met this ownership guideline.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

Composition of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is comprised of Messrs. James M. Delaney (Chairman), Albert T. Adams, Gerald C. McDonough, Frank E. Mosier and Richard T. Schwarz, all of whom are independent directors as currently defined in the New York Stock Exchange’s (NYSE) listing standards. Mr. Adams is a partner of Baker & Hostetler LLP, a law firm that provides legal services to the Company. Consistent with the current NYSE listing standards, the Board of Directors of the Company has determined that Mr. Adams’ relationship with the Company does not interfere with his exercise of independent judgment as a director. Mr. Delaney, a consultant to and retired partner of Deloitte & Touche LLP, chairs the Committee. The Board of Directors adopted a written Audit Committee Charter in June 2000, which is reviewed annually and was attached to the Company’s proxy statement for the 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee reviews the Company’s financial reporting practices on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management is responsible for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the system of internal controls. The independent accountants are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Audit Committee has:

- Reviewed and discussed with the Company’s management and the Company’s independent accountants the audited financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2002;
- Discussed with the Company’s independent accountants the matters required to be discussed pursuant to Statement of Accounting Standards 61 (Communication with Audit Committee), as modified or supplemented; and
- Received the written disclosures and the letter from the Company’s independent accountants required by Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), as modified or supplemented, and discussed with the independent accountants the independent accountants’ independence.

Based on the reviews and discussions described in the preceding bulleted paragraphs, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002, be included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K, filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

Introduction. The Executive Compensation Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Committee”) is responsible for determining compensation to be paid to the Company’s executive officers. The Committee members are Frank E. Mosier (Chairman), Albert T. Adams, James M. Delaney, Gerald C. McDonough and Richard T. Schwarz. The Committee is also responsible for making major policy decisions regarding retirement and other benefit plans and administering the annual and long-term incentive plans for executive officers, the Company’s equity plans, deferred compensation program and non-qualified retirement plan. The Committee works with the Company’s human resources officer.

What Is the Company’s Philosophy of Executive Officer Compensation?

Executive compensation decisions are guided by the Company’s commitments to:

- Create shareholder value and achieve performance objectives;
- Attract and retain top organizational contributors and link their pay to their ability to influence financial and organizational objectives; and
- Focus attention on the Company’s current priorities and long-term goals.

What Are the Key Components of Executive Officer Compensation?

The key components of the Company’s executive compensation program are base salary, annual incentives, longer-term, stock-based incentives and retirement and welfare benefits. Each of these components operates within an integrated total compensation program to ensure that executives are compensated equitably. The total compensation mix attributable to the weighting of each of these components will reflect the competitive market and may be adjusted from time to time to best support the Company’s business objectives.

The integrated total compensation package is intended to compensate the Company’s officers between the median and the 75th percentile of the competitive peer group labor market and provide the opportunity for executives to earn incentive-based compensation driven by the accomplishment of performance expectations. The members of the competitive peer group, Associated Estates Peer Index, are listed on page 12. The Committee believes the executive compensation program, in total, reflects the competitive market practices of the peer group.

• Base Salary. Base salary serves as the cornerstone for the executive compensation program and recognizes the relative value that an individual's contribution brings to the Company. The budget for base salary adjustments is influenced by overall company performance. Executives' base salaries are reviewed annually and adjusted, as appropriate, to reflect changes in the competitive peer group labor market as well as individual performance, range of responsibilities relative to the Company's business plan, demonstrated competencies, value, contribution to the organization, experience and professional growth and development. In 2002, no base salary increases were granted to the Company's executive officers other than in the case of promotion.

• Annual Incentives. Annual incentives emphasize pay for performance and serve as a key means of driving current objectives and priorities. Executives are rewarded for increases in the Company's short-term financial performance and achievement of established corporate objectives. In 2002, annual incentive opportunities for both the CEO and COO were 100 percent linked to performance relative to a funds from operations (FFO) benchmark. Annual incentive opportunities for the remaining executive officers were linked 50 percent to an FFO benchmark and 50 percent to operational goals established for each individual. Effective January 1, 2000, the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (NAREIT) has redefined FFO to include all nonrecurring transactions, except those that are defined as extraordinary under generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). FFO is defined generally as net income (loss) applicable to common shareholders, excluding gains (losses) on the disposition of properties and extraordinary items under GAAP, adjusted for depreciation on real estate assets and amortization of intangible assets and adding the Company's proportionate share of FFO of its unconsolidated joint ventures. Target annual incentive opportunities are set at the beginning of each plan year for eligible participants and range from 40 percent to 80 percent of base salary for the executive officers. Award payouts are delivered in a combination of cash and restricted shares that vest over a three-year period. In 2002, the Company did not reach its FFO goal, and no bonus was paid under this portion of the program. Individual goal accomplishment was determined for each eligible executive and payouts were determined and delivered accordingly.

