INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
Robert Brandt & Co.
Los Angeles, California

We have audited the statement of financial condition of Robert Brandt & Co. as of December 31, 2001. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly in all material respects the financial position of Robert Brandt & Co. as of December 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2001

Note 1: Summary of significant accounting policies:

The Company is an institutional stock brokerage firm which commenced operations in 1970. The Company's clientele are major industrial corporations and financial institutions. The Company operates pursuant to the (K)(2)(ii) exemptive provision of SEC Rule 15c3-3, using Correspondent Services Corporation (Paine Webber) as their fully disclosed clearing agent.

Security transactions and the related commission revenue and expenses are reflected on a settlement date basis.

Cash equivalents consist of highly liquid money-market funds and bank deposits with maturities of less than three months when purchased.

The U.S. Treasury Bills maturing January 17 and February 7, 2002 are stated at current market value.

Depreciation of equipment is provided on the straight-line and accelerated methods over the estimated useful lives of the property.

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to credit risk consist primarily of cash and short-term investments. The Company places its cash and cash investments with high credit quality institutions and, at times, such amounts may be in excess of the FDIC insurance limits.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of asset and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 2: Income taxes:

On January 1, 1988, the Company became an "S" Corporation. Accordingly, no provision for Federal income tax has been made in the accounts of the Company. Taxable income is passed directly to the Company's sole stockholder.

Note 3: Commitments:

The Company leases its office space under an operating lease expiring on August 31, 2006, at a current annual rent of $68,808. The Company has the option to terminate the lease at any time during the term with thirty days prior written notice and a cancellation fee equal to three months basic rent, at the rate that would have been in effect during the month immediately following the effective date of such termination.

Note 4: Net capital requirements:

The Company is subject to the net capital rules (Rule 15c3-1) of The Securities and Exchange Commission, which requires a minimum net capital of not less than $5,000, and the ratio of aggregate indebtedness, as defined, to net capital, as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2001, the Company's net capital ratio was .8766 to 1; its net capital was $1,725,506, and the required net capital was $100,889.

Note 5: S.E.C. Report:

A copy of the December 31, 2001 Annual Audit Report pursuant to Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 17a-5 is available for examination at the Company's office and at the Los Angeles Regional Office of the S.E.C.
