Dear Mr. Noddle:

We have reviewed your responses dated February 14, 2008 and have the following comments. You should comply with the comments in all future filings, as applicable. Please confirm in writing that you will do so, and also explain to us how you intend to comply. If you disagree, we will consider your explanation as to why our comments are inapplicable or a revision is unnecessary. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation. After reviewing this information, we may raise additional comments.

Form 10-K for the Fiscal Year Ended February 24, 2007 Retail Food, page 4 Principal Markets, page 5

1. We have read your response to prior comment 1 from our letter dated January 30, 2008 regarding disclosure of the amount or percentage of total revenue contributed by each class of similar products or services. However, we note that products you offer within your Retail food segment, although perhaps advertised in the same circular and sold in the same store, represent different classes of similar products that include food, prescription drugs, and other non-food items such general merchandise and household goods. Please revise your disclosure to include in tabular form for each period presented the amount or percentage of total revenue contributed by each class of similar products or services. Refer to Item 101(c)(1)(i) of Regulation S-K. Also, revise the notes to your financial statements to provide the disclosure required by paragraph 37 of SFAS no. 131.

2. We note your response to prior comment two from our letter dated January 30, 2008. However, we reissue the comment. Economic factors such as inflation, unemployment and customer spending that you set forth in your response can vary widely across United States geographic regions. To the extent that an area of the country where the company has a significant concentration of stores and sales experiences an economic slowdown, the company's results could be adversely affected. If the company does not have a significant concentration in any of the geographic regions set forth on page five, please advise.

Item 1A. Risk Factors, page 9

3. We note your response to prior comments five and six from our letter dated January 30, 2008. Please provide us with more detailed disclosure concerning how you intend to comply or provide us with proposed disclosure.

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Result of Operations

Critical Accounting Policies, page 25

4. We have read your response to prior comment 11 from our letter dated January 30, 2008 relating to revising your current disclosure to, among other things, clarify and quantify each critical estimate while providing greater insight into each estimate rather than merely duplicating the accounting policy disclosure in Note 2. Your response states that you plan to review and revise the disclosure of each policy to provide greater insight into the nature and variability of the critical judgments and estimates being made. Please also provide more quantitative disclosure of your sensitivity to change based on other outcomes that are reasonably likely to occur and that would have a material affect on the Company. For example, your revised disclosure of vendor funds could be enhanced by providing investors with information as to the significance of vendor funds being received by you by disclosing either the amount of vendor funds received for each period presented or whether a 10% reduction in vendor funds would have a material affect on your results of operations. Please show us what your revised disclosure will look like for each critical estimate.

Liquidity and Capital Resources, page 28

5. We have read your response to prior comment 12 from our letter dated January 30, 2008 regarding the residual value guarantee. You indicate the lessor was entitled to recover $60 million at the end of the lease term either from the Company's purchase or through remarketing of the property. Please tell us if the lessor's entitlement to the $60 million was a lease guarantee. If so, please explain why the stated amount of the guarantee of $60 million was not initially included in the minimum lease payments as set forth in paragraph 5(j) of SFAS no. 13.

- 6. We have read your response to prior comment 18 from our letter dated January 30, 2008 regarding the disclosure of vendor participation in cooperative advertising expenditures. Please also revise your disclosure in management's discussion and analysis to disclose whether or not management would continue to incur the same level of advertising expenditures even if vendors discontinued their support.
- 7. Please tell us and disclose in future filings whether you recognize the reimbursements as the milestones are achieved or if you accrue the reimbursements. If you apply the accrual method, please explain to us the factors you considered in determining the reimbursements are probable and reasonably estimable. Please tell us if you receive reimbursements under vendor fund arrangements that are expected to be completed within three years. If so, specifically address how you are able to determine whether the reimbursement is probable and reasonably estimable if you apply the accrual method.

8. We note your response to prior comments 21, 22 and 23 from our letter dated January 30, 2008. Please provide us with more detailed disclosure sufficient to indicate how you intend to comply with each comment or you may provide sample disclosure as of February 24, 2007. In particular, please discuss in detail whether the company engages in benchmarking. If so, please disclose the benchmark and its components in accordance with Item 402(b)(2)(xiv) of Regulation S-K.

9. We note your response to prior comment 24 from our letter dated January 30, 2008. Please provide us with more detailed disclosure sufficient to indicate how you intend to comply with this comment or you may provide sample disclosure as of February 24, 2007. While we understand that performance targets for a year not yet completed do not affect a named executive officer's compensation for the previous year, there are circumstances where disclosure of such targets could be beneficial to provide appropriate context for the prior year's compensation in accordance with Instruction 2 to Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K. Please confirm that if, in the future, performance targets for the current year would be necessary to provide context for the previous year's compensation, you will provide such disclosure.
