NOTE 1 – NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

On December 31, 2008, SCA Development, LLC (Company) was formed by its sole member, SC Affiliates, LLC (SCA). The Company was formed to sell direct participation programs, primarily limited partnership interests in outpatient health care facilities located throughout the United States of America, to practicing physicians. The Company is authorized to act as a broker or dealer in securities pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company carries no customer funds or securities and therefore is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of SCA and is included in the consolidated financial statements of SCA. The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) and to general practice within the brokerage industry.

Basis of Accounting

The Company reports the results of its operations and its financial condition using the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from these estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties

SCA operates in a highly regulated industry and is required to comply with extensive and complex laws and regulations at the federal, state, and local government levels. These laws and regulations relate to, among other things:

- Licensure, certification, and accreditation,
- Coding and billing for services,
- Relationships with physicians and other referral sources, including physician self-referral and anti-kickback laws,
- Quality of medical care,
- Use and maintenance of medical supplies and equipment,
- Maintenance and security of medical records,
- Acquisition and dispensing of pharmaceuticals and controlled substances, and
- Disposals of medical hazardous waste.

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Many of these laws and regulations are expansive, and SCA does not have the benefit of significant regulatory or judicial interpretation of them. In the future, different interpretations or enforcements of these laws and regulations could subject SCA's current or past practices to allegations of impropriety or illegality or could require SCA to make changes in its investment structure, facilities, equipment, personnel, services, capital expenditure programs, operating procedures, and contractual arrangements.

If SCA is deemed to have failed to comply with applicable laws and regulations, it could be subjected to liabilities, including (1) criminal penalties, (2) civil penalties, including monetary penalties and the loss of its licenses to operate on or more of its facilities, and (3) exclusion of suspension of one or more of its facilities from participation in the Medicare, Medicaid, and other federal and state health care programs.

Given the nature of SCA's business, they are subject from time to time to various lawsuits which, depending on their outcome, may have a negative effect on SCA and, in turn, the Company.

All commissions earned for the year ended December 31, 2016 were derived from transactions with SCA.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues, which consist of commissions from the sale of limited partnership units sold by the Company, are recognized at the transaction closing date as long as there are no contingencies related to the sale. When contingencies are present, recognition of commissions are postponed until all such contingencies have been removed from the sales transaction.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents as of December 31, 2016.

Expense Sharing Agreement

The Company is part of an expense sharing agreement with SCA such that certain general and administrative expenses are allocated to the Company primarily based on the proportion of space occupied and resources utilized. All appropriate allocations have been made as of December 31, 2016 and are included in the accompanying statement of operations.

Salaries and Benefits

The Company does not have any full-time employees. Salaries and benefits for SCA employees working on Company business are allocated to the Company in accordance with the expense sharing agreement.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In March 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2016-08-Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) ("ASU 2016-08") Principal versus Agent Considerations Reporting Revenue Gross versus Net as a supplement/amendment to ("ASU") 2014-09-Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) ("ASU 2014-09"). ASU 2016-08 defines a situation when another party is involved in providing goods or services to a customer, an entity is required to determine whether the nature of its promise is to provide the specified good or service itself (that is, the entity is a principal) or to arrange for that good or service to be provided by the other party. When an entity that is a principal satisfies a performance obligation, the entity recognizes revenue in the gross amount of consideration to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for the specified good or service transferred to the customer. When an entity that is an agent satisfies a performance obligation, the entity recognizes revenue in the amount of any fee or commission to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for arranging for the specified good or service to be provided by the other party. An entity is a principal if it controls the specified good or service before that good or service is transferred to a customer.

The Firm plans to adopt this standard in accordance with the standards. The Company does not expect the adoption of ASU 2016-08 to have a material impact on the Company's results of operations or financial condition.
