Vector Partners, L.P.
Statement of Financial Condition
As of December 31, 2001

Report of Independent Accountants

To the Partner of
Vector Partners, L.P.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Vector Partners, L.P. ("Vector") at December 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. This financial statement is the responsibility of Vector's General Partner; our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit of this statement in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether this financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the General Partner, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of this financial statement.

1. Organization

Vector Partners, L.P. ("Vector"), a Connecticut limited partnership, is a U.S. broker-dealer acting as securities agent for its customers and affiliates. As of April 18, 2001, proprietary trading activities ceased. Vector Trading LLC is the General Partner of the limited partnership. There are no limited partners, only the General Partner exists.

Vector does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities and, accordingly, is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Vector clears securities transactions on a fully disclosed basis.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Vector considers short-term, interest bearing investments with initial maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. At December 31, 2001, all of Vector's cash and cash equivalents was held at one bank.

Transactions in securities are recorded on a trade-date basis.

The preparation of this financial statement in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the General Partner to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Receivables from Brokers and Dealers

Vector conducts business with various clearing brokers on behalf of its customers subject to clearance agreements. Transactions with customers are normally settled on a delivery-versus-payment basis. Under the clearing agreements, Vector has agreed to indemnify the clearing brokers for non-performance by any customers introduced by Vector. Additionally, Vector is subject to credit risk to the extent that the clearing brokers may be unable to repay amounts owed. At December 31, 2001, receivables from brokers and dealers include monies on deposit and commissions earned, but not yet paid from such brokers of $4,297,858 and $554,707, respectively.

4. Net Capital Requirements

Vector is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule ("Rule 15c3-1" or "the Rule"), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital. Vector has elected to use the basic method permitted by the Rule, which requires that it maintain minimum net capital, as defined, of the greater of $100,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness. At December 31, 2001, Vector had net capital of $1,726,763, which exceeded the minimum requirement of $211,001 by $1,515,762. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 1.833 to 1.
