Any shareholder signing and delivering a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted by filing with the Secretary of the Company an instrument revoking it, or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. Any shareholder attending the meeting in person may withdraw his or her proxy and vote his or her shares.

The cost of the solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company. Solicitations will be made only by mail provided, however, that, if necessary, officers and regular employees of the Company may make solicitations of proxies personally or by telephone or telegram, but such persons will not be specially compensated for such services. If any such nominee should decline or become unable to serve as a director for any reason, votes will be cast instead for a substitute nominee, if any, designated by the Board of Directors or, if none is so designated, will be cast according to the judgment in such matters of the person or persons voting the Proxy.
