Position of Endesa Americas as to the Fairness of the Tender Offers; Recommendation, page 62

3. We note that the Board of Directors of Endesa Américas considered the report of Tyndall as an independent valuator, regarding the fairness of the tender offers and statutory dissenters' rights. Note that if any filing person has based its fairness determination on the analysis of another party with respect to any of the factors itemized in Instruction 2 to Item 1014 of Regulation M-A, the filing party must specifically adopt the analysis of the other party in order to satisfy the disclosure obligation. See Question 20 of Exchange Act Release No. 17719 (April 13, 1981). Please revise to clarify whether the Board of Directors of Endesa Américas adopted the analyses and opinions of Tyndall. Note, however, that to the extent such persons did not adopt another party's discussion and analysis or such discussion and analyses do not address each of the factors listed in Item 1014, such filing person must discuss, any unaddressed factors in reasonable detail or explain in detail why the factor(s) were not deemed material or relevant or were considered but given little weight in the context of this transaction (and why). This comment also applies to the Colin Becker report referenced on page 67, with regards to the statutory merger dissenter's withdrawal rights.