• Long-Term Incentives. Long-term incentive compensation is delivered through the Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan, Share Incentive Plan, Equity-Based Incentive Compensation Plan and the Year 2001 Equity Incentive Plan. All executive officers are eligible to participate in all of these plans.

The Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan rewards the achievement of corporate goals that are in the long-term interests of shareholders. The plan is strictly performance-based. The last plan cycle was set for 1998-2001 and focused on actions of management to improve the Company's business as defined by compounded growth in FFO per share over a three-year period. Participants earned no payouts during 2001 and a new cycle was not established for 2002. The Company is continuing to evaluate the plan components and the setting of benchmarks for the next plan cycle. Awards earned under the plan may be paid in a combination of cash, restricted shares and shares, at the discretion of the Committee.

In lieu of establishing a new long-term incentive cycle, the Committee approved restricted share grants to each executive officer in 2002. The value of these grants was benchmarked against peer data and consistent with the company's philosophy to compensate the executive officers between the 50th and 75th percentile. The grants vest in equal increments over a three year period.

The Equity-Based Incentive Compensation Plan and Share Incentive Plan provide executive officers and other key employees of the Company the opportunity to earn common shares or other equity-based incentives. As part of the total compensation program, the Committee believes that equity-based awards serve as an important means of attracting and retaining executives who are in a position to most directly influence the long-term success of the Company. The Committee also believes that equity-based awards align executives' interests with those of shareholders by reinforcing the risk of ownership and the importance of providing competitive long-term, total returns to shareholders. Awards made under the plans may be in the form of share options, restricted shares or other equity-based awards. Share options are granted at no less than 100 percent of the current fair market value of the Company’s shares on the date of the grant and will only be of value to the extent the Company’s share price increases over time. Generally, share options and restricted share awards will vest in installments over no less than a three-year period. In determining whether and in what amounts to make grants under the plans, the Committee considers, among other factors, competitive long-term incentive award levels and the scope of responsibility, the anticipated performance and the contribution to the Company of the proposed award recipient. As explained above and under the Equity-Based Incentive Compensation Plan, restricted share grants were made to executive officers in 2002. See footnote (1) to the Summary Compensation Table.

Subject to the terms of the Executive’s Deferred Compensation Plan, the Company provides executive officers the option of deferring compensation payable to them by the Company for their services. Deferred amounts are converted to Company common share equivalents based on the fair market value of the shares on the date compensation would have normally been paid. Distributions under the plan are paid in common shares, which are subject to the terms of the Company’s Equity-Based Incentive Compensation Plan. At December 31, 2002, there were no executives deferring compensation under this plan.

The Company’s Year 2001 Equity Incentive Plan (the “EIP”) is administered by the Committee and is substantially similar in its operation to the Equity-Based Incentive Compensation and Share Incentive Plans. The EIP allows for participation by directors as well as employees, but does not allow for the grant of incentive stock options. Shares issued under the EIP consist solely of treasury shares. The plan authorizes the issuance of up to two million treasury shares. Under this Plan, option grants totaling 30,000 shares were made only to outside directors in 2002.

• Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. The Company’s Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the “SERP”) was adopted by the Board of Directors on January 1, 1997, and is administered by the Committee. This non-qualified, unfunded, defined contribution plan extends to executive officers of the Company nominated by the Chief Executive Officer and approved by the Committee. The SERP provides for the Company to make a contribution to the account of each of the participating officers at the end of each plan year. The contribution, which is a percentage of eligible earnings (including base salary and payments under the annual incentive plan), is set by the Committee at the beginning of each plan year. The contribution is treated by the Company as an unfunded liability until the benefits are paid. The account balances earn interest each year at a rate that is set by the Committee at the beginning of each plan year. All executive officers received contributions to their SERP accounts on December 31, 2002. See footnote (3) to the Summary Compensation Table.

Each participant’s SERP account is vested upon his or her retirement after age 55. Within 30 days of a Change in Control (as defined in the plan), the Company must make a cash contribution to an irrevocable “rabbi trust” in an amount necessary to fully fund the SERP accounts.

How Is the Company’s Chief Executive Officer’s Compensation Determined?

The base compensation for Jeffrey I. Friedman was established and is administered pursuant to an employment agreement entered into between Mr. Friedman and the Company as of January 1, 1996. For 2002, Mr. Friedman earned a base salary of $376,400.

