INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
David M. Polen Securities, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of David M. Polen Securities, Inc. (a wholly owned subsidiary of Polen Capital Management, Inc.) as of December 31, 2001. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of David M. Polen Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION December 31, 2001

- 1. ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS ACTIVITY:

David M. Polen Securities, Inc. (the "Company"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Polen Capital Management, Inc. (the "Parent"), is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. The Company conducts business on a fully disclosed basis with Neuberger & Berman (the "Clearing Broker") pursuant to a clearing agreement. The Company does not receive, directly or indirectly, or hold funds or securities for, or owe funds or securities to, customers and does not carry accounts of or for customers.

- 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

These financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America which require the use of estimates by management.

The Company considers all highly liquid, short-term investments with a maturity of 90 days or less when acquired to be cash equivalents.

- 3. RECEIVABLE FROM CLEARING BROKER:

The Company conducts business with the Clearing Broker on behalf of its customers and for its own proprietary accounts. During 2001, the Company earned commissions as an introducing broker for the transactions of its customers. The clearing and depository operations for the Company's customer accounts and proprietary transactions are performed by the Clearing Broker pursuant to the clearance agreement.

- 4. OFF-BALANCE-SHEET RISK AND CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK:

In the normal course of business, securities transactions of customers are introduced to and cleared through the Clearing Broker. Pursuant to an agreement between the Company and the Clearing Broker, the Clearing Broker has the right to charge the Company for unsecured losses that result from a customer's failure to complete such transactions.

The Company does not anticipate nonperformance by customers in the above situations. In addition, the Company has a policy of reviewing, as considered necessary, the credit standing of the customers, the Clearing Broker and financial institutions with which it conducts business.

In the normal course of business, customers may sell securities short. Subsequent market fluctuations may require the Clearing Broker to obtain additional collateral from the Company's customers. It is the policy of the Clearing Broker to value the short positions daily and to obtain additional deposits where deemed appropriate.

- 5. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

At December 31, 2001, the Company advanced funds to the Parent in the amount of $816,692. Outstanding advances are noninterest-bearing.

- 6. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS: The Company is subject to the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule (rule 15c3-1) which requires that net capital, as defined, shall be the greater of $5,000 or one-fifteenth of aggregate indebtedness, as defined. Net capital changes from day to day, but at December 31, 2001, the Company had net capital of $30,932 which exceeded its requirement of $5,000 by $25,932. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .39 to 1.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

To the Board of Directors
David M. Polen Securities, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of David M. Polen Securities, Inc. (the "Company") for the year ended December 31, 2001, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2001 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report recognizes that it is not practicable in an organization the size of David M. Polen Securities, Inc. to achieve all the divisions of duties and cross-checks generally included in a system of internal control and that, alternatively, greater reliance must be placed on surveillance by management.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the board of directors, management, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and other regulatory agencies which rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
