Report of Independent Auditors

Board of Managers
Liberty Life Securities LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Liberty Life Securities LLC (the Company) as of December 31, 2001, and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Liberty Life Securities LLC at December 31, 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I, II, III and IV is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Liberty Life Securities LLC

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2001

1. Nature of Business and Organization

Liberty Life Securities LLC (the Company) acts as a retail broker/dealer distributing variable annuity contracts and variable life insurance contracts issued by insurance companies directly to institutional and individual investors in the United States. Additionally, the Company acts as a retail broker/dealer distributing redeemable securities issued by open-end and closed-end management investment companies.

The Company is wholly owned by Liberty Life Assurance Company of Boston (the Member). Liberty Life Assurance Company of Boston is wholly owned by Liberty Mutual Property Casualty Holding Corporation, which is 90% owned by Liberty Mutual Insurance Company and 10% owned by Liberty Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

The Company is registered as a broker/dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers.

The financial statements have been prepared from the records maintained by the Company and are not necessarily indicative of the financial condition or results of operations that would have occurred if the Company had been operating as an unaffiliated corporation (see Note 3).

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition

Commissions are calculated as a contractual percentage of sales and are recognized on a trade-date basis.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be treated as a partnership for tax reporting purposes. As such, there is no provision for state and federal income taxes as the Member is taxed on the Company's earnings.

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Such estimates and assumptions could change in the future as more information becomes known, which could impact the amounts reported and disclosed herein.

3. Related-Party Transactions

Services Agreement

Pursuant to a Services Agreement in effect during 2001 between the Company and Liberty Life Assurance Company of Boston, the Company receives certain resources of Liberty Mutual through Liberty Life to enable it to transact business. These resources include Liberty Mutual employees, consulting services, office space, utilities, telecommunications and information processing services. The Company was not allocated any expenses for these services in 2001. In addition, Liberty Life reimbursed the Company for registration and licensing fees and other expenses, which amounted to $270,080 in 2001.

4. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital such that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1.

At December 31, 2001, the Company had net capital and a minimum net capital requirement of $1,235,281 and $25,000, respectively. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital at December 31, 2001 was 0.02:1.

5. Subsequent Event

Effective January 1, 2002, the Company amended its Services Agreement with Liberty Life Assurance Company of Boston and will be allocated expenses for the Liberty Mutual resources provided to the Company. In addition, beginning in 2002, Liberty Life will no longer reimburse the Company for registration and licensing fees and other expenses.

Report on Internal Control Required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission

Report of Independent Auditors

Board of Managers
Liberty Life Securities LLC

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Liberty Life Securities LLC (the Company) for the year ended December 31, 2001, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the criteria stated in Rule 17a-5(g), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned criteria. Two of the criteria of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional criteria of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, misstatements due to errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of internal control to future periods are subject to the risk that internal control may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the effectiveness of its design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, and its operation that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that meet the criteria referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not meet such criteria in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2001 to meet the SEC's criteria.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Managers, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.
