Consolidated Statements of Income, page 5

1. Since your caption "cost of revenues" appears to exclude depreciation and amortization for manufacturing property and equipment which is directly attributed to the generation of revenue, we believe that this presentation inappropriately reports a figure for income before depreciation and amortization. As required by SAB 11:B, revise your presentation to either reclassify the applicable depreciation into "cost of revenues" or remove the caption "gross margin" and indicate the amount of applicable depreciation that is excluded from "cost of revenues." We note that your in-store services group is involved in fixture design and manufacture. Additionally you own manufacturing facilities.
