INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

February 28, 2002

The Partners
Essex-Radez Company

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Essex-Radez Company as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, as listed in the foregoing table of contents. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the provisions of Section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Essex-Radez Company as of December 31, 2001 and 2000 and the change in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2001 AND 2000

1. ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS

Essex-Radez Company was organized in 1977 as a general partnership to operate as a broker dealer on The Chicago Board Options Exchange.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting – The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Estimates – The Preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Values of Financial Instruments – The carrying amounts of cash, receivables, payables, and other current assets and liabilities approximates fair value with the exception of the exchange membership that is listed at cost.

Cash and cash equivalents – Cash and cash equivalents include demand deposits and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

Revenue Recognition – Revenue is recognized on securities held on a marked to market basis. This form of revenue recognition is consistent with the reporting requirements under Section 15 of the Security and Exchange Act of 1934.

Income Taxes – The partnership does not incur any Federal and state income taxes. Each respective partner reports their share of income or loss on their personal returns.

3. Essex-Radez Company does not maintain any accounts for customers as defined under Rule 15c3-3.

AUDITOR'S REPORT ON COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND REGULATIONS

February 28, 2002

The Partners
Essex-Radez Company

We have audited the financial statements of Essex-Radez Company, as of and for the year ended December 31, 2001, and have issued our report thereon dated February 28, 2001.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the provisions of Section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatements.

Compliance with laws, regulations, and contracts applicable to the organization is the responsibility of the organization's management. As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of the organization's compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations and contracts. However, providing an opinion on overall compliance with such provisions was not an objective of our audit of the financial statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance that are required to be reported herein under Government Auditing Standards.

This report is intended for the information of the general partners. However, this report is a matter of public record and its distribution is not limited.

Roger A. Householder, CPA
