

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Director Compensation

On January 16, 2008, the Company's Board of Directors established a new policy for director compensation based on recommendations by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The new policy offers a total compensation package that the Board believes is commensurate with other public retailers and better aligns director and shareholder interests. The Company is filing this Current Report on Form 8-K to disclose the changes to director compensation, as further described below.

Director compensation is established by the Board of Directors and periodically reviewed. For 2007, each non-employee director – that is, every director other than Macon Brock and Bob Sasser – received an annual retainer of $80,000. In addition, the audit committee chair received $8,000 and audit committee members received $4,000; the other committee chairs and committee members received $4,000 and $2,000, respectively. Under our 2003 Director Deferred Compensation Plan, directors may elect to invest their cash fees in our common stock, options or an interest-bearing cash account.

Beginning at the 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the Board has determined that each non-employee director will receive an annual retainer of $100,000, payable quarterly. In addition, the audit committee chair will receive $15,000 and audit committee members will receive $10,000; the other committee chairs and committee members will receive $7,500 and $5,000, respectively. The Lead Director will receive an additional $10,000.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(d) Appointment of Directors

On January 16, 2008, the Board of Directors appointed Mr. Arnold S. Barron, as a Class II director, effective as of the March 2008 Board of Directors meeting. Under Virginia law, the term of a director elected by the board of directors to fill a vacancy expires at the next shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected. Therefore, Mr. Barron will stand for election at the 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Mr. Barron currently serves as a Senior Executive Vice President with The TJX Companies, Inc. There are no family relationships, related party transactions, or other arrangements between the director and the Company. Mr. Barron will receive an annual retainer for his service on the Board consistent with the Company's policy for director compensation.

(e) Compensatory Arrangements for Named Executive Officers

On January 18, 2008, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors authorized the grant, expected to be effective February 15, 2008, of performance based awards to certain named executive officers of the Company. The Committee approved the grant of 34,000 restricted stock units to Bob Sasser; 52,500 options to Gary Philbin; and 17,000 restricted stock units to Robert Rudman. The vesting of the units or options is subject to the Company achieving a target level of earnings per share in fiscal 2008 and the executives remaining with the Company over a specified period of time.

On January 16, 2008, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors authorized the grant of 2,000 performance based restricted stock units, expected to be effective February 15, 2008, to Kathleen Mallas, principal financial and accounting officer of the Company. The vesting of these units is subject to the Company achieving a target level of earnings per share in fiscal 2008 and to the executive remaining with Company over a specified period of time.

Each of the above referenced awards was made under either the Company's 2004 Executive Officer Equity Plan or the Company's 2003 Equity Incentive Plan, as applicable, both previously approved by the shareholders.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

(a) On January 16, 2008, the Board of Directors amended Article III, Section 2 of the Company's Third Restated Bylaws to increase the number of directors from twelve to thirteen. A copy of the Bylaws, as amended, is attached to this filing as Exhibit 3.1.

Item 8.01 Other EventsEquity Plan Amendments

The Company has amended the 2004 Executive Officer Equity Plan, the 2003 Equity Incentive Plan and the 2003 Deferred Directors Compensation Plan to conform these Plans to the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. Copies of these amendments are attached to this filing as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3.

The Company has amended the 1995 Stock Incentive Plan to allow Directors three years to exercise outstanding options, instead of the current one year, once they no longer serve on the Board. This makes the terms of this plan consistent with the terms of the 2003 Non-Employee Director Stock Option Plan. A copy of this amendment is attached to this filing as Exhibit 10.4.

The Company has adopted amendments to the 2004 Executive Officer Equity Plan, the 2003 Deferred Directors Compensation Plan, the 2003 Non-Employee Director Stock Option Plan and the 2003 Equity Incentive Plan. These amendments changed the anti-dilution provisions of the Plans to reflect a mandatory, rather than permissive, obligation to make anti-dilution adjustments in applicable circumstances and conformed the procedures for setting grant prices. A copy of these amendments is attached as Exhibit 10.5.

The notice shall be deemed to be given when it is deposited with postage prepaid in the United States mail addressed to the stockholder at the address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the Corporation. Notice of a meeting to act on an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation, a plan of merger, consolidation or share exchange, a proposed sale of all, or substantially all, of the Corporation's assets, otherwise than in the usual and regular course of business, or the dissolution of the Corporation shall be given in the manner provided above not less than twenty-five (25) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting. Such notice shall be accompanied, as appropriate, by a copy of the proposed amendment, plan of merger, consolidation, or exchange, or sale agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a written waiver of notice signed by the person or person entitled to such notice, either before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. A stockholder who attends a meeting shall be deemed to have waived objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless at the beginning of the meeting he objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting.

