FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements included in this document constitute "forward-looking statements" concerning the business, operations and financial performance and condition of Goldcorp. Such forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, those with respect to the prices of gold, copper and silver, the timing and amount of estimated future production, costs of production, capital expenditures, reserves determination, costs and timing of the development of new deposits and permitting time lines, involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of Goldcorp to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors include, among others, the actual results of current exploration activities, actual results of current reclamation activities, conclusions of economic evaluations, changes in project parameters as plans continue to be refined and the future prices of gold, copper and silver. Although Goldcorp has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in forward-looking statements, there may be other factors that cause results not anticipated, estimated or intended. There can be no assurance that such statements will prove to be accurate as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements.

Many of these factors are beyond the control of Goldcorp and its subsidiaries. Consequently, all of the forward looking statements made in this document are qualified by these cautionary statements and there can be no assurance that the expected results or developments anticipated by Goldcorp will be realized.
