HABERMAN BROS.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS December 31, 2001

NOTE 1- ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

Haberman Bros. (a Partnership) (the "Company") is registered as a securities broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission, became a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. in 1959 and became an associate member of the American Stock Exchange in 1988.

The Company earns commission income by introducing and forwarding as a broker, transactions and accounts of customers to another broker-dealer who carries such accounts on a fully disclosed basis. The Company also trades securities for its own account, and receives income from leasing its New York Stock Exchange seat.

NOTE 2- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue Recognition

Proprietary securities transactions are recorded on the trade date, as if they had settled. Profit and loss arising from all securities and commodities transactions entered into for the account and risk of the company are recorded on a trade date basis. Customer securities and commodities transactions are reported on a settlement date basis with related commission income and expenses reported on a trade date basis.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company is engaged in various investment and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the Company's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

In accordance with industry practice and regulatory requirements, the Company and the clearing broker monitor collateral on the securities transactions introduced by the Company.