5. ORGANIZATION AND ORDER OF BUSINESS: At all meetings of the stockholders the chairman of the Board or Directors or, in his absence, the president, shall act as chairman. In the absence of the foregoing officers or, if present, with their consent, a majority of the shares entitled to vote at such meeting may appoint any person to act as chairman. The secretary of the Corporation or, in his absence, an assistant secretary, shall act as secretary at all meetings of the stockholders. In the event that neither the secretary nor any assistant secretary is present, the chairman may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting.

The chairman shall have the right and authority to prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and to do all such acts and things as are necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the meeting, including, without limitation, the establishment of procedures for the dismissal of business not properly presented, the maintenance of order and safety, limitations on the time allotted to questions or comments on the affairs of the Corporation, restrictions on entry to such meeting after the time prescribed for the commencement thereof and the opening and closing of the voting polls.

At each annual meeting of stockholders, only such business shall be conducted as shall have been properly brought before the meeting (i) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (ii) by any stockholder of the Corporation who shall be entitled to vote at such meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 5. At a special meeting of stockholders, no business shall be transacted and no corporate action taken other than that stated in the notice of the meeting.

In addition to any other applicable requirements, for business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be given, either by personal delivery or by United States certified mail, postage prepaid, and received at the principal executive offices of the Corporation 1. not less than 120 days nor more than 150 days before the first anniversary of the date of the Corporation's proxy statement in connection with the last annual meeting of stockholders or 2. if no annual meeting was held in the previous year or the date of the applicable annual meeting has been changed by more than 30 days from the date contemplated at the time of the previous year's proxy statement, not less than 90 days before the date of the applicable annual meeting. A stockholder's notice to the secretary shall set forth as to each matter the stockholder proposes to bring before the annual meeting (a) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting, including the complete text of any resolutions to be presented at the annual meeting, and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (b) the name and address, as they appear on the Corporation's stock transfer books, of such stockholder proposing such business, (c) a representation that such stockholder is a stockholder of record and intends to appear in person or by proxy at such meeting to bring the business before the meeting specified in the notice, (d) the class and number of shares of stock of the Corporation beneficially owned by the stockholder and (e) any material interest of the stockholder in such business. Notwithstanding anything in the By-Laws to the contrary, no business shall be conducted at an annual meeting except in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 5. The chairman of an annual meeting shall, if the facts warrant, determine that the business was not brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures prescribed by this Section 5, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and the business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 5, a stockholder seeking to have a proposal included in the Corporation's proxy statement shall comply with the requirements of Regulation 14a under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (including, but not limited to, Rule 14a-8 or its successor provision). The secretary of the Corporation shall deliver each such stockholder's notice that has been timely received to the Board of Directors or a committee designated by the Board of Directors for review.

6. VOTING: A stockholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the stockholder or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No stockholder may authorize more than four persons to act for him, and any proxy shall be delivered to the secretary of the meeting at or prior to the time designated by the chairman or in the order of business for so delivering such proxies. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from its date, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Each holder of record of stock of any class shall, as to all matters in respect of which stock of such class has voting power, be entitled to such vote as is provided in the Articles of Incorporation for each share of stock of such class standing in his name on the books of the Corporation. Unless required by statute or determined by the chairman to be advisable, the vote on any questions need not be by ballot. On a vote by ballot, each ballot shall be signed by the stockholder voting or by such stockholder's proxy, if there be such proxy.

Treasury shares and shares held by a corporation of which the Corporation owns a majority of the shares entitled to vote for the directors thereof shall not be entitled to vote or to be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares entitled to vote. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders unless the vote of a greater number is required by law or the Articles of Incorporation, except that in the election of directors, those receiving the greatest number of votes shall be deemed elected even though not receiving a majority. Less than a quorum may adjourn. If a meeting is adjourned for lack of a quorum, any matter which might have properly come before the original meeting may come before the adjourned meeting when reconvened.

9. POSTPONEMENTS; ADJOURNMENTS: The postponement or adjournment of any meeting of the stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as the Board of Directors in its discretion determines.
