INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

N.D. Meyer & Co., Inc.
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of N.D. Meyer & Co., Inc. as of June 30, 2002, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of N.D. Meyer & Co., Inc. at June 30, 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I and II is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

N.D. MEYER & CO., INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
June 30, 2002

1. ORGANIZATION

N.D. Meyer & Co., Inc. (the "Company") is a securities broker dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD"), principally engaging in Pennsylvania municipal obligations. The Company, like other securities firms, is directly affected by general economic and market conditions, including fluctuations in volume and price levels of securities, changes in interest rates and securities brokerage services, all of which have an impact on the Company's liquidity.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue - Securities transactions (and related revenue and expense, if applicable) are recorded on a settlement date basis, generally the third business day following the transaction date. This is not materially different from trade date basis.

Property and Depreciation - Furniture and equipment are depreciated generally on an accelerated basis over their estimated useful lives (three to seven years).

Income Taxes - The Company's method of accounting for income taxes conforms to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes ("SFAS No. 109") (Note 3). This method requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the financial reporting basis and tax basis of assets and liabilities.

Fair Value of Securities - The market value of securities owned, consisting of state and municipal obligations, is determined by the Company using quoted market prices, dealer quotes and prices obtained from independent third parties.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates and assumptions.

3. INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes consists entirely of current taxes payable. Deferred taxes and deferred tax assets or liabilities are insignificant.

Due to certain Pennsylvania municipal bond profits being exempt from tax the Company's income tax provision does not include a provision for Pennsylvania corporate income tax.

N.D. MEYER & CO., INC.
Notes to Financial Statements (Continued)
June 30, 2002

3. INCOME TAXES (Continued)

The Company has approximately $24,000 of federal net operating losses (NOLS), as of June 30, 2002, available to reduce future taxable income. These NOLS will expire in 2022.

4. COMPUTATION FOR DETERMINATION OF RESERVE REQUIREMENTS

The Company will operate in accordance with the exemptive provisions of paragraph (k)(2)(B) of SEC Rule 15c3-3. All customer transactions are cleared through FISERV Securities Inc. ("FISERV") on a fully disclosed basis.

5. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 which prohibits a broker-dealer from withdrawing corporation capital except upon six months' notice and from engaging in any securities transaction at a time when its "Aggregate Indebtedness" exceeds fifteen times its "Net Capital" as those terms are defined by this Rule. As a result of this Rule, Company capital may be withdrawn only to the extent that net capital is in excess of required net capital, which in any event, may not be less than $100,000.

At June 30, 2002, the Company's "Aggregate Indebtedness" and "Net Capital" (as defined) were $42,318 and $585,070 respectively, and its net capital ratio was .07 to 1.0. "Net Capital" exceeded minimum capital requirements by $485,070 at that date.

6. DEPOSIT WITH AND PAYABLE TO CLEARING BROKER

The Company has a clearing agreement with FISERV (See Note 4). Under the agreement the Company maintains a clearing deposit of $35,000. The Company carries its municipal inventory with FISERV and can borrow from FISERV up to 85% of its eligible municipal inventory in order to finance such inventory. The Company pays interest on any outstanding balance due FISERV at brokers call rate plus ½% (4.0%) at June 30, 2002. Interest expense was $32,862 for the year ended June 30, 2002.

N.D. MEYER & CO. INC.
June 30, 2002

7. CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

The Company, in the normal course of its investment and proprietary trading activities, underwrites, purchases, sells and makes markets in high-yield securities. For the purposes of this discussion, high-yield securities have been defined as debt securities, which are non-rated or those rated by Standard and Poors as BB+ or lower. These activities could expose the Company to a higher degree of credit risk than that associated with investing, underwriting and trading in investment grade instruments. As of June 30, 2002, the Company did not own any high-yield securities, as defined.

8. PROFIT-SHARING PLAN

The Company has a discretionary profit-sharing plan covering substantially all employees. The Company made $45,344 of contributions under this plan for the year ended June 30, 2002.

9. LEASE COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company maintains a lease for its office space and other rental commitments, which expire at various dates through September 2006. The future minimum lease payments required for the years ended June 30 are as follows:

2003	$	47,354
2004		44,705
2005		39,759
2006		38,518
2007		9,690
Total	$	180,026

Rent expense for all leases was $50,848 for the year ended June 30, 2002.

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into when-issued and underwriting commitments. The transactions relating to such commitments that were open at June 30, 2002, had no material effect on the financial condition of the Company.

Board of Directors
N.D. Meyer & Co., Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of N.D. Meyer & Co., Inc. (the Company) for the year ended June 30, 2002, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

- 1) Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons.
- 2) Recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13.
- 3) Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at June 30, 2002, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the NASD Regulation, Inc., and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
