NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2007
(Stated in Canadian Dollars)
(Unaudited)

Note 1 Nature of Operations

Pacific Harbour Capital Ltd. is a public company, which was incorporated on March 8, 1986 under the British Columbia Business Corporations Act. Its common shares are traded on the TSX Venture Exchange and the OTC Bulletin Board. The Company's primary business is investments in marketable securities, land and investments in private companies in the development stage.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies

The unaudited interim consolidated financial statements are prepared by the Company in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The preparation of financial data is based on accounting policies and practices consistent with those used in the annual audited financial statements. These interim consolidated financial statements do not include all the disclosures included in the Company's annual financial statements. Accordingly, these interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's annual consolidated financial statements.

Because a precise determination of many assets and liabilities is dependent upon future events, the preparation of financial statements for a period necessarily involves the use of estimates that have been made using careful judgement. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The interim consolidated financial statements have, in management's opinion, been properly prepared within reasonable limits of materiality and within the framework of the significant accounting policies summarised below:

a) Principle of Consolidation

These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All significant inter-company transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies- (cont'd)

b) Marketable Securities

Subsequent to March 31, 2007 the Company adopted CICA Handbook Section 3855, Financial Instruments-Recognition and Measurement. Securities that are traded on a recognized securities exchange are recorded at fair values based on quoted closing bid prices at the consolidated balance sheet dates or the closing bid price on the last day the security traded if there were no trades at the consolidated balance sheet dates. As permitted under the new rules, the consolidated financial statements as at March 31, 2007 are not restated.

c) Investment

Investments in privately-held companies are recorded at cost unless an upward adjustment is supported by persuasive and objective evidence. Downward adjustments to carrying values are made when there is evidence of a decline in value as indicated by the assessment of the financial condition of the investment based on operational results, forecasts and other developments since acquisition.

d) Capital Assets and Amortization

Capital assets are recorded at cost. Amortization has been calculated using the following annual rates and methods:

Computer equipment	30% declining balance
Office furniture	20% declining balance
Software	50% declining balance

e) Revenue Recognition

Security transactions are recorded on a trade-date basis. Realized gains and losses on disposal of investments and unrealised gains and losses in the value of investments are reflected in the consolidated statements of operations and are calculated on an average cost basis. Upon disposal of an investment, previously recognized unrealised gains or losses are reversed, so as to recognize the full realized gain or loss in the period of disposition.

f) Basic and Diluted Loss per Share

Basic earnings or loss per share are computed by dividing the loss for the year by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per share reflect the potential dilution that could occur if potentially dilutive securities were exercised or converted to common stock. The dilutive effect of options and warrants and their equivalent is computed by application of the treasury stock method and the effect of convertible securities by the “if converted” method. Fully diluted amounts are not presented when the effect of the computations are anti-dilutive due the losses incurred. Accordingly, there is no difference in the amounts presented for basic and diluted loss per share.

g) Foreign Currency Translation

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollars at rates of exchange in effect at the date of the consolidated balance sheet. Non-monetary assets, liabilities and other items recorded in income arising from transactions denominated in foreign currencies, are translated at rates of exchange in effect at the date of the transaction. Resulting exchange gains or losses are included in income when incurred.

h) Fair Market Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and accounts payable approximate fair value because of the short-term maturity of those instruments. Unless otherwise noted, it is management’s opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments.

i) Stock-Based Compensation Plan

The Company accounts for compensation expense based on the fair value of rights granted under its stock-based compensation plan. Under this method, compensation costs attributable to share options granted to employees, directors and officers is measured at fair value at the grant date, and expensed over the vesting period with a corresponding increase in contributed surplus. Upon exercise of stock options, consideration paid by the option holder, together with the amount previously recognized in contributed surplus, is recorded as an increase to share capital.

The Company uses the Black-Scholes option valuation model to calculate the fair value of stock options at the date of grant. Option pricing models require the input of highly subjective assumptions, including the expected price volatility. Changes in these assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate and, therefore, the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of the Company’s stock options.