Mr. Friedman’s employment agreement provides for an annual performance bonus based upon the Company reaching certain financial objectives. For 2002, 100 percent of Mr. Friedman’s performance bonus was based upon annual performance benchmarks tied to FFO, consistent with the annual incentive plan in which the other executive officers participate. Mr. Friedman did not earn a bonus payment under the performance benchmarks tied to FFO for 2002. Mr. Friedman did receive a restricted share grant, along with all other executive officers, during 2002. These grants are set forth in the Summary Compensation Table.

Employment and Severance Agreements

The Company has an employment agreement with Jeffrey I. Friedman. This agreement, dated January 1, 1996, as amended, had an initial term of three years and is automatically extended for an additional year at the end of each year of the agreement, subject to the right of either party to terminate by giving one year’s prior written notice. Under the agreement, Mr. Friedman must devote his entire business time to the Company and may participate in real estate activities only through the Company. In addition, Mr. Friedman is prohibited from competing with the Company for a period of three years following termination of employment. The agreement provides for an annual base salary, which was $376,400 in 2002, and the use of an automobile, membership in a golf club and a business club, an allowance of up to $10,000 annually for financial planning and tax return preparation service. The agreement provides for an annual performance bonus of up to 100 percent of Mr. Friedman’s annual base salary based on the Company achieving certain FFO benchmarks. The agreement contains a provision that upon a Change in Control (defined identically to the change in control provision in the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan), Mr. Friedman is entitled to severance pay in a lump sum equal to the greater of the amount of unpaid base salary for the then unexpired term of his employment agreement or one year’s base salary at the then effective annual rate of salary, plus, in either case, pro rata bonus amounts and accrued benefits.

The Company has a policy of paying severance to each of the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, other than the CEO, if the Company without cause terminates such officer. Under the severance policy, upon the officer’s termination, he will receive as severance compensation an amount equal to one year’s salary, a prorated portion of the executive’s bonus, payment of his health benefits for one year and outplacement services. In consideration for this severance compensation, the Company enters into a standard severance agreement and release with the executive.

On August 20, 2002, Louis E. Vogt resigned his position as President, Chief Operating Officer and Director of the Company and concurrently entered into a Separation and General Release Agreement with the Company (the “Separation Agreement”). The Separation Agreement provides, among other matters, for a separation payment to Mr. Vogt of $322,450, company benefits consisting of COBRA payments for 12 months, payment of his legal fees in the amount of $20,000 and for the vesting of certain previously granted stock options and restricted stock grants.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

Albert T. Adams, a director of the Company, is a partner of Baker & Hostetler LLP. Baker & Hostetler LLP has been retained by the Company to perform legal services on its behalf, and the Company expects that Baker & Hostetler LLP will continue to provide such services during 2003.

In May 1997, the independent directors of the Company approved a loan in the aggregate amount of $3,342,000 (the full principal amount of which is currently outstanding) from the Company to Jeffrey I. Friedman, the Company’s Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Friedman used the proceeds of the loan to purchase 150,000 common shares of the Company from Mark Milstein. The loan is evidenced by two promissory notes entered into on May 23, 1997. The notes bear interest, payable quarterly, at an interest rate equal to the London Inter-Bank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 1.75 percent with the principal due

May 1, 2002. On February 21, 2002, the Board of Directors extended the maturity date of these notes to May 1, 2005. For the year ended December 31, 2002, the average interest rate under the notes was 3.56 percent per annum. The loan is secured, in part, by 150,000 common shares.

In the normal course of its management business, until March 1999, the Company followed a practice of advancing funds on behalf of, or holding funds for the benefit of, affiliates that own real estate properties managed by the Company or one of its subsidiaries. Consistent with that practice, the Company advanced funds to Euclid Medical and Commercial Arts, an Ohio limited partnership, (“Euclid Medical Partnership”) in connection with the Company’s management of the Euclid Medical and Office Building. As of February 28, 2002, $970,000 (including principal and interest) of that indebtedness was still outstanding. The general partner of Euclid Medical and Commercial Arts is Metro City No. 1, an Ohio general partnership. Jeffrey I. Friedman, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board, Mark Milstein, a director of the Company, and Mr. Milstein’s siblings (including Mr. Friedman’s wife) are general partners of Metro City No. 1, along with several non-affiliated partners. On or about July 31, 1998, Metro City No. 1 made a capital call to its partners requesting funds to repay Euclid Medical and Commercial Arts’ obligation to the Company. Messrs. Friedman and Milstein and Mr. Milstein’s siblings have all paid their proportionate shares of the capital call, but the remaining non-affiliated partners had refused to do so. The Company no longer manages the property. The Company filed a lawsuit against Euclid Medical and Commercial Arts and Metro City No. 1 in January 2000 seeking reimbursement. On April 22, 2002 the Company and the partners of Metro City No. 1 entered into a settlement agreement with respect to such lawsuit, which together with other payments received from certain of the non-affiliated partners resulted in the Company being paid in full for all outstanding indebtedness advanced to Euclid Medical Partnership.

