INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors and Stockholder of Collins Stewart, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Collins Stewart, Inc. (the "Company") (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Collins Stewart Limited) as of December 31, 2001 that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our procedures included a review of the Company's control activities for safeguarding securities. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Collins Stewart, Inc. at December 31, 2001 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

(A Wholly-Owned Subsidiary Of Collins Stewart Limited)

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
DECEMBER 31, 2001

1. INTRODUCTION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The Company

Collins Stewart, Inc. (the "Company") is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Collins Stewart Limited (the "Parent"). On May 26, 2000, the Parent was acquired by Collins Stewart Holdings pursuant to a management buyout. The Company is registered as a broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc ("NASD"). The Company, incorporated on April 6, 1998 under the laws of the State of Delaware, conducts business from its office in New York City. The Company obtained approval of its NASD membership application and began operations in September 1999.

The Company is engaged in brokerage activities acting as an agent for U.S. institutional customers in the purchase and sale of UK and other European equity securities. All equity securities transactions are cleared through the Parent, a clearing broker, on a fully disclosed basis and accordingly, the Company does not carry securities accounts for these customers or perform custodial functions relating to their securities. The clearing broker has the right to charge the Company for unsecured losses that result from customer's failure to complete such transactions.

Basis of Financial Information

The preparation of the statement of financial condition in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Cash and Cash Equivalents - Cash and cash equivalents are comprised of cash and money market instruments with original maturities of ninety days or less.

Furniture and Equipment - Furniture and equipment are reported at historical cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided for furniture and equipment on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the assets.

Income Taxes - Deferred income taxes are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

Foreign Currency Transactions - Foreign currency transactions (principally commissions earned) are translated at the rates in effect during the period. Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars at the rate of exchange prevailing at the close of business at the statement of financial condition date.

3. TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATE

Commissions on foreign equity securities transactions are collected by the Parent directly from the customer and are remitted periodically to the Company. Management fees represent charges for dealer services and research, operations, administrative and other services from the Parent. Pursuant to agreements between the Company and the Parent, the Company is charged fees at rates which management believes approximates the fair market value of such services.

Due from the Parent, net at December 31, 2001, consists of the following:

Commissions	$ 4,120,487
Management fees	(3,659,850)
Clearing and settlement fees	(299,873)
Other	(129,130)
	$ 31,634

4. INCOME TAXES

At December 31, 2001, the Company had a gross deferred tax asset of $183,652, included in other assets on the statement of financial condition. Management believes no valuation allowance is necessary. This deferred tax amount is primarily attributable to temporary differences arising from certain organization and set-up costs. The Company believes that it is more likely than not that the results of future operations will generate sufficient taxable income to realize the deferred tax asset.

5. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

All employees of the Company may participate in the Company's qualified 401(k) retirement plan. The Company matches employee contribution amounts, up to a maximum of 5% of employee compensation. Additional employer contributions to this plan are at the discretion of the Company. The Company also contributes to a money purchase plan for employees who have met certain service requirements.

6. SUBORDINATED LIABILITIES

Subordinated liabilities consist of three floating rate subordinated loan agreements, with the parent, which pay interest quarterly.

Subordinated liabilities is comprised of the following:

Subordinated Notes	Maturity Date	Interest Rate	Amount
Floating rate subordinated loan agreement	October 15, 2002	Prime + 3%	$2,000,000
Floating rate subordinated loan agreement	August 31, 2004	Prime + 3%	700,000
Floating rate subordinated loan agreement	October 15, 2004	Prime + 3%	300,000
			$3,000,000

The borrowing under these agreements qualify as regulatory capital and the agreement includes all statutory restrictions specified by the Uniform Net Capital Rule under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

7. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

As a registered broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act"), the Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule pursuant to Rule 15c3-1 of the Act. At December 31, 2001, the Company had net capital of $3,463,708, which was $3,317,942 in excess of required minimum net capital of $145,766. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .63 to 1.

8. COMMITMENTS

The Company has entered into a lease commitment for office space on June 30, 2001, which also contains certain escalation clauses. The security deposit was made by a letter of credit from Chase Manhattan Bank and was paid by the Company. At December 31, 2001, the future minimum base rental payments under this lease are as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	Total Commitment
2002	$ 240,474
2003	244,682
2004	248,964
2005	253,321
2006	259,426
Thereafter	1,231,902
Total	$ 2,478,769

9. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS WITH OFF-BALANCE SHEET AND CREDIT RISK

The Company has no transactions in financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk.

In the normal course of business, the Company executes securities transactions on behalf of customers through a clearing broker. In connection with these activities, a customer's unsettled trades may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet credit risk in the event the customer is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations. The Company seeks to control the risk associated with its customer activities by making credit inquiries when establishing customer relationships. Credit exposure is monitored on an ongoing basis by the Parent, who performs the clearing and settlement functions for the Company.

10. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards Statement No. 107, Disclosures About Fair Value of Financial Instruments, requires that all entities disclose the fair value of financial instruments, as defined, for both assets and liabilities recognized and not recognized in the statement of financial condition. All of the Company's financial instruments, as defined, which are recognized in the statement of financial condition, are carried at, or approximate, fair value.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Collins Stewart, Inc. (the "Company") for the year ended December 31, 2001 (on which we issued our report dated February 20, 2002), we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the Company's internal control.

Also as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures) followed by the Company that that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g): in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13 or in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control and of the practices and procedures, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Securities and Exchange Commission's (the "Commission") above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal control or of such practices and procedures to future periods are subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that degree of compliance with the practices or procedures may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that misstatements caused by error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the Company's internal control and its operation, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2001, to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of the board of directors, management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
