INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

To the Stockholders of
Julian LeCraw Realty Advisors, Inc.
Atlanta, Georgia

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Julian LeCraw Realty Advisors, Inc. as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related statements of income (loss), changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Julian LeCraw Realty Advisors, Inc. as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained on pages 6-8 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole. Further, we have determined that Julian LeCraw Realty Advisors, Inc., during the year ended December 31, 2001, was in compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i) in that it carried no margin accounts, handled no customer funds or securities and held no funds or securities for, or owed no money or securities to its customers. We have also determined that Julian LeCraw Realty Advisors, Inc. had no liabilities subordinated to claims of creditors at December 31, 2001. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

JULIAN LECRAW REALTY ADVISORS, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2001 AND 2000

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A. Julian LeCraw Realty Advisors, Inc. (the "Company"), a Georgia corporation incorporated April 27, 1994, was formed as a broker/dealer to sell interests in real estate limited partnerships sponsored by an affiliate. The Company commenced doing business during 1995.

B. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

C. The Company, with the consent of its stockholders, has elected to be taxed as an S-Corporation. Accordingly, income or loss from the Company will be combined with the income and expenses of the individual stockholders. The Company itself is not a taxpaying entity for purposes of federal or state income taxes; therefore, no income taxes are recorded in the accompanying financial statements.

2. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

All escrow fee income was generated from partnerships whose general partner is affiliated with the Company. The Company is operated out of the office of an affiliate which has identical ownership. Occupancy, compensation and commission expenses are not charged by the affiliate to the Company. Further, the Company does not charge or collect commissions for its services in marketing limited partnership offerings. Accordingly, the statements of income (loss) and cash flows are not representative of revenues or expenses that would be incurred by an independent company. The Company is dependent on capital contributions from its owners and the affiliate in order to operate.

3. REGULATORY NET CAPITAL

The Company is required to maintain a minimum of $5,000 of net capital for regulatory purposes. According to regulations, assets such as due from affiliates, prepaid expenses, fixed assets, intangible assets and deferred costs are not allowable for purposes of computing regulatory net capital. If the Company's net capital falls below 120% of the minimum required, it must notify the regulatory agency and cease doing business until net capital is restored to 120% of the minimum level. At December 31, 2001, the Company had $7,114 of net capital, which meets the net capital requirement.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL STRUCTURE REQUIRED
BY SEC RULE 17a-5

To the Stockholders of
Julian LeCraw Realty Advisors, Inc.
Atlanta, Georgia

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Julian LeCraw Realty Advisors, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2001, we considered its internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

We also made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13, in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or in obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by Rule 15c3-3 because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S.

generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate. Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the control procedures and its operation that we consider to be a "material weakness" as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2001, to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used for any other purpose by anyone other than these specified parties.
