and its Separate Account N

ING ADVANTAGE CENTURY PLUSSM

Supplement dated as of May 21, 2013 to the Contract Prospectus and Statement of Additional Information, each dated April 29, 2011, as amended

The following information updates and amends certain information contained in your variable annuity Contract Prospectus and Statement of Additional Information (“SAI”), each dated April 29, 2011, as amended. Please read it carefully and keep it with your Contract Prospectus and SAI for future reference.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPANY

The information pertaining to ReliaStar Life Insurance Company under the heading “The Company” in the Contract Prospectus and the first two paragraphs under the heading “General Information and History” in the SAI are deleted and replaced with the following:

ReliaStar Life Insurance Company (the “Company” “we”, “us”, “our”) issues the contracts described in the contract prospectus and statement of additional and is responsible for providing each contract’s insurance and annuity benefits. All guarantees and benefits provided under the contract that are not related to the separate account are subject to the claims paying ability of the Company and our general account.

We are a stock life insurance company organized in 1885 and incorporated under the insurance laws of the State of Minnesota. Prior to October 1, 2002, the contracts were issued by Northern Life Insurance Company (“Northern”), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. On October 1, 2002, Northern merged into the Company, and the Company assumed responsibilities for Northern’s obligations under the contracts. Until May 7, 2013, we were an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of ING Groep N.V. (“ING”), a global financial institution active in the fields of insurance, banking and asset management.

Pursuant to an agreement with the European Commission (“EC”), ING has agreed to divest itself of ING U.S., Inc. and its subsidiaries, including the Company (collectively “ING U.S.”), which constitutes ING’s U.S.-based retirement, investment management and insurance operations. To effect this divestment, on May 7, 2013, ING completed an initial public offering (“IPO”) of the common stock of ING U.S. While ING is currently the majority shareholder of the common stock of ING U.S., pursuant to the agreement with the EC mentioned above ING is required to divest itself of at least 25% of ING U.S. by the end of 2013, more than 50% by the end of 2014 and 100% by the end of 2016.

The investment results of the mutual funds (funds) are likely to differ significantly and there is no assurance that any of the funds will achieve their respective investment objectives. You should consider the investment objectives, risks and charges, and expenses of the funds carefully before investing. Please refer to the fund prospectuses for additional information. Shares of the funds will rise and fall in value and you could lose money by investing in the funds. Shares of the funds are not bank deposits and are not guaranteed, endorsed or insured by any financial institution, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Except as noted, all funds are diversified, as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940. Fund prospectuses may be obtained free of charge by contacting our Administrative Service Center at: ING Service Center, P.O. Box 5050 Minot, ND 58702-5050, calling 1-877-884-5050 or by accessing the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") website or by contacting the SEC Public Reference Branch. If you received a summary prospectus for any of the funds available through your contract, you may obtain a full prospectus and other fund information free of charge by either accessing the internet address, calling the telephone number or sending an email request to the email address shown on the front of the fund's summary prospectus.

Certain funds offered under the contracts have investment objectives and policies similar to other funds managed by the fund's investment adviser. The investment results of a fund may be higher or lower than those of other funds managed by the same adviser. There is no assurance and no representation is made that the investment results of any fund will be comparable to those of another fund managed by the same investment adviser.

(1) These funds are structured as fund of funds that invest directly in shares of the underlying funds. A fund structured as a “fund of funds” may have higher fees and expenses than a fund that invests directly in debt and equity securities because it also incurs the fees and expenses of the underlying funds in which it invests. Please refer to the fund prospectus for information about the aggregate annual operating expenses of the fund and its corresponding underlying fund or funds.

Effective December 19, 2007, ING Balanced Portfolio was closed to any new investment (including loan repayments) or transfers. Contract holders who have an account value in the ING Balanced Portfolio may leave their account value in this investment option, but future allocations and transfers are not allowed.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPANY'S INTEREST BEARING RETAINED ASSET ACCOUNT

The following updates information regarding payment of death benefits or proceeds:

Subject to the conditions and requirements of state law, full payment of the death benefit or proceeds ("Proceeds") to a beneficiary may be made either into an interest bearing retained asset account that is backed by our general account or by check. For additional information about the payment options available to you, please refer to your claim forms or contact our ING Customer Service Center at P.O. Box 5011, Minot, ND 58702-5011, 1-877-886-5050 or www.ingservicecenter.com. Beneficiaries should carefully review all settlement and payment options available under the contract and are encouraged to consult with a financial professional or tax adviser before choosing a settlement or payment option.

The Retained Asset Account. The retained asset account, known as the ING Personal Transition Account, is an interest bearing account backed by our general account. The retained asset account is not guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). Beneficiaries that receive their payment through the retained asset account may access the entire Proceeds in the account at any time without penalty through a draftbook feature. The Company seeks to earn a profit on the account, and interest credited on the account may vary from time to time but will not be less than the minimum rate stated in the supplemental contract delivered to the beneficiary together with the paperwork to make a claim to the Proceeds. Interest earned on the Proceeds in the account may be less than could be earned if the Proceeds were invested outside of the account. Likewise, interest credited on the Proceeds in the account may be less than under other settlement or payment options available through the contract.
