INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
Integrity Securities, Inc.
Oakland, California

We have audited the statement of financial condition of Integrity Securities, Inc. (a California corporation) as of December 31, 2001, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Integrity Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained on pages 11 through 14 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. The additional information is required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material aspects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole, and in conformity with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Year Ended December 31, 2001

NOTE A – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

General

Integrity Securities, Inc. (the Company), a California corporation, was incorporated in July, 1996, and registered as a broker-dealer under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 in April, 1997. The Company is a full service broker and dealer in securities.

Accounting

These financial statements are prepared using the accrual method of accounting.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment purchases greater than $500 are recorded at cost. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets (five to seven years). Leasehold improvements are amortized over the life of the lease (three years).

Start-Up Costs

Start-up costs have been capitalized and are being amortized over five years using the straight-line method.

Statement of Cash Flows

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Regulatory Requirements

The Company is exempt from the requirements of Rule 15c3-3 pursuant to the rules for broker-dealers who clear all transactions for customers on a fully disclosed basis with a clearing broker-dealer and who promptly transmit all customer funds and securities to the clearing broker-dealer.

Securities Transactions

Securities transactions are recorded on the trade date.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE A – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Advertising

The Company follows the policy of expensing any advertising costs as incurred.

Income Taxes

Commencing in 1998, the Company, with the consents of its shareholders, elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be an S corporation. In lieu of corporation income taxes, the shareholder of an S corporation is taxed on his proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. Therefore, no provision or liability for federal income taxes has been included in the financial statements. The provision shown is for state income taxes.

NOTE B – Furniture and Equipment

Furniture and equipment consist of the following:

Furniture and equipment	$ 37,685
Leasehold improvements	5,374
	43,059
Less accumulated depreciation and amortization	(24,914)
	$ 18,145

NOTE C – Pension Plan

The Company has a combined profit sharing and money purchase pension plan for the benefit of all eligible employees. The Company contributions are based on the employee's annual compensation. Contributions to the profit sharing plan are at the discretion of the Board of Directors to a maximum of 15% of eligible compensation. The required contribution to the money purchase pension plan is 10%. For 2001, contributions totaling $20,500 for the money purchase pension plan are included in compensation in the statement of operations. No contribution was made to the profit-sharing plan for 2001.

For the Year Ended December 31, 2001

NOTE D – Commitments and Contingencies

Operating Leases

Aggregate annual rentals for office space under a noncancellable operating lease with original terms in excess of one year are as follows:

2002	$ 28,600
------	------------------

Rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2000 of $ 28,097, is included in occupancy in the statement of operations.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company's receivables are predominantly from other broker-dealers.

NOTE E – Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. As of December 31, 2001, the Company's net capital is $ 67,899, which is $ 17,899 in excess of the minimum amounts required. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital at December 31, 2001, was .18 to 1.0

The rule provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn, subordinated debt may not be repaid and cash dividends may not be paid if the resulting net capital would be less than the amounts required under the rule.

February 1, 2002

Board of Directors
Integrity Securities, Inc.
Oakland, California

We have audited the financial statements of Integrity Securities, Inc., for the year ended December 31, 2001, and have issued our report thereon dated February 1, 2002. As part of our audit, we made a study and evaluation of the Company's system of internal accounting control to the extent we considered necessary to evaluate the system as required by U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. The purpose of our study and evaluation, which included obtaining an understanding of the accounting system, was to determine the nature, timing, and extent of the auditing procedures necessary to express an opinion on the financial statements.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g) (1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures) followed by Integrity Securities, Inc., that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-5(g)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Since the Company does not maintain customer accounts and does not handle securities, we have not made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures) relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) for (1) making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13, (2) complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve system, and (3) obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by Rule 15c3-3.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgements by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of control procedures and of the practices and procedures as referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the commission's above-mentioned objectives. The objectives of a system and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any system of internal accounting control of the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may nevertheless occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the system to future periods is subject to the risk that procedures may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with procedures may deteriorate.

Our study and evaluation made for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph would not necessarily disclose all weaknesses in the system. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the system of internal accounting control of Integrity Securities Inc., taken as a whole. Our study and evaluation disclosed no condition that we believed to be a material weakness.

We understand that practices and procedure that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2001, to meet the Commission's objectives and nothing came to our attention that would indicate the Company had not complied with the condition of its exception under rule 15c3-3 during the year then ended.

This report is intended solely for the use of management and the Securities and Exchange Commission and other regulatory agencies pursuant to their requirements and should not be used for any other purpose.
