Independent Auditors' Report

Board of Directors and Stockholders
A.T.A.P. Financial Services, Inc.
Leesburg, Florida

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of A.T.A.P. Financial Services, Inc. as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of A.T.A.P. Financial Services, Inc. as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statement, taken as a whole. The information contained in the supplemental schedule, "Computation of Net Capital Under Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission", is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplemental information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2001 and 2000

Note A - Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Organization - A.T.A.P. Financial Services, Inc. (the "Company") is a Florida corporation. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a broker/dealer which sells mutual funds, variable annuities, and other portfolio interests to customers throughout the United States.

Reserve Requirement Under Rule 15c3-3 - The Company will not clear transactions or carry customer accounts and will, therefore, be exempt under paragraph (K)(2)(A) of SEC Rule 15c3-3 from the customer reserve requirements as prescribed in the said rule. Thus, the Company is not required to establish a segregated cash account for the exclusive benefit of customers.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition - The Company recognizes revenues when earned and expenses when incurred.

Commissions Receivable - The Company considers commissions receivable to be fully collectible. Accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required. If amounts become uncollectible they will be charged to operations when those determinations are made.

Income Taxes - The Company, with consent of its stockholders, has elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be an S Corporation. In lieu of corporation income taxes, the stockholders of an S Corporation are taxed on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. Therefore, no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes has been included in the financial statements.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

A.T.A.P. Financial Services, Inc.

December 31, 2001 and 2000

Note B - Related Party Transactions

The Company had transactions in the ordinary course of business with stockholders/officers. Commission income and expense resulting from stockholders/officers transactions were as follows:

	Year Ended 2001	Year Ended 2000
Commission income	$13,783	$ 4,003
Commission expense	43,698	66,273

Additionally, commissions payable to stockholders/officers were $482 and $1,284 at December 31, 2001 and 2000 respectively.

Stockholders/officers owed the company $2,000 as of December 31, 2000. During 2001, the loan from stockholders/officers was repaid to the company.

During 2001, the company paid stockholder distributions of $9,775.

A.T.A.P. Financial Services, Inc. shares office space, employees, and supplies with an affiliated company and did not reimburse the affiliate for these expenses during the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000.

Note C - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2001 and 2000, the Company had net capital of $7,136 and $14,488, which was $2,136 and $9,488 in excess of the required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0 to 1, at December 31, 2001 and 2000.

Independent Auditors' Report on Internal Accounting Control Required by SEC Rule 17a-5

Board of Directors and Stockholders
A.T.A.P. Financial Services, Inc.
Leesburg, Florida

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of A.T.A.P. Financial Services, Inc. for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, we considered its internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

We also made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13 or in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2001 and 2000, to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and should not be used for any other purpose.