On August 28, 2001, Fluor Daniel, Inc. (“FDI”) filed a Demand For Arbitration with the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) arising out of construction services provided by FDI to MIG/ Orlando Development, LTD (“MOD”), an affiliate of the Company, pursuant to a construction contract between FDI and MOD for construction of a 460-unit apartment community located in Orlando, Florida. MOD acquired this project in 1998 as part of the Company’s acquisition of MIG from the former MIGRA shareholders and others. The former MIGRA shareholders could have a material interest adverse to the Company because of certain indemnification obligations owing to the Company in connection with this litigation.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company’s directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of more than 10 percent of a registered class of the Company’s equity securities to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission and New York Stock Exchange initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of common shares and other equity securities of the Company, and such persons are required by the Securities and Exchange Commission regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all forms they file pursuant to Section 16(a). To the Company’s knowledge, based solely on review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company, during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 or with respect to such fiscal year, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its executive officers, directors and 10 percent beneficial owners were met.

SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP served as the independent public accountants to the Company for 2002, and the Audit Committee and the Company expect that PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will continue to serve as the independent public accountants for 2003. A representative of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is expected to be present at the annual meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement, if the representative so desires, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Audit Fees. The aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for the audit of the Company’s annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002, and for PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP’s reviews of the financial statements included in the Company’s Forms 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission during 2002 are $227,500.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP performed no services and therefore billed no fees relating to operating or supervising the operation of the Company’s information systems or local area network or for designing or implementing the Company’s financial information management systems during 2002.

All Other Fees. The aggregate fees billed for all other services other than Audit Fees and Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees rendered to the Company by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in 2002 are $194,463 including regulatory and shareholder reporting, tax-related services and other professional services.

Auditor Independence. The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is compatible with maintaining the accountants’ independence. None of the time devoted by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP on its engagement to audit the Company’s financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002 is attributable to work performed by persons other than PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP employees.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR 2004 ANNUAL MEETING

If a shareholder desires to have a proposal included in the Company’s proxy statement and form of proxy for the 2004 annual meeting of shareholders, the proposal must conform to the applicable proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission concerning the submission and content of proposals and must be received by the Company prior to the close of business on November 27, 2003. In addition, if a shareholder intends to present a proposal at the Company’s 2004 annual meeting without the inclusion of the proposal in the Company’s proxy materials and written notice of the proposal is not received by the Company on or before February 10, 2004, proxies solicited by the Board of Directors for the 2004 annual meeting will confer discretionary authority to vote on the proposal if presented at the meeting. Shareholders should submit proposals to the executive offices of the Company, 5025 Swetland Court, Richmond Heights, Ohio 44143, Attention: Secretary. The Company reserves the right to reject, rule out of order or take other appropriate action with respect to any proposal that does not comply with these and other applicable requirements.

HOUSEHOLDING

The Securities and Exchange Commission recently approved a new rule concerning the delivery of annual reports and proxy statements. The rule permits a single set of these reports to be sent to any household at which two or more shareholders reside if they appear to be members of the same family. Each shareholder continues to receive a separate proxy card. This procedure, referred to as householding, reduces the volume of duplicate information shareholders receive and reduces mailing and printing costs. A number of brokerage firms have instituted householding. In accordance with a notice sent earlier during 2002 to certain beneficial shareholders who share a single address, only one copy of this proxy statement and the attached annual report will be sent to that address, unless any shareholder residing at that address gave contrary instructions.

If any beneficial shareholder residing at such an address desires at this time to receive a separate copy of this proxy statement and the attached annual report, a copy can be obtained by calling toll-free 1-800-440-2372, extension 8752 or by writing to Associated Estates Realty Corporation, Investor Relations at 5025 Swetland Court, Richmond Heights, OH 44143. In addition, if any such shareholder wishes to receive a separate proxy statement and annual report in the future, the shareholder should provide such instructions by calling toll-free 1-800-440-2372, extension 8752.

OTHER MATTERS

Management does not know of any other matters that will be presented for action at the meeting other than the items referred to in this proxy statement. If any other matters properly come before the meeting, the persons named in the proxy will vote on those matters in accordance with their judgment. For each other item that properly comes before the meeting, the vote required will be determined by applicable law, New York Stock Exchange requirements and the Company’s governing documents.
