"MADRID EN FOTOS":
MORE THAN 700,000 PICTURES OF MADRID NOW AVAILABLE ON QDQ.COM, THE WANADOO SPANISH ONLINE DIRECTORY

More than six months after the opening of QDQ.com, the online version of the second most extensive directory in Spain, Índice Multimedia, with the support of Wanadoo, is today putting online 700,000 pictures of Madrid's streets and buildings.

With this new move, Wanadoo is further enhancing the services of its Directory business in Spain.

Índice Multimedia, a subsidiary of Wanadoo, has recently introduced a new service under the heading "Madrid en fotos" (Madrid in pictures), the first photographic street directory dedicated to a Spanish city now available on QDQ.com, the online directory for Spanish businesses and professional addresses.

"Madrid en fotos" is the end-result of a partnership between Índice Multimedia and Wanadoo. Using cartographic documents of the city of Madrid, the first Spanish photographic street directory has been produced using technology developed by Wanadoo, the parent company of Índice Multimedia. In Europe, this service is available only on www.pagesjaunes.fr, www.wanadoo.fr and www.voila.fr, three French services from Wanadoo available in the cities of Marseille, Lille, Nantes, Bordeaux, Strasbourg, Nice, Lyon, Toulouse and Paris.

With 131,000 addresses and more than 700,000 photographs of the major thoroughfares in the Spanish capital, the Madrid project is the largest ever undertaken. So right now, "Madrid en fotos" covers virtually the whole city.
