Opinion of Independent Certified Public Accountant

The Board of Directors
Robert Blum Municipals, Inc.

I have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Robert Blum Municipals, Inc. as of March 31, 2002, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to the claims of general creditors and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Robert Blum Municipals, Inc. as of March 31, 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

My audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedules of computation for determination of reserve requirements, information relating to possession or control requirements and computation of net capital are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the audit procedures applied in the basic financial statements and, in my opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

ROBERT BLUM MUNICIPALS, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements
March 31, 2002

1. GENERAL

Robert Blum Municipals, Inc. ("the Company") was incorporated in the state of California on April 17, 1995. In July of 1995 the Company became registered as a broker-dealer in securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission and commenced securities transactions emphasizing municipal trading.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Securities transactions are recorded on a trade-date basis.

Inventory of municipal securities are valued at market value. Municipal securities for which there is no market on a securities exchange or no independent publicly quoted market are valued at fair value as determined by management. There was no material difference between cost and market (or fair value) at the balance sheet date.

Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis using estimated useful lives of 5 to 7 years. Organizational costs are capitalized and amortized on a straight-line basis over a period of 5 years.

Cash - In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board pronouncement #105, "Disclosure of information about financial instruments with off-balance sheet risks and financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk", the Company maintained cash balances during the year with a financial institution which exceeded the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limit of $100,000.

Statement of Cash Flows - For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, the Company considers all short-term investments with a maturity at date of purchase of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents are included with cash in the balance sheet.

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires that management make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

3. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are stated at cost and summarized as follows:

Office equipment	$ 1,464
Less accumulated depreciation	(1,464)
Property and equipment - net	$ 0

4. RECEIVABLE FROM CLEARING ORGANIZATION

Receivable from clearing organization represents cash on deposit with a clearing organization at March 31, 2002.

5. PAYABLE TO CLEARING ORGANIZATION

In order to facilitate the securities settlement process and to finance securities inventory, the Company incurs demand obligations to the clearing organization. Such obligations are collateralized by municipal bonds held by the clearing organization as company inventory, bear interest at rates that generally corresponds to the broker call rate of interest, and fluctuate daily in principal amount outstanding.

6. LIABILITIES SUBORDINATED TO THE CLAIMS OF GENERAL CREDITORS

The borrowings under subordinated agreements at March 31, 2002 are listed below:

Subordinated note, 9%, due June 30, 2003	$ 150,000
Subordinated note, 9%, due August 31, 2004	100,000
	$ 250,000

The subordinated borrowings are covered by agreements approved by the National Association of Securities Dealers and are thus available in computing net capital under the Securities and Exchange Commission's uniform net capital rule.

7. PROFIT SHARING PLAN

The Company's profit sharing plan covers all eligible employees. The plan was effective on August 1, 1995 and provides for a Company contribution of up to 15% of eligible compensation. All contributions to the plan are at the discretion of the Company.

Total profit sharing expense for the year ended March 31, 2002 was $25,500.

8. COMMITMENTS

The Company leases office space under a lease agreement which expires June 30, 2003. Under terms of the lease, monthly payments of $1,375 began on July 1, 1998 and increase approximately $91 annually through the expiration date.

The future minimum lease payments under the lease are as follows:

Year ending March 31, 2003	$	20,619
March 31, 2004		5,223

9. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Interest paid on borrowings under subordinated liabilities totaled $22,500 for the current period and was paid to the Company's sole shareholder.

The Company leases certain office equipment owned by the Company's sole shareholder. Lease payments for the equipment totaled $5,566 for the year ended March 31, 2002.

10. INCOME TAXES

The Company presently computes taxes on income based on the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes". Under the standard, deferred tax assets and liabilities represent the tax effects, calculated at currently effective tax rates, of future adjustments of taxable amounts attributable to events that have been recognized on a cumulative basis in the financial statements. Deferred income taxes arise principally from timing differences applicable to cash basis income tax adjustments. There were no material deferred income taxes at March 31, 2002.

The provision for income taxes consist of the following:

Current:
Federal	$	950
State		800
		1,750

11. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and a maximum ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital. Net capital and aggregate indebtedness change from day to day, but at March 31, 2002, the Company had net capital of $652,125 which was $552,125 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .044 to 1, which is less than the 15 to 1 maximum ratio.

Board of Directors
Robert Blum Municipals, Inc.

In planning and performing my audit of the financial statements of Robert Blum Municipals, Inc. for the year ended March 31, 2002, I considered its internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine my auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing my opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, I have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by Robert Blum Municipals, Inc. in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c-3-3. I did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13 or in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities of Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of the inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they might become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

My consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, I noted no matters involving the internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, that I consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

I understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on my study, I believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at March 31, 2002, to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the New York Stock Exchange and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and should not be used for any other purpose.
